nificent store.

CASUALTY LIST IS INCREASING DAILY

Hundred and Four Names of Toronto Men and Officers Yesterday.

TWENTY-SEVEN KILLED

Lieut.-Col. W. D. Allan, O.C. Third Battalion, Had Operation Performed.

Yesterday's casualties in officers and men from Toronto units totalied 104 in addition to the officers mentioned men from Teronto units totalied 104 in addition to the officers mentioned in the list, Lieut. W. M. Willard, is reported to have been killed in action and Lieuts. Thomas W. Lawson and Lieut. M. Sykes are privately reported to have been wounded. Of the 164 mentioned, 27 have fallen in action, four have died of wounds, four previously reported missing are now thought to be dead; one man is ill and sixty-eight are wounded.

Word was received yesterday by Mrs. J. D. Allan, 84 Willcox street, informing them that their son Lieut. Col. W. D. Allan, D.S.O., commanding officer of the 3rd Battalion, had been operated on in a London hospital to remove an abcess on the brain. The telegram contained no further particulars and it is anticipated that the abcess is the result of a wound received earlier in the war, as he was slightly wounded at both St. Julien and Zillebeke, but remained on duty. A member of the Queen's Own Regiment, he went overseas at the outbreak of war with the rank of captain, reaching France in 1915. After the battle of St. Julien he was promoted to major and when Brig-General Rennie left the regiment to take over the brigade command, he was given command of the 3rd Battalion.

Former Paster Wounded
Major Guy B. Gordon, 18 Rose av.

Former Pastor Wounded
Major Guy B. Gordon, 18 Rose avenue, is reported wounded in action. He was rector of the Niagara Falls Anglican Church and resigned to go overseas with the 2nd Contingent. The communication received by his mother stated that he was shot in the hand. He was a member of the Queen's Own Regiment and a former member of Parkdale school.

When war was declared on Gorman rkdale school.

When war was declared on Germany wat. Harry J. McTaggart, reported ded, applied for a commission in otember, 1914, with the 12th York nagers. He was-granted an apmement with the 35th Battalion and some of the officers in charge of crack company who formed the del camp at the Exhibition last r. When the 35th arrived in Engdine acted as musketry instructor when the unit was broken up, and the 20th Battalion in France, officer was well known in financircles and his parents live at 14 150n avenue.

verely wounded in the face and right eye and was admitted to a hospital at Boulogne, but was able to return to the trenches some days later. He was a graduate of the university and was ricicled at Osgoode Law School. He went overseas with the $3rd Battalion and was in the trenches a little over two months.

Capt. Gilbert Noobs. who has been killed in action, lived in Toronto many years prior to the war and held a captaincy in the Q.O.R. At the outbreak of war he took out his commission and went to the front with a British regiment.

Lieut. M. M. Sykes, of Rosedale, is now in a London hospital with a gunshot wound in the right thigh. He chlisted at the outbreak of war with the Queen's Own as a private stripes. In 1915, at Niagara camp, he qualified for a commission and went coverseas with the 35th Battalion. He was transferred to the 18th Battalion and was "somewhere in Belgium"

Capt. Lawson, 59 Yonge sireet, is in a London hospital. It is point of view of a lawyer," he says.

Rejected—Enlisted—Killed.

Discharged from the 36th Battalion as nedically unfit, Pte. Dedicy C Stags, tried to enlist in June, 1915, and was successful in passing the locur. Yesterday his father, who resides at 17 Oxford street, received word from Ottowa that his son was killed in netion on September 12.

Last March Pte. S. G. Ellis went overseas with the 75th Battalion and was transferred to an earlier Toronto unit and was in the irenches a month later in France. At the front he acted as company signaller and yesterday was reported killed. His father was invalided home and has returned to the firing line.

On September 12. Pte. Francis Cookson, 9 Winnifred avenue, made the supreme sacrifice for his country.

Last was transferred to an earlier Toronto unit and was in the irenches a month later in France. At the front he acted as company signaller and yesterday was reported killed. His father was invalided home and has returned to the firing line.

On September 12. Pte. Francis Cookson, 9 Winnifred avenue, made the supreme sacrifice for his country.

Cookson, 9 Winnifred avenue, made the supreme sacrifice for his country. He left with the second contingent and ad been in the trenches six months, He was 2! years of age and is survived by his mother and one brother and a sister.

Pte. Cook Killed. Pte. Cook Killed.

Mis. Cook. 63 Oak sitet, has received word that her son Pte I rnest B. Cook, aged 22 years, was killed in action on September 15. He went overseas in March and reached the trenches in June.

Pte. Alfred Bryan gave no Toronto address when he enlisted a year ago. He left for England this soring and went into the trenches in June and is now killed in action.

Frafted from the 83rd Battalion in France, Pte. Robert Rooney is reported killed in action. While in this city he was attached to a base company. He is survived by a brother who resides in Winnipeg. During the Somme engagement Pto.

Bequest Made to Nieces Not Affected by Change of

GIFTS ARE HELD VALID

Chief Justice Declares Intention of Testator is Very Plain.

The officer was well known in financial circles and his parents live at 14 Pearson avenuc.

Lieut. Willard Killed

James C. Willard, 125 Evelyn avenue, has received word that his son, Lieut. William M. Willard was killed in action on September 15th. He was severely wounded in the face and right eye and war admitted to a hospital at Boulogne, but was able to return to will the firm.

When Charles Stuart Murray, a Toronto physician, died some years ago his estate was composed cheffy of shares in the W. A. Murray Company, Limited, of Toronto, and subject to a life interest in them for his wife. These shares were bequeathed to several of his own nieces and one to his wife. Prior to the testator's death and subsequent to the making of his

Since June.

Capt. Lawson Hit.

Suffering from a slight wound in the leg. Captain T. W. Lawson, 59 Yongs street, is in a London hospital. It is expected that he will be able to leave in a few days. He went overseas in 1918 and was engaged in staff work. Later he was transferred to the 31st Battalion, and went into the trenches. In his last letter to his father he stated that he had been appointed adjutant of the 43rd Battalion.

Capt. G. L. Watt, reported wounded on Thursday, has lost his right eye thru shrapnel. His father was informed to this effect yesterday.

One year ago Pte. Sidney G. Ellis, 39 Arlington avenue, enlisted with a reported killed in action. His brother is serving in Egypt with a maching gun section.

When the 83rd Battalion went overseas, Pte. George Marshall, 266 Sherfourne street, went overseas with there. He was a native of England and after being in the trenches a few months he has been reported killed in action.

Rejected—Enlisted—Killed.

Discharged from the 36th Battalion as medically unfit, Pte. Dedicy C. Stagg, tried to enlist in June, 1915 for size of the day of the chart of the was a mative of England and as medically unfit, Pte. Dedicy C. Stagg, tried to enlist in June, 1915 for size of the states that this is so plain that any other contention would be absured to any intelligent business man who is not a lawyer. "From the eabure for view of a lawyer." From the says, "it may be contended that the will speaks as of the time of the testator's that the will at that that time he had no shares of the W. A Murray Company. Limited, so the several gifts of such shares were gifts of nothing. But if that he so, then by consenting merely to an intended betterment of his interests represented by his shares in the was a harden of the testator's the was a lawyer. "From the eabure for the death, and that at hat the will shares of the W. A Murray Company. Limited, so the several gifts of such shares of the W. A. Murray Company Limited, so the several gifts of the several gifts of the several gif

Let's Talk Overcoats

Did the Recent Cold Snap catch You Unprepared? Scores of people shivered when they should have been snug in a Hobberlin Overcoat. The cream of British Woollens have been gathered in a wonderful array in this mag-

Chinchillas, Meltons, Blanket Cloths, Whitneys, Montenacs, Donegals and Bannockburns and the famous Marling Beavers---You must see them to appreciate the Quality of this Institution.

We are experiencing a wonderful demand. Comej whilst the assortment is complete and you will wonder at our marvellous values in

SATURDAY and MONDAY

MADE HAMEASURE

READY-FOR-SERVICE.

151 Yonge 9 E. Richmond

OPENS 8 A.M. City Agents—Estate of Walter Mick, 204 Dundas St.; W. A. Kenney, 836 College St.; V. L. Evans, 411 Roncesvalles Ave.; Hay & McCarthy, 1354 Queen St. West; W. H. Patterson, 1260 Bloor St. West; J. Easson & Son, 958 Bloor West; R. S. Reid, 470 Spadina Ave.; Frank M. Simpson, 1048 Bathurst St.; A. L. Jourard, Mount Dennis, Ont.; Chappell's, 1188 St. Clair Ave.; W. A. Geisel, 2195 Cheen St. East; M. & M. Maynard, 1218 Pape Ave.; J. H. Montgomery & Co., 724 Queen East; J. Baxter, 209 Danforth Ave.; J. H. Mix, 180 Main St., East Toronto; A. W. Presgrave, 3199 Yonge St.; C. E. Akins, 1731 Dundas St.; and 1,300 agents covering Canada from ocean to ocean.

For Purpose of Serving Large Proportion of Eastern Ontario.

This will be determined later in conference with the stream of the

KEEPS GRIP UN OFFICE SPECIAL STORIES IN SUNDAY WORLD

Particularly Interesting Edition Promised Readers of Popular Week-End Paper.

MANY SUBJECTS GIVEN

Articles Varied, Giving Range Which Should Meet Demand of Many Readers

Readers of The Toronto Sunday World will be especially pleased with nature of the stories the Women's and Feature sections contain. They are number of subjects of the day, each of style.

The past half century. Three photos are shown illustrating the point. The problem of how to keep the boys on the farm is discussed at some length by Hew Trill, and he has hit the nail pretty fairly on the head. What the buyle and trumpet calls mean to the boys in khaki is told by Walter Fessey, The World correspondent at Camp Borden.

To the women folk the fashion articles will appeal especially. The alst word in autumn requirements may be found on page one of the women's section together with illustrations. The directoire note is very pronounced this season. Fur will enjoy renewed popularity, it says, and mole is to be a An article waite.

Borden.

Millersville Yarns are about the circust this week, and the situation which crises is described in a very humorous style indeed. A short sketch of which controller John O'Neill is the subject, is by Harry Johnson.

BAN ON SUNDA: LABOR

An article waite.

the activities of the friends in council society, tells how one body of women spent its time to great advantage and suggests a way in which great profit may be obtained by forming similar institutions.

transported and base part institutions.

"When Humor isn't Considered an Asset," is a story by Virgina Parr. which shows that the smiler is sometimes misjudged—however, the moral is "Keep Smiling."

The farewell of the Devonshires is described by The Sunday World correspondent in London, who has contributed this week an article dealing chiefly with Toronto people in London. Many Toronto names are mentioned and news given regarding the weifare of those who are fighting in France and Flanders.

Frank Yeigh has written a story on railway engines, past and present, which is full of interest and which shows the great strides that have been made in locomotive construction within the past half century. Three photos are shown illustrating the point. The proved by the minister of agriculture at Otthan the minister of agriculture and domestic science and application in grain and content of the provided that Major B. R. Hepburn, M.P., Prince and domestic science are point which will be readily accessable and point which will be readily accessable and point which will be readily accessable and the provided that Major B. R. Hepburn, M.P., Prince and domestic science are principled to the provided that Major B. R. Hepburn, M.P., Prince that Major B. R. Hepburn, M.P., Prince and domestic science are principled to the provided that Major B. R. Hepburn, M.P., Prince and point which will be readily accessable and point which will be readily accessable.

The provided that Major B. R. Hepburn, M.P., Prince that Major B. R. Hepburn, M.P., Prince and the provided that Major B. R. H

r. Haverson livery

ro fight

Charged With

abnounce in conn Book Fund for C there have alrea ordered 12,587 p men, and as a re peal he has recei A further sum of required to cove number of copier plated. The bish for the ready ar that has been give ful honor of bein be fined $10 and under the new te REMANDE with a hypode quantity of morp Ada Lavery app court yesterday a week.

NO W