SHERRING AT ST. KITTS.

Marathon Hero Lauded and Pre-

Wm. J. Sherring, Hamilton: Dear Sir,—By your world famous victory at Athens, Greece, on that long-to-be memorable first day of May, 1906, your many admirers in St. Catharines shared liberally and happily in the supreme pride with which you clothed your native land. Your Garden City tipe is then the Martin Electric road race three with Miss Gaiety and Sampan, There Wm. J. Sherring, Hamilton: Dear Sir,-By sterling qualities—physical and mental—which enabled you to achieve this great gitry for yourself and thereby add unprecedented lustre to the whole Dominion.

We, therefore, ask you to accept the accompanying token of our regard, together with our combined hope that in your future course of life, all obstacles may be as successfully surmounted as those over the classical hills of historic Greece.

Signed on behalf of the committee and others, F. W. Martin (chairman), F. J. Ross (secretary), St. Catharines, Ont., May 23, 1906.

St. Catharines contributed its tribute to William Sherring, winner of the Marathon race, by giving him a great reception here to right. It was in connection with the Empire Day concert, in which Ruthven MacDonald, Miss Lillian Little Hales and Miss Margaret Bruce McCoy, took part. During the first and second parts of the program Sherring was escorted to the stage by Mayor Riddell, who read the above address.

F. W. Martin then presented him with $100 in gold from his St. Catharines admirers. The feature of the concert was the rendition of the British army quadrilles, a new thing in Canada, by the 19th Regiment Band, the 19th Bugle Band, the Merritton Band and the 7th Pipers' Band of London. In connection with the production cannons were fired off outside the building.
