"DEATH FOR M'NAMARAS" IS THE CRY FROM RANKS OF OUTRAGED LABOR

Central Labor Union of Spokane Starts National Movement Calling for Deluge of Telegrams Demanding Execution of Dynamitards—Wave of Execration Sweeps From Coast to Coast.

Revelations Just Beginning.

The revelations at Los Angeles as to the dynamite outrages in the United States in connection with labor disputes are shaking the American nation to its very foundations. Organized labor is involved, and is likely to be still further involved. The revelations are only beginning. There are many more culprits than the McNamaras, and some of them are higher up. Outrage after outrage has occurred, and the men mixed up with them are likely to be unearthed. The money for the outrages came from somewhere. Where? The American people are determined to know. The federal government is already investigating the Indianapolis outrages, and they will investigate the others with increased energy after the confessions at Los Angeles. The manufacturers are severe in their criticism of Samuel Gompers, the head of organized labor. Altogether a most astounding state of affairs is about to be revealed.

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 2.—(Can. Press)—The Central Labor Union of Spokane, representing 4500 union men, is shaping plans for a country-wide movement to obtain the maximum penalty for the Los Angeles dynamiters. The program is to have every labor union organization in the United States telegraph to the California authorities before next Tuesday morning, urging that the limit sentence allowed by the laws of the state be imposed upon the McNamara brothers for the crimes they have confessed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 2.—That the McNamara brothers should be hanged, not imprisoned, was the conviction expressed to-day in statements by officials of three national labor organizations that have headquarters in this city. "The McNamaras took human life, and just as in any other case, the penalty should be life for life," declared Frank Duffy, national secretary of the Carpenters and Joiners' Union. "They deluded us, and we went down in our pockets for them. We don't want such men in organized labor."

"It is awful," said J. W. Dougherty, international secretary of the Bookbinders' Union. "As far as I am concerned, they cannot hang them up too high to suit me." Brand of Anarchists, W. J. Spieres, secretary to Jas. M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical Union, who is out of the city, said he would speak for Mr. Lynch when he said that "Hanging was none too good for anarchists, such as

Burns to Roosevelt
CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Detective W. J. Burns answered the congratulating telegram he received from Theodore Roosevelt by the following message: "Please accept my sincere thanks. It is the words of encouragement from men of your sterling character that urge us in the faithful and vigorous performance of our plain duty." Mr. Burns said he would leave Sunday or Monday for New York, return here in three or four days and go immediately to Los Angeles. The future of the dynamiting cases, he said, hung on the desire of District Attorney Fredericks.

the McNamaras are." He added: "It is a crime against unionism, as well as against humanity. They deserve the extreme penalty." "Union labor has learned a lesson," said W. D. Huber, president of the Carpenters' and Joiners' Union. "In the future we will look into cases like this a little deeper before we dig down into our pockets."

Reputate McNamaras.
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3.—(Can. Press)—The Los Angeles typographical union, a local of the international body to which James B. McNamara belongs, reputated him and his brother John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Association of Bridge & Structural Iron Workers, in resolutions adopted here to-day. The resolutions instruct the officials of the union to make a statement, the text of which is included in the resolutions themselves. The resolutions say: "Now that they have confessed their guilt, having duped, deceived and be-

LEADER OPPOSES DEATH PENALTY

Samuel Gompers Thinks Spokane Movement Altogether Unwise—Won't Discuss A. F. of L.'s Attitude.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(Can. Press)—"I am not a hound, I am not a bound. I do not seek human life in punishment for any crime."

This was the angry exclamation of Samuel Gompers to-night on his return from Troy, when shown a despatch from Spokane stating that the Central Labor Council of that city is planning a country-wide movement to obtain the maximum punishment for the Los Angeles dynamiters. Mr. Gompers made an impatient gesture as he finished reading the despatch and vigorously shook his head. "I do not believe in capital punishment under any circumstances," he continued. "I do not believe that the state has a right to take human life. This is a very unwise movement. I am against it. It is like the populace in the Roman arena demanding with its thumbs down that the victorious gladiator plunge the sword into his victim. I do not believe in thumbs down for these or any other men."

"What punishment do you think should be meted out to them?" the labor leader was asked. "Suppose we let the judge decide that. I am content to leave it with him," was the reply.

A Misdirected Effort.
"Has the American Federation of Labor any authority over the Central Labor Council of Spokane?"

"They are affiliated with us, but we have no authority over them. They have a right to do as they please as long as they obey the law. I can only say that this is a very unwise movement, a misdirected effort and I am not in sympathy with it."

Mr. Gompers was also shown the despatches stating that the federal investigation at Indianapolis into dynamiting cases would proceed in spite of the fact that the McNamaras had pleaded guilty, and was asked if he thought there was any possibility of officials of the American Federation of Labor being involved. "Let them go ahead. Let them go as high as they like," he exclaimed. "If there are other men above or below in this case, the federal investigation ought to disclose them. Let the federal investigation go on. If there was anybody behind these men, their identity ought to be known. Personally I cannot conceive of where they got their money to perpetrate their outrages. I cannot dream of who was behind them."

No Formal Statement.
Mr. Gompers was found at a Broadway hotel, where he will make his headquarters until he leaves for Washington, probably Monday night, and plainly showed the effects of the strain. "I had had little sleep and practically nothing to eat all day," he said. "In due time, when I have the facilities and the opportunity I may make a written statement, but I don't want to discuss the matter any more."

"It has been said that the McNamaras pleaded guilty to protect other persons," Mr. Gompers was told. "I don't know anything about that. I have received no communication from Los Angeles since the joint telegram from the McNamaras thanking me for the support of the American Federation of Labor. If there is anybody that needs to be protected, I don't know of it."

"Is the American Federation going to take any action in the matter? Will it make any investigation to find out where the money for the McNamaras expenses came from, or who was behind them?" the labor leader was asked. "It is too early to state yet what we will do. Until we hold our meeting on Jan. 6, I am afraid the public will have to wait."

Men's Fur and Fur-lined Coats.
We had a little touch of winter yesterday but it was very mild. There's more to come, however, and a fur-lined or all fur coat would feel more comfortable. The Dineen Company is showing some excellent lines in fur-lined coats of muskrat and mink, and of all fur coats in coonskin, Australian oosum, wombat and black dog. Also, there is an unusually excellent display of sleigh and auto robes, coachmen's fur sets, gauntlets and adjustable fur collars.

IN THE TRENCHES WITH THE ITALIANS

From a street photographic enlargement, Nov. 4, 1911. "QUIET THERE"—BERSAGLIERI DETACHMENT COMING ALONG A SAND TRENCH UNDER FIRE. A Tripoli telegram sent off on the 10th inst. stated that the usual ineffective artillery attack was delivered by the Turks on the northern front of the Italian line on the day before. The eastern front was frequently attacked by small bodies of Arabs. The engagement finished by nightfall. On the 10th the oasis was again to be cleared of rebels, who had evidently been recruited from the town of Tripoli. The Italian warships were watching the coast at the Tunis frontier. The various services to prevent the spread of cholera in Tripoli are being well organized. A concentration camp has been formed in the gardens outside the town.

United States Government Probing Huge Conspiracy

Prominent Labor Leaders, Alleged to Have Been Involved in Times' Explosion, Under Surveillance—Aid of President Taft and Attorney-General Wickersham May Be Invoked.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3.—(Can. Press)—The United States Government and California are co-operating to uncover one of the most gigantic conspiracies ever conceived in the history of this country. This was the declaration to-day of Assistant District Attorney W. Joseph Ford, second in command to District Attorney Fredericks, and the man who was arrested in Indianapolis for the alleged illegal extradition of John J. McNamara.

"It is only a question now of whether the federal government or the state authorities can reach certain persons and bring them to justice more effectually," continued Mr. Ford. The latter has been in charge of the gathering of evidence for the prosecution and while his chief, District Attorney Fredericks was resting on a ranch near here to-day, Ford occupied himself with the details of the McNamaras case. He admitted that the prosecution had under surveillance in other parts of the country some prominent labor leaders alleged to have been involved in the Times explosion, but said that arrests might first be made by the federal government in connection with its investigation.

"The federal government has shown every disposition to assist us, and we are helping them as much as possible," he said. Probe Will Be Deep. The vigor with which the federal government is pressing its investigation into the conspiracy, which is alleged to extend over the entire country, has been increased within the last fortnight, according to well informed persons here and in proof of this, it is shown that U. S. District Attorney McCormick now is in Washington, and U. S. District Attorney Miller of Indianapolis, and District Attorney Fredericks are in close communication. Evidence desired by the federal grand jury in Indianapolis from this place will go forward as quickly as it is asked for, Ford said. This question has been raised repeatedly, and local authorities have not stated their position until to-day.

"The ramifications of the matter are said to be so extensive that it would cause no surprise here if the subject had been brought to the attention, not only of President Taft, but of Attorney-General Wickersham. To give the prosecution here more

DARROW REPLIES TO CRITICISM OF SURRENDER

Only Motive, He Declared, Was to Save Lives of McNamaras—Los Angeles Business Men Helped Negotiations—Darrow Resents Comments of Labor Men.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—(Can. Press)—All known angles in the unexpected termination of the McNamara murder case were summed up to-night by Clarence S. Darrow, chief counsel for the defense, in a statement dictated to the Canadian Press.

Mr. Darrow's statement is as follows: "No motive of any sort entered into the disposition of the McNamara case, except the welfare of the men accused of murder. 'Believing as I did that the action taken would save the lives of the accused men, I had no more right to refuse it than a doctor would have to forebear an operation on a patient to save his life."

"A committee of Los Angeles people, beginning work Nov. 30, made it possible to accomplish the result. Their suggestions were brought to me first by Mr. Steffens on that day and every day thereafter as matters proceeded until the final determination. 'How much their efforts had to do

SIR WILFRID FOR LONDON TO SUCCEED STRATHCONA?

Report is Revived That Ex-Premier is to Be New High Commissioner—Strong Pressure is Said to Have Been Applied

Special Cable to New York American. LONDON, Dec. 2.—The American is reliably informed from a high and confidential source that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will soon succeed Lord Strathcona in London as the Canadian high commissioner. After the recent sensational Canadian elections, Lord Strathcona made one of his many flying visits to the Dominion, in order, as he told his friends, "to shake my friend Borden by the hand." During that visit the question of a successor to the increasingly important post of high commissioner was discussed. Sir Wilfrid Laurier expressed the opinion that if he took the London post immediately it would look as if

PERSIANS APPEAL TO AMERICAN LEGATION

Procession of 10,000 Makes Call on "Principles of Fair Play"—English Community Charge Sir Edward Grey With Ruining Prestige of Britain.

TEHERAN, Dec. 2.—(Can. Press)—Ten thousand persons carrying banners with the inscription: "Death or Independence," marched to the American legation to-day and appealed to the minister to urge the government to support the American principles of fair play and love of justice.

The English community here is aroused against Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, and think that Mr. Shuster, the treasurer-general of Persia, outplayed him by revoking the appointments of Englishmen, to which Sir Edward objected. The British correspondents here are making it very plain in their despatches that they believe that the British foreign minister is ruining the prestige of his own countrymen, which might be regarded as "laughable, if it was not tragic."

Two thousand additional Russian troops have arrived thirty miles south of Resht. The cabinet has resigned. A small body of Cossacks has arrived here to protect the Russian legation. Two hundred Cossacks have reached Kasbin. The Russian troops at Resht have disarmed the local Persian militia and occupied the telegraph office. They are acting as the war had been declared.

STRUCK BY CAR—DIED ON WAY TO HOSPITAL

William Gaffney, Aged 75, Walked Unknowingly Into Danger on Gullage Street.

William Gaffney, a man of 75 years of age, living at 14 Russell-street, was knocked down and killed by a street car at the corner of St. George and College-streets on Saturday afternoon about 4.30.

Gaffney had been at a barber shop on Queen-street and was returning home. He stepped from the sidewalk near Beverley-street and carefully watched a Carlton car coming from the east, but failed to notice one coming in the opposite direction. The car-fender struck his legs and threw him against the vestibule, and from there to the ground. A passing motor-car conveyed him to Grace Hospital, but he died on the way. It is thought that he sustained a fractured skull.

The car was in charge of Motorman Joseph May, 2169 East Gerrard-street, who says that he saw the man step from the sidewalk, but did not for a moment think that he would walk right in front of his car. May states that he was not traveling at a fast rate of speed, having stopped at Huron-street.

Gaffney was rather deaf and evidently did not hear the car approaching. Dr. Slinger will open an inquest at the morgue this afternoon at 4 o'clock.
