University Sermon

Owing to circumstances which prevented him from leaving Montreal at Next Week-Queens of the Follies Bergere the last minute, Prof. C. A. Johnston Ross was unable to preach the university sermon yesterday morning, and his place was taken by President Falconer, who preached on "The Larger Life," in Wycliffe College convocation

The president pointed out that when students came to the university their minds were broadened; they entered upon a larger life in which they a quired moral and spiritual energy, from which there was no retrogressilife, he said, was opened up by Christ. Christ taught it to His disciples and Christianity stands for it to-day. He exhorted the students to get a broad outlook and endeavor to realize their own possibilities.

What a weight of responsibility rests on the mother of the family during the winter season!
In every cough and cold she recogmizes the voice of Croup, Bronchitis, Consumption or other deadly throat

Few people, even among those who are convenient to doctors, can afford the luxury of a physician for every cough or cold, even though they realize the seriousness of neglecting such ailments

For all such Dr. Chase has provided prompt means of cure known as Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linssed and Turpen-

One reason why mothers prize this treatment above all others is because of its suitability for children. It is sweet and pleasant to the taste, and children like to take it. By its soothing, healing action it is wonderfully prompt in curing Croup, Bronchitis and Whooping Cough, and can be used
