Pastor Russell's Sermon

People's Pulpit, In This Mountain—Text: "And in This Mountain Shall the Lord of Hosts Make Unto All People a Feast of Fat Things" (Isaiah, xxv, 6).

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 1.—The Bible Students' Convention is in session here. Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle addressed the convention twice to-day. One of his discourses follows:

As you are all undoubtedly aware, the word "mountain" is used in the Scriptures as a symbol for kingdom. Earthly governments are represented as mountains and hills, while the Lord's government is represented as being established "in the top of the mountains." It is this mountain or Kingdom of God that is referred to in our text. It has not yet been established in the earth, and hence the blessed work foretold in our text is not yet realized. We still properly say, "Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven." True, a beginning has been made. For more than eighteen centuries since our Lord's ascension, and the bestowment of the holy spirit at Pentecost, the church has been in process of selection and purification. It is sometimes styled the kingdom, because its members when glorified will constitute the kingdom class—the bride, who, with the heavenly bridegroom, will share the kingdom honors and services for the world.

A Feast in This Mountain.

The bare announcement of the Kingdom of God would strike mankind variously in proportion as the character of the Kingdom and its work might be understood or misunderstood. Thus to-day many the mention that the Kingdom of God is nigh at hand would carry the thought of a wreck of matter and the crash of worlds. Not only our Second Adventists believe so, but the creeds of practically all denominations of Christians recite, that our Lord's second advent and the establishment of His kingdom will signify to mankind the end of probation, the end of hope, and usher in to all except the elect few a great burning day.

Far too long we have allowed these traditions of men to becloud our judgment, to come between our hearts and the great blessings set forth in God's word as now due to the church and to the world. It is very proper that those who are living in alienation from God in wilful sin should realize that the establishment of His kingdom will mean a reign of righteousness which will be strictly opposed to their pernicious ways—opposed to every form of immorality, opposed to every form of injustice and iniquity, opposed to every form of trickery and sham, and false pretense. But surely Christians who are seeking to live in harmony with the divine law, who are desiring for the neighbor, for the brother, for enemies, have every reason to look forward, to long for, to hope for the coming of the Kingdom of God, the most desirable thing possible to be imagined. Indeed it is thus described in Bible language: "The desire of all nations shall come." (Psalm lxxv, 7).

However much the few, favored by present conditions, may be pleased to have them removed, and the masses of mankind, if they were but converted from ignorance and superstition and brought to a knowledge of the truth as God's word presents it, would be glad and rejoice in the salvation which is to come to the world thru God's kingdom. The god of this world hath blinded the eyes of understanding of mankind and put darkness for light, and under the terror of the words "doom's day" has obscured the glorious blessings which belong to the day of the establishment of the Kingdom of the Lord (1 Cor. xiv, 4).

True, the kingdom of the heavens will be introduced, the Scriptures tell us by "a time of trouble such as never was" before and never will be afterward: a time of trouble which will involve all nations, and peoples, and kindreds, and tongues, and every part of the world; a time of trouble from which there will be no escape except for those who have made the Lord, even the Most High, their refuge and habitation (Psalm xli, 9). But then, even that plowshare of trouble the Lord prophecies shall be overruled so that it will constitute a channel of blessing to mankind, by preparing their hearts for the message of divine love and grace, centered in Christ and His redeeming work at Calvary.

Blessed the Hungry.

There are many hungry hearts in the world; many whose bodies are well nourished have famished hearts which cry out for love and sympathy. He who feeds the hearts, who knows what is in them, has prepared this feast which will surely satisfy every legitimate, righteous desire. Those who already are the Lord's people, and who have already feasted at the bountiful table spread for the Church, can appreciate to some extent the bounty that will be spread before the world in this great feast foretold thru the Prophet, in our text. There will be several differences, however, between our present feast and that one for the world.

(1) The present feast is merely a feast of promises which must be partaken by the exercise of faith. The feast described in our text will be a very actual one; the realities of the blessing of restitution, of health, of strength, mental, moral and physical. We will there be bountifully supplied, to be partaken of freely by all who appreciate them.

(2) The present feast spread for the Church is a spiritual one relating to a heavenly Kingdom glory and honor—things not seen as yet, except by the eyes of faith. To the contrary, the feast for the world, referred to in our text will consist of earthly bounties and blessings, most tangible in kind as well as excellent in quality; all that was lost in Adam will be tendered to such of his children as will accept the mercy. The Prophet in attempting to describe the bounties of that feast uses highly symbolical terms, and describes it as "a feast of fat things, full of marrow, and of wines of the best, well refined." Assuredly no language that we could use could fully and properly set forth the riches of God's grace provided for the world of mankind under the ministration of His Kingdom. The earth shall yield her increase, and the trees shall bring forth their fruits, the wilderness shall blossom as the rose, the solitary place shall be glad (Isaiah xxxv).

The Destructive Work.

The Lord thru the Prophet, after describing the feast of blessings and refreshments, portrays the destruction of things injurious to mankind, saying, "And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people—the veil that is spread over all nations" (verse 7). This veil is none other than the veil of ignorance and superstition which hinders mankind from seeing that the

Why the Nairn & Parsons Estate is Best

In the first place it is the cheapest land; in the second, it is the most desirable location. Then consider the beautiful view, the healthful air, the thrifty neighborhood, the convenience of school, church and more. The location is ideal, the drainage good, water and near the cars. Property is advancing in value. A year or two ago the lots near by were selling at $5 a foot, and now are worth $10 and $12. If you buy a lot now in the Nairn & Parsons Estate for $3 to $8 per foot, a year from now you can probably sell at twice the price. The only good suburb left at low prices.

Buy a Lot Monday—Take Your Choice

Creator is their friend, that righteousness and truth are to their advantage, that the ways of the Lord are righteousness altogether. The slightest of the new dispensation, the reign of righteousness, will scatter the clouds and the darkness, the veil of ignorance, and let into the hearts of mankind "the light of the knowledge of the goodness of God as it shines in the face of Jesus Christ our Lord." What a wonderful change, and how glad mankind will be, not only to have that feast prepared, but also to be rid of the darkness which would have them from appreciating it and coming to a knowledge of the Lord and His grace!

Still More to Follow.

The Prophet proceeds to describe further, saying, "He will swallow up death in victory." For several thousand years death has had the victory, and the human family have been swallowed up by it. The Scriptures describe the six thousand years of earth's history as a period of the "reign of sin and death." It is conservatively estimated that death has swallowed up twenty thousand millions of humanity, and that ninety thousand are going to the tomb every day. The Lord tells us thru the Prophet that with the establishment of His Kingdom will come a wonderful change; instead of death continuing to swallow up the race, dying shall cease. None shall die then except for a useful sin. How glorious a time that will be! All of our sorrows are more or less intimately associated with "the reign of sin and death." How we may well rejoice in the new dispensation which divine wisdom has planned and divine love will execute for the releasing of our race from this dying bondage, permitting them to return to the liberty of the sons of God, freedom from death, freedom from sin.

Wipe All Tears Away.

We remember our Redeemer's tender words, "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Those of us who have accepted his gracious invitation, obtained from Him the rest of faith, found that it meant to us the wiping away of our tears, the cancellation in a large degree of our troubles. We, then, should be able to understand the next statement of the Prophet in our text, "The Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces." It is the same message given to us in Revelation, where the same Kingdom, under the figure of the New Jerusalem, is brought to our attention. It will be the Heavenly Father who will wipe away the tears, not directly but indirectly thru his Son, the Redeemer. More and more as we come to an understanding of the grace of God, as illustrated in His divine plan of the ages, we come to realize that "all things are of the Father and all things are by the Son"—that the two, while distinct, are also distinct, and are operating in the work of relief which has already begun in the Church, and which ultimately is to extend to the world during the Millennium.

Tears are the marks of sorrow, pain, suffering; and the poetic statement that "God himself will wipe away tears from off all faces" is a beautiful and forceful suggestion of how the power of the Highest is shortly to be employed, in the eternal torment of the world, but in its blessing, its uplifting, the wiping away of its tears and sorrows. When we remember that there are no tears in heaven, and that the joys of that blessed state are because of its sinlessness, our hearts overflow with thanksgiving as we catch the poetic thought included in the assurance that all sin, and all tears and marks of sorrow, will forever pass away in that happy day. Truly we may be glad and rejoice and give honor to our God as we see His righteous dealings with our race manifested—as the clouds and shadows flee away and permit the sunshine of divine love and grace to take their proper places, before the eyes of our understanding. Other Scriptures show us that while universal opportunity for salvation will be accorded, none except those who avail themselves of it by a hearty acceptance of the Divine arrangement, and a hearty obedience to the laws of the Kingdom—these only will get the great blessing of life eternal; only their tears will forever be wiped away. All others, wilful sinners, will be destroyed in the "Second Death."

BIG ROMAN CATHOLIC PICNIC AT EARLS COURT

Anglicans Turn First Sod at Balm Beach—North Toronto Notes—County News.

NORTH TORONTO, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Locally a good deal of interest has been aroused by the statements in The World from day to day about the early history of the Metropolitan Railway and the steps leading up to the present franchise.

At the present time, and when cheap and rapid transportation is the great need of North Toronto, it is imperative that the conditions are strictly adhered to.

Before the Metropolitan horse-tram cars ran on Yonge-street the people were served by the St. Lawrence bus line, whose efficient performance proved a strong competitor to the new enterprise, and the company immediately found the privilege of running as fast as the town hall was not enough, as the buses could and did take their passengers further, consequently they immediately became busy in securing the privilege to extend their tracks as far as a point three hundred feet beyond the Eglinton Methodist Church. We learn from the minutes of the county council, June 10, 1885, "the warden laid on the table a petition of the Metropolitan Street Railway Co., asking to be allowed to extend their tracks to the Eglinton Methodist Church," presented by Henry Duncan.

As a result, on June 20, 1886, the company were granted the right under the terms of a new agreement. The chief clause of interest to the public in this agreement is clause 12, which reads: "No higher fare than four cents per mile shall be charged for the conveyance of passengers the full distance on any one of the extensions."

Fortunately the competition between horse cars and horse buses on a well-kept macadam roadway determined the minimum charge to the public, and this minimum charge has remained over these two sections.

If Yonge-street were asphalted would it be permitted to again continue the competition by running power buses? If Yonge-street were double-tracked, would there be room, and if there was room, would it be safe when these enormous cars are permitted to run at a speed of 20 miles an hour, occupying, say, from 22 to 24 feet of the centre, or the best portion of Yonge-street?

Councillor Parke, the suffering from a slight setback on Saturday, is thought by his attending physicians to be making fair progress.

Let no one imagine that this signifies universal salvation. Other Scriptures show us that while universal opportunity for salvation will be accorded, none except those who avail themselves of it by a hearty acceptance of the Divine arrangement, and a hearty obedience to the laws of the Kingdom—these only will get the great blessing of life eternal; only their tears will forever be wiped away. All others, wilful sinners, will be destroyed in the "Second Death."

EARLS COURT.

Local Catholic Mission Hold Delightful Garden Party.

EARLS COURT, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—The second annual garden party of the Earls Court Catholic Mission held at the corner of Dufferin and St. Clair-avenue was a memorable event in the history of this young and growing branch of the church.

From 3 o'clock till nearly midnight the grounds were thronged with the youth and beauty of the district irrespective of religious denomination, and through the day there was a sense of delightful sociability.

Rev. Father Player, who is temporarily in charge of the mission, was here, there, and everywhere, as also were the members of his parish, looking after the comfort of the visitors.

Excellent service was rendered by the Mimico Industrial Band, while Hoffman's Orchestra furnished music for dancing.

A number of the members of the Knights of St. John were present and gave an exhibition of fancy drill. The grounds were beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and through the day probably 1000 people visited the grounds.

A feature which caused endless merriment was the race for the greased pig, which ultimately fell a prize to the alertness of Fred Goodchild, of Port Credit. A number of fancy articles purchased by sale brought good prices. A bounteous luncheon was served by the ladies, and during the afternoon there was a fine program of athletic and sporting events.

BALMY BEACH.

They Turned First Sod of What Will Be Fine Anglican Church.

BALMY BEACH, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—A notable event in the history of the Anglican Church in Balmy Beach was the turning on Saturday afternoon of the first sod in connection with what will be a fine edifice, at the south-west corner of Birch and Queen-street.

Favored with ideal weather, and graced by the presence of a large gathering of ladies, together with the official board, the occasion was most auspicious.

The committee the better to define the boundaries of the new church grounds had enclosed them in gaily colored bunting, while on an improvised platform, the speakers of the day were seated in the middle of the grounds.

Following the reading of the prescribed form for the occasion, and the turning of the first sod by Canon Dixon, Rev. E. A. McIntyre, rector of St. Aidan's, opened the meeting by a brief, but eloquent, allusion to the great work of Canon Dixon, the founder of St. Aidan's.

"No church," said Canon Dixon, "can ever attain to success without consecration to God, and perfect obedience to His command. His presence had been greatly felt in the old church and would likewise in the new."

Bishop Sweeney, who was unable to

The delightful weather of yesterday tempted thousands of citizens from their homes to the nearby beauty spots, east, west and north, and all the suburban electric roads did a big business.

Westerly the Mimico line was well patronized. Port Credit and Long Branch being thronged. The Huntville was the mecca for hundreds of adventurous youths and maidens, but up to a late hour last night no fatality had been recorded.

Along the highway, points along the Kingston-road complain greatly that the pleasure of the day is greatly marred by the scores of autos which pass along that highway, raising clouds of dust, and generally constituting themselves a nuisance. No attention whatever is paid to the speed limit, and it is a marvel that the county authorities do not awake to the danger and annoyance of the situation.
