Justice MacMahon Gives Judgment for the Plaintiff in Confederation Life v. Willson.

Mr. Justice MacMahon has given judgment in Confederation Life Association v. Wilson, tried at Toronto non-jury sittings. He finds that the chattel mortgage given by the defendant Arthur L. Willson to his mother was made to her without her knowledge and with intent to defeat the defendant's creditors, and sets it aside with costs.

To-day's List.

Single Judge at 11 a.m.: Neil v. Almond, Atwood v. Jackson, Thompson v. Trustees of School Section 17, Township of Sombra, Niagara Whirlpool Land Company v. Town of Niagara Falls, Job v. Slocombe, Wilkinson v. Countwright Salt Company, Canavan v. Canavan, Hebden v. City of Toronto, Neilson v. Neilson.

Non-jury sittings at 10 a.m.: Cash v. Biggs, Johnston v. City of Toronto, Burgess v. Hicks, Armour v. Kilmer, Lyon v. Syerson, Radam v. Shaw.

The Carlton-street East Pavement.

There is a proposal before the City Engineer to brick pave Carlton-street between Parliament and Sumach-streets. There are 40 names on the sheet and 27 of these signed for the petition. An effort was made to prevent the pavement being laid, and Mrs. Pillow, one of the ratepayers, protested that she had signed the petition under a misunderstanding as to what it would cost. W. S. Thompson of 271 Carlton-street also said that his name had no right to be on the petition. On these two items an unwinding paper of Saturday said: "The residents of the street are very indignant about the reprehensible tactics employed by unscrupulous persons to secure the pavement." In answer to this a prominent resident of the street told The World that this was a most unfair statement. Mrs. Pillow had signed, and she admitted that she had signed. As for the Thompson signature, Mrs. Thompson, who owned the property, has signed for it on instructions from her husband, and he therefore had no right to say his name was unauthorized. The great majority of the ratepayers are still favorable to the pavement and hope to get it, as it is to-day one of the worst streets in the city, and certainly needs improvement.

Father Lynett Honored.

Last evening Rev. Father Lynett was the recipient of two well-filled purses, one from the gentlemen and the other by the ladies in St. Joseph's Parish, Leslieville. That the Rev. Father is held in the very highest esteem by those who know him best was made plainly evident by the size of the purses, and the many kind things said of him in the well-worded and beautifully engrossed address read at the presentation. A list containing nearly every name in the parish accompanies this address, showing that the desire to honor a parting friend is unanimous on the part of the people. Father Lynett, in going to another and perhaps distant field of labor, carries with him the feeling that his work and personal qualities will long retain a place in the memories of those from whom he is about to part. The young ladies and the school children also made presentations and read addresses.

Business Embarrassments.

Carlisle Bros. & Co., house furnishings, St. Catharines, are offering to compromise.

H. J. Wilson, Niagara, tinware, has assigned to G. F. Buck.

Thomas Nicholls, general storekeeper, Gorrie, has assigned to James Perkins.

The creditors will meet on Nov. 2.

J. H. Kratz & Co., lumber, of Sprucedale, have assigned to G. B. Burson, St. Catharines. The creditors will meet on Nov. 4.

Mr. Richard Tew, assignee of the estate of J. Carter, grocer, Yonge-street, has declared a first and final dividend of 7¾ cents on the dollar.

W. F. Evans, Waterloo township, has assigned.

Pilon et Freres, general store, Alexandria, have compromised at 65 cents on the dollar.

Montreal Live Stock.

Montreal, Oct. 25.—There were about 600 head of butchers' cattle, 40 calves and 2000 sheep and lambs offered at the East End abattoir to-day. There was a much larger proportion of pretty good cattle on the market to-day than has been the case for several months past, consequently the price of good beef was lower than it was last week, while common stock brought slightly higher prices than on Thursday. Prime beeves sold at from 3½c to 4c per lb.; pretty good animals sold at from 3c to 3¾c; pretty common dry cows and rough stock brought from 2c to 3c, and the leaner old cows and hard-looking bulls from 1½c to 1¾c per lb. Calves sold to-day at from $3 to $14 each. Sheep or from 3c to 4½c per lb. Shippers are paying 3c per lb. for good large sheep. Lambs sell at from 3½c to 4½c per lb.; fat hogs bring from 4¾c to 5c per lb.

The Gratuity Scheme.

The council of the Board of Trade met yesterday and discussed the proposed new scheme of insurance. The result was the forming of a committee composed of the following gentlemen who will meet this afternoon: Messrs. D. R. Wilkie, J. L. Spink, W. D. Matthews, Elias Rogers, A. E. Kemp and M. C. Ellis. The trustees of the Gratuity Fund meet in the morning to consider an application for a loan.

The Laurier Club.

The Hon. William Mulock, Postmaster-General, will be present at the opening meeting of the club to-morrow evening in the hall, corner Brunswick-avenue and College-street. The Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, will deliver an address. The public are invited to come. Messrs. Mercier and Baker will take part in the musical program.

Dyspepsia and Indigestion—C. W. Snow & Co., Syracuse, N. Y., write: "Please send us ten gross of Pills. We are selling more of Parmalee's Pills than any other pill we keep. They have a great reputation for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint." Mr. Charles A. Smith, Lindsay, writes: "Parmalee's Pills are an excellent medicine. My sister has been troubled with severe headache, but these pills have cured her." ed

Lawson Got 30 Days.

Thomas Lawson, the West End youth who has been in custody for some time on a charge of breaking into the house of L. H. Wood, 956 College-street, during the Exhibition, and stealing two rugs, was committed yesterday and sent to jail for 30 days.

Cotton Markets.

New York, Oct. 25.—Cotton: futures closed steady: sales 148,000 bales. January 6.00, February 6.03, March 6.07, April 6.11, May 6.16, June 6.19, July 6.22, October 5.97, November 5.95, December 5.97.

WHAT A TIME HE WILL HAVE!

Many Charges are Being Brought Forward Against Lawyer Howard, Now in the Central.

Thomas W. Howard, the barrister who is serving a three months' sentence for forgery, will have a whole lot of alleged misdoings to answer for when his term expires. In addition to the irregular dealings already made public he is now accused of having forged the name of Mary Ann O'Donoghue to notes amounting to $1400, all of which he raised money on. Byron Nicholson of Quebec held a $1000 mortgage on some city property and the mortgage is alleged to have been assigned by Howard, forging the owner's name. It is understood that several money brokers in town hold paper discounted by Howard, and that the sum foots up to a big total.

ORDERS-IN-COUNCIL.

Inland Revenue Division of Terrebonne Abolished—Flour Samplers Appointed.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—An order-in-Council has been signed abolishing the Inland Revenue division of Terrebonne, which includes Argenteuil, Two Mountains and Terrebonne, and adding these counties to the Montreal division.

An order-in-Council has been passed, on Sir Henri Joly's recommendation, appointing the following gentlemen as a board for the selecting of standard samples of flour: Messrs. David Robertson (chairman), A. E. Gagnon, H. W. Raphael and Lionel J. Smith, Montreal; William Brodie, Quebec; William Galbraith, J. L. Spink, Toronto; W. G. Bailey, Hamilton; J. D. Sunby, London, Ont.; Robert Noble, Dominion Millers' Association; Robert Muir, Winnipeg. The board will meet on Friday next, Oct. 29, in the Montreal Board of Trade Building. The Corn Exchange Committee of the Board of Trade interested have the privilege of nominating for the approval of the Government these representatives. In its recommendation, the Montreal committee ignored Mr. Raphael, who was on last year's board, and, while stating that no fault was found with the personnel of the representatives last year, substituted another name for that of Mr. Raphael. The department has not coincided with this recommendation, but has re-appointed Mr. Raphael.

Sir Louis Davies and Hon. Sydney Fisher have returned to the city.

Grain Products for Canada.

New York, Oct. 25.—Commodity rates have been approved by the managers of the Joint Traffic Association on grain products in carloads from Buffalo to the Canadian frontier on the basis of 6c per 100 pounds above the Philadelphia rate.
