

Let me add that personally I have no sympathy with any suggestion that war debts can be paid by the alienation of part of the debtor's territory.

With all good wishes,

I am,

Yours faithfully,

Principal.