

They Are Moving Out Quickly

It seems to us that no matter how carefully we plan for the season's supply of boys' overcoats we never have enough. Gratifying, is it not? This season we have an immease showing of all the new things and yet they are movout so quickly that we fear that we will not have enough to supply the demand. Our advice to you is that NOW is the best time to

John Corrigan, G.T.R. Carpenter, Largest. Best Appointed and Decapitated in Railway Yards-Death of Wm. Brennan.

Hamilton, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—John Corrigan, 256 North Victoria-avenue, a G.T.R. carpenter, was run down by a this morning and instantly killed. The ne went to work. He was very deaf, and while walking in a narrow space between two tracks the engine backed into him, dragging him some distance. His head was severed from his body, his hand was cut off and his body frightfully mangled. Engineer Rodgers and Fireman Carroll, who were in charge of the engine, did not see him and did not discover the accident for some time. The unfortunate man was 66 years of age, and was a member of Unity Lodge, I.O.O.F. A widow and a grown-up family survive him. An inquest will be opened by Coroner White at J. H. Robinson & Co.'s undertaking establishment Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

COLLIERY BANK ON FIRE

Glace Bay, N.S., Oct. 21.—(Special.)— This morning the reserve colliery bank head was discovered to be on fire, the conflagration originating in a pile of conflagration originating in a pile of slack coal beneath the structure. The collery brigade turned out, but were unable to save it. The machine-shop also went up in flames, and but for a favorable wind the other buildings would have been burnt.

The Glace Bay fire department was summoned and a special brought up the nen with their fire engines. They arrived in an hour, and then the bank head was a mass of ruins, the machine-shop as well.
