Britannic Majesty, and the other by the President of the United States, and each of whom shall be learned in the law.

Appended to this Convention is a list of the claims intended to be referred.

ARTICLE II.

The two Commissioners shall meet at Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, Can. la, as soon as practicable after the exchange of the ratifications of this Convention, and, after taking an oath that they will fairly and impartially investigate the claims referred to them, and render a just decision thereon, they shall proceed jointly to the discharge of their duties.

The Commission shall also sit at San Francisco, California, as well as Victoria, provided either Commissioner shall so request, if he shall be of opinion that the interests of justice shall so require, for reasons to be recorded on the minutes.

ARTICLE III.

The said Commissioners shall determine the liability of the United States, if any, in respect of each claim, and assess the amount of compensation, if any, to be paid on account thereof—so far as they shall be able to agree thereon—and their decision shall be accepted by the two Governments as final.

They shall be authorized to hear and examine, on oath or affirmation, which each of said Commissioners is hereby empowered to administer or receive, every question of fact not found by the Tribunal of Arbitration, and to receive all suitable authentic testimony concerning the same; and the Government of the United States shall have the right to raise the question of its liability before the Commissioners in any case where it shall be proved that the vessel was wholly or in part the actual property of a citizen of the United States.

The said Commission, when sitting at San Francisco or Victoria, shall have and exercise all such powers for the procurement or enforcement of testimony as may hereafter be provided by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE IV.

The Commissioners may appoint a Secretary and a clerk or clerks to assist them in the transaction of the business of the Commission.

ARTICLE V.

In the cases, if any, in which the Commissioners shall fail to agree, they shall transmit to each Government a Joint Report stating in detail the points on which they differ, and the grounds
