

that truth, be it by false judgments, by erroneous disquisitions, by books, periodicals, all sorts of writings repulsive to sound doctrine; be it lastly by any worship of human contrivance. In short, she is bound to drive away evil and falsehood of any kind; and doing so, she does as God who is truth itself and necessarily abhors vice and error.

THE END