

PALM ROOM

HIS room is titled the "Barrel Vaulted Room" because of the style of its ceiling.

It is Renaissance in character with caen stone walls, and floors of Gruby tiles, in shades to match the scheme of decoration. Here is also a caen stone and marble fire-place.

Especially designed tables and chairs and settees in verde antique were chosen for this room, in which tea is served every afternoon between the hours of four and six.

Page six