

the rich of England and other countries, which very much prevents the population of the town.

It contains two large streams of water, viz. Stony Creek and Nanticoke, with several smaller ones—1 blacksmith, 1 tailor, 1 mason, 1 tanner, 2 shoe-makers, 1 joiner, 1 grist-mill, 2 saw-mills, 1 distillery, 1 store, 1 school, one religious society (Dutch Lutherans) and 1 divine.

WOODHOUSE.

Is thickly inhabited by rich farmers; and is well supplied with timber of various kinds, three miles from the lake shore; after which it is chiefly plains, beautifully interspersed with fine groves of timber. The soil of this township is of a sandy quality, almost entirely free from stone, and of course very easily cultivated. This kind of sandy land is very rich, not only on the surface, but far beneath. I have seen corn and other things planted on sand that was thrown up from 5 to 20 feet deep, which grew to great perfection; nor will it wear out in a short time. I have known land of this kind in the township under cultivation 16 years, without ever being manured, to produce 25 bushels of wheat per acre.

This township has been settled 20 years, with people from New-Jersey, New-York and Pennsylvania; and is famous for apples and peaches. It is watered with three large streams, which afford many fine falls for water-works, viz.
