PROPERTY OWNERS RAISE OBJECTION

Do Not Want Garage on Yonge Near St.

A THING UNHEARD OF

So Says Controller McBride Against Closing Public Streets.

Property owners on Alvin avenue protested to the board of control yesterday against the erection of a garage on Yonge street immediately north of on Yonge street immediately north of St. Clair avenue. It would abutt on their lots, causing depreciation, they claimed. The solicitors in the case will confer with a view to reaching an understanding. The board appointed Thos. McMillan to fill the vacancy on the social ervice commission. He is secretarytreasurer of the Ansley-Dineen Co.

The application of the British Acetones Co. for permission to close Mill and Trinity streets for the durationof the war was opposed by Controller McBride, while Controller Robbins favored it. The erection of fences sing a public thorofare, said the mer, was a thing unheard of in ronto, and should not be allowed. coller Maguire, who also favored the request, "for reasons best known himself," as Controller McBride ut it, was indignant at being charged erations. He favored closing the reets because the commissioner of that official, R. C. Harris, who says in a letter to the mayor:

"This is a matter for the local fuel commissioner. However, I am of the opinion that it would be extremely unwise to limit deliveries at this time to one-ton quantities, as proposed. Coal dealers should co-operate with the fuel commissioner to see that each consumer gets an adequate, fair supply, and I would suggest that the local commissioner confer with the coal commissioner confer with the coal dealers, and that a policy be framed Twenty-Eight Acres Near Rosedale Military Hospital Taken Over Formally.

Notice of expropriation of 28 acres of land on the heights overlooking the Rosedale Military Hospital (formerly St. Andrew's College) is given by the Dominion Government. As already explained in The World the land extends from the easterly side of the Reservoir ravine to a point about 600 feet east of Maclennan avenue, and running north to Rosedale Heights drive.
