

21. The Secretary shall not be obliged to receive any entries not made in writing, blank forms for which will be furnished on application to the Secretary. Parties living at a distance may make their entries by mail.

22. Cards corresponding with the entries will be furnished the exhibitors, who alone will be responsible for the placing of them, and are requested to satisfy themselves that the cards correctly describe the objects exhibited. The Society cannot be responsible for any mistake arising from the non-observance of this or any other rule.

23. A Committee will be appointed by the Society to assist in naming fruit about which Exhibitors may be doubtful, but the Society do not assume any responsibility in the matter.

24. The Society will, under no circumstances, pay cartage on plants sent for competition. Cartage, however, may be paid if deemed advisable on plants sent for Exhibition only.

24. Prize Lists and all other information may be obtained by applying to the Secretary, and all persons interested in Horticulture are invited to contribute articles for exhibition.
