FRUIT MARKET.

Trade was quieter at the local fruit market yesterday than during the first of the week. The supply was lighter than usual, especially so in the case of peaches, which were somewhat firmer, the demand being such that no difficulty was experienced in disposing of the stock at the higher figures.

Apples were of a better quality than during the past few days, some fine-looking baskets of the fruit being on sale

Chicago Gossip.

T. P. Bickell & Co. say at the close: Wheat—After a dull professional session, values closed unchanged to 1/20 higher. Receipts continue liberal, but demand sufficient to prevent decline in cash prices. Trade in general is expecting an increased movement, which is, of course, likely at this time, but we are of the spilor then present level of futures. the opinion that present level of futures about discounts an increased movement, believing that flour demand in the coming three months will be enormous, as flour stocks are abnormally low. On all fair declines purchase for moderate pro-

Bartlett, Patten & Co. (Beaty & Glassco) wire:

Wheat—Our market opened steady to a fraction higher, and has worked within a very narrow range all day, with a light volume of trade, largely professional. Continued indifference prevails in the export trade, and the market, being without leadership on either side, is influenced easily, as the buying or selling happens to be at the moment.

Corn—Market opened unchanged to a shade higher, and advanced ½c on buying by local professionals. The selling was against upward indemnities, foilong account, and by people who are growing rather skeptical regarding recent low estimates on the growing crop.

Oats—Market advanced ½c to %c early, on covering by local shorts, and in sympathy with the early strength in other grains. Most of the advance in prices was lost toward the close.

R. B. Lyman & Co. wired R. B. Holden: While we believe in higher values for wheat, we would not advise purchases on the bulges. Wait for fair setbacks, then take on some December and May. Export business is sure to pick up soon. Corn—Firm; there was some good buying this morning, also some realizing developed, and prices showed a small reaction.

Oats—Strong; there was heavy realization. Bartlett, Patten & Co. (Beaty & Glassco)

Many Preminent Owners Have Stock on Grounds-States Net Represented

Exhibition cattle are greater in number and of better quality than last year according to Superintendent W.

W. Burgiss, Mimico.
Mr. Burgiss says that Jerseys shown by William Mackenzie are the finest the ever saw. They have just arrived from Quebec after the usual ninety days' quarantine, R. J. Fleming, who knows something about Jerseys himself is exhibiting them for Mr. Mac-

William Van Horne, Senator Edwards, Montreal, and Peter White, Pembroke. All these are shorthorn cattle fanciers. Sir William's cattle have been brought all the way from Selkirk, Man. There are no fewer than 268 shorthorn entries.

There were not quite so many exhibitors as last year but this is compensated for by more cattle being shown. The United States is not represented this year.

From what the superintendent says, it looks as the the cattle sheds are either too small or the number of cattle too large. Anyway there is no tle too large. Anyway there is no room for the feed without piling it above the stalls, and exhibitors object to the inconvenience. A feed building will be erected next year.

The only accident thus far was to a fine buil owned by Peter White of Pembroke. Its leg slipped thru an opening between boards, breaking the bone. The animal was said to have been the best in its class.

RUDD'S HARNESS.

Just inside the new transportation building at the fair will be seen Geo. A. Rudd & Co.'s attractive harness and leather goods display.

All kinds of harness, but more particularly, their fine track harness their coupe and express harness draw the attention of the visitors. Farmers and others who are interested in harness have passed much favorable com-ment upon the style and quality here. Orders are taken for farm harness here and the goods will be shipped later as is desired. Be sure to see them.

Since coming to Toronto from Brock-ville Mr. Rudd has steadily come to the front in the harness business, until now he is known all over Can-

SCOTT GASOLINE ENGINE.

Every farmer in many parts of the states owns and operates a gasoline engine. So captivating by its handiess is such a power on the farm, that they are practically assuming control of the farm power problem at the exclusion of wind and other means.

The Scott Machine Co. of London have come in the Canadian market with an efficient, easy-running, simple and cheap gasoline engine that will sell itself wherever seen. Any farmer who contemplates purchasing one, and every farmer should have one, would do well to examine their exhibit in the machinery hall at the exhibition. You will like the Scott above all others if
