SOLD NEWSPAPERS ON SUNDAY.

Charles A. Campbell Appeals—Why Practice is Objectionable.

Before Judge Morgan yesterday. Charles A. Campbell, proprietor of the Grand Union Hotel, appealed to quash the conviction registered against him for selling newspapers to guests in his hotel on Sunday, Jan. 20, for which he was tried and fined $5 and costs.

Mr. Robinette appeared for Mr. Campbell and argued that under the Lord's Day Act it was not a crime to have sold the papers. Then, too, the indictment against him was in error, as he was charged with being both principal and accessory, whereas the papers had been sold by an employe of the hotel. Newspapers, it was argued, were a necessity to guests, and it behooved the hotel proprietors to see that their wants were supplied. Judgment may be the most vital features of the bill.

Trequently agricultural or pastoral. Thus, Sillarney is exempt under this clause. In cases of untenanted estates purchased by the Commissioners, they are empowered to declare sub-tenants to be tenants of any holding occupied by them, which will vastly benefit hundreds.

Fishing, sporting and mineral rights, which are among the most controversial, will be vested in the Commissioners also are empowered to determine boundary and other disputes between the proprietors of holdings under the bill. The Commission has the first claim to purchase between the proprietors of holdings under the bill. The Commission has the first claim to purchase them to tenants or use portions of them for the repatriation of evicted tenants. The latter point is regarded as being one of the most vital features of the bill.

IN THE HANDS

We have just about half enough room for our increasing business. The orders in every department have multiplied so that we have to add several stories to our building and take in the building next door. We must have room for more workers, room for a larger stock and more room for displaying our wares. We have placed ourselves in the hands of the builder, and he is tearing down the old before he can build up the new. Just now workmen are cramping us into smaller quarters than ever and our only relief from this congestion is to sell off a lot of our instruments at a wise men of the old world have dug deep and discovered the cause of Appendicitis. And the root of all the trouble is that old enemy of the human family, Indigestion. So eminent an authority as Dr. Sir James Crichton Brown in a recent leature in London. Brown, in a recent lecture in London, summed the matter up as follows:

"The increase of Appendicitis is largely due to Indigest on resulting from imperfect mastication and the hurried methods of living."
