Members of St. Andrew's Brotherhood.

The Visitors have accomplished a great deal of faithful work during the past winter. In many a home their visits have been looked forward to as a cheerful break in the monotony of the week's work, and many of the parents and children of families have been induced to attend the services of the Church and Sunday Schools more regularly, we hope, through the kindly interest taken in them by the ladies. The amount of want and distress prevailing through-
