Commercial Summary.

SOME 450 men are now employed on the Grenville canal improvements, and the work is reported progressing favorably.

CHARLES REEVES, of Freetown, P. E. I., is reported an insolvent under $1,717 of liabilities and having no assets.

A FIRST dividend of 20 per cent. has been declared from the estate of A. P. Mills, of Summerside, P. E. I., who failed in April last.

TRADE in Thorold, Ont., is reported brisk for February, so far as heard from, in proportion as the weather or condition of the roads has been favorable.

INFORMATION is wanted of the whereabouts of D. W. Coward, of St. John, N. B., who left that city some ten months ago, forgetting to leave his address at the post office.

RECENT changes of ownership of land and house property in the city of Quebec are indicative of awakening interest and promise in real estate operations.

THE Grand Trunk management, deferring to the request of city merchants as expressed by a deputation, announces a special fast train with through cars for Winnipeg once a week.

IT is feared that trouble will grow out of the strike of coal miners at the Drummond Colliery, Westville, Pictou County, N. S., the management having engaged new men.

ISAIAH DOUGHERTY succeeded to the business heretofore carried on by H. J. Caulfield and himself as general merchants, in the village of Eden, the co-partnership having been dissolved by mutual consent.

THE creditors of Jas. J. Gordon, insolvent trader, of Albion, P. E. I., have accepted an offer of 10 cents. on the dollar. The liabilities of the estate are stated at $4,136, and the assets, nominally, $837.
