VALGAR A WINNER.

CANOE CLUB OR STRATFORD? TONIGHT WILL SEE DECISION

Junior Final at Arena Tonight -Granites and Kitchener Follow - Western Teams Hot Under Collar About Long Lay-Off.

The junior O. H. A. title will be decided on Toronto ice tonight. True the first game of the final was staged in Stratford last Thursday and Doc. Robertson's midgets defeated the Toronto en son's midgets defeated the Toronto entry 6 to 5. Again we say the title will be decided tonight. The one goal margin is nothing. The ice in Stratford was soft and both teams were handicalped. The hayd ice suits the western entrants, they like big ice and are repared to play their best right here. Toronto Canoe Club, the Toronto hope, are at home here. It looks like a great battle, between two evenly balanced teams and the one goal can be thrown cut.

Home ice and a home crowd are generally looked upon as a two or three goal margin for the home team. This looks like a case where this stuff can be discounted. Stratford are one of the classiest outfits ever gathered together, and have a perfect system of combination. They will be hard to beat on any ice. The tickets are all sold and one of the largest crowds of the year will be on hand.

Right back comes another great battle tomorrow night. Granites and kitchener decide their senior group after tying last Friday in ninety minutes of strenuous hockey. This game must go to a decision to have a team ready to go to Hamilton for the first game of the senior finals on Friday. Kitchener opened like winners in the last game, faded before the strenuous bumping berrage of Granites and then came back and held the Church street crew in the half hour of overtime. We refuse to pick this one. It should provide another great battle, but Kitchener will be farder to step into this time. They will be wary and looking for it, and this watchful waiting stuff may just throw them a little off their game.

"George" says his girl must stay home because the ducats are scarce and Georgie has no pull. There will be a lot of, Georges in town tomorrow night. The Georges, Toms and all other boys will be down at the Arena this morning early for the lineup to get tickets. If the boys can stand the breezes and get up to Weir before the last one is gone Matel may see the game. If not, George will be down again on Mutual street about-five p.x., before the gun goes down. George will wait for the standing room admission sale and again if luck favors him he will see the tussie from the rafters. We wish, you luck, George.

A and B are in again. A bet B that Kitchener would win by two goals last Friday. Now he writes wanting to know who wins. Don't be foolish. Give B the money.

Sudbury will be here on Thursday to nteet the O.H.A. intermediate champions. The Sudbury team is reputed to be the best that ever came out of the abl. trouble. Darragh blew a chance on Boucher's pass.

Broadbent was replaced by Dennenay.

The northerners boast no less than three goalers, and all are capable performers. Duncan saw service with the 227th Battalion, Scully with Sudbury when the tricolor won the intercollegiate in 1914. Smith is the likely choice to play here on Thursday.

The seat sale opens at the Arena on Thursday morning.

Bernie Neis, one of the sensations in the Dodgers' camp at Jacksonville, was a member of the Saskatoon Club of the Western Canadian League last summer and at the end of the season he led the organization in three departments of piay. He took part in 100 games and compiled the best batting average. His figures were .316. He was credited with sixty stolen bases, which was more than any other player pilfered, and scored the greatest number of runs, having eighty-nine to his credit. In more than 75 games in the outfield he did not drop a single fly. He took part in several contests as a third baseman.

The Yankees are playing six-inning games daily in order to get a team in shape to meet the Brooklyn Dodgers in the series of exhibition games beginning on Saturday. The teams will play six-teen contests, half of which will be staged in Jacksonville, five on the way north, and three at Ebbets' Field. In the practice games this week, the old Llan of having the regulars play against the Cubs will not be adopted. Veteran litchers will be on the team opposed to the one that will have the regular field. There are enough high-class pitchers of both styles to assure good pitching for both styles. INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE MEET SOCCER COUNCIL

The delegates of the United District League met in Sons of England Hall last night. The following teams paid their membership fees for the season: Hamilton I.L.P., Hamilton G.W.V.A., Toronto Scottish, Ulster United, Dunlop Rabber, Davenport Albions, Willys-Overland, Lancashire, Baracas, Old Country, British Imperial, Sons of England, Toronto St. Rl.; All Scots, Parkviews, Devonians, Wim. Davies, Swift Canadians, United Veterans, Grand Army of Canada, Caledonians, Toronto Shamrocks, Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, Linfield Rovers. In view of the fact that the O.F.A. had passed a rule that clubs in more than one district football association and less than four, the inclusion of the two Hamilton teams naturally created considerable discussion. It, was eventually decided that they be retained, provided they get the permission of the Hamilton District F.A. If consent is given, the H. and D. will have to be represented on the U.D.F.L. council by at least two members. In the event of the Hamilton teams not getting permission, the council will fill their positions in the first division.

After the meeting an informal discussion took place between members of the T. and D. F. A. and U. D. F. Buffalo, N.Y., March 8.—The Bison organization for the approaching season is about complete, as are plans for training. Manager Wiltse has lines out for another player or two, but seems to feel well satisfied with his present line-up and may stand pat unless he secures the additional men he is now in communication with. They wilf not be pitchers, as the Buffalo club has 11 already on the staff, one-half of which will be forced to seek other climes before the regular make-up of the team is announced.

Thus far the names of 27 players have been given out as prospective members of the local club. Manager Wiltse is confident that his team will line up equal to the best in the International League. Wiltse had his pick of the Newark club, and his selection, combined with the Bisons of last year, should make this year's aggregation a most formidable one.

Rounds.

Small Chance for Newcomers.
Of course the regular line-up of the Bison team is problematical, but the newcomers will have hard sledding in ousting favorite old-timers like McCarren, Keating, Carlstrom and Barney, who have been tried and not found wanting. At present it looks like Miller, McCarren, Keating and Carlstrom for the infield with Gilhooley, Barney and Donelson in the outfield. It is hardly possible that younger blood is in demand, altho Wiltse may decide to sign Strait on account of his hitting ability.

It will prove no easy task to cut down Small Chance for Newcomers.

Jackson started with a rush, and poundde his hitting ability.

The U. S. supreme court has upheld the decision of Judge Staake of the Finiadelphia court permitting Sunday taseball in that city.

The U. S. supreme court has upheld this opponent hard about the head and body. He continued this attack until the fourth round, in which Dundee was able to hold him even. Jackson kept his man away that a long left, and took the next two rounds. The exchanges were about equal in the seventh. Dundee received considerable purishment in the final round.

FIVE BRIGHTEST STARS OF BASEBALL WORLD

An easterp critic has stirred up a lot of trouble for himself by proclaiming the five stars of the baseball world of the past 20 years.

He names as the members of the headliner quintet, Hans Wagner, Larry Lajcie, Christy Mathewson, Ty Cobb and Fabe Ruth.

Now the arguments advanced by those who are opposed to his selections are not so much against the five men he picked as they are against his limiting his selections to these five. No one will argue that he hasn't picked five of the real stars of the national pastime, but when he stops at this quintet he has lets of opposition.

KRAMER BEAT SPENCER.

The work, March 8.—Frank Kramer, sixteen times professional sprint champion, once more demonstrated that he is far from being a back number. At Madison Square Garden Saturday night against Arthur Spencer he won two out of three of the two-thirds of a mile heats. In the final Spencer pressed the veteren cleecly and Kramer won only by a halir's breadth in an exciting finish.

Ottawa Skiier Wins Governor's Trophy

Ottawa, March 8.—Arthur Pinault of the Ottawa Ski Club, holder of the Duke of Devonshire Challenge Trophy, carried off the senior championship on Saturday afternoon in the Eastern Canada ski championships, at the Rock-cliffe jump. Pinault defeated Frank McKinnon, the hope of the Montreal Club, by a margin of one point, his superior style deciding the event in his favor. Paul Quesnel of the Cliffside Club won the intermediate title over Lennox Moore of the Ottawa Club, intermediate city champion. Despite the very adverse conditions, the meet was a decided success and a landmark in the annals of ski-ing in the capital. The best jumps in the senior competition. best jumps in the senior
