31. Any four judges shall constitute a quorum and may lawfully hold the court in cases where the parties consent to be heard before a court so composed. 59 V., c. 14, s. 2.

Rule 111 provides that, "If it happens at any time that the number of judges necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business to be brought before the Court is not present, the judge or judges then present may adjourn the sittings of the Court to the next or some other day, and so on from day to day, until a quorum shall be present."

32. The Supreme Court, for the purpose of hearing and determining appeals, shall hold in each year, at the city of Ottawa, three sessions.

2. The first session shall begin on the third Tuesday of February, the second on the first Tuesday in May, and the third on the first Tuesday in October, in each year.

3. Each of the said sessions shall be continued until the business before the court is disposed of. R. S., c. 135, s. 20;—54-55 V., c. 25, s. 1.

See section 90 as to entry of appeals for the several sessions and the order in which they shall be heard.

33. The Supreme Court may adjourn any session from time to time and meet again at the time appointed for the transaction of business.

2. Notice of such adjournment and of the day fixed for the continuance of such session shall be given by the Registrar in the Canada Gazette. R. S., c. 135, s. 21.

34. The Court may be convened at any time by the Chief Justice, or, in the event of his absence or illness, by the senior puisné judge, in such manner as is prescribed by the rules of Court. R. S., c. 135, s. 22.

Rule 16 provides for the publication in the Canada Gazette of a notice convening the Court, and for the form of such notice see Schedule appended to the rules, form A.
