Detroit Releases Steen.

Detroit, Aug. 23—Pitcher Bill Steen of the Detroit Americans, recently purchased from the Cleveland American League club, was given notice of his unconditional release today.

ATHLETIC

Cornell may lose her great athlete, Alida W. Richards, Olympic champion and all-around point winner for the Red and White track team, according to a letter received from Richards by Attorney Lyman H. Gallagher. Richards wrote that lack of funds will prevent his returning to Cornell this fall. He is at present at Salt Lake City, Utah, but will leave within a few days for his home at Parowan, Utah.

He was enrolled as a special student in the College of Agriculture at Ithaca, and is perhaps the most versatile athlete ever to enter Cornell. His first notable performance as a Cornell athlete was in the indoor games of the Intercollegiate Association in Madison Square Garden last March, when he made a new amateur record of 6 feet 4 inches for the high jump. In the intercollegiate games Richards sacrificed personal glory for the good of the team.

TURF.

Montreal Races.

Montreal, Aug. 24—William won the only heat paced at Dorval today in the match race with Director 1 for a purse of $8,000, 2 in 3, the finish of the race being postponed until tomorrow on account of the track being heavy. Five thousand spectators, many of them from outside points, were greatly disappointed at this. William was the favorite in the pools, but he won by a neck in a contest that was close all the way. William's time for the heat was 2:06. In the 2:12 pace, 8 in 5, Yendo lagged in the first heat, but went out and finished first in the three subsequent heats with comparative ease.

PRESIDENT SUSPENDER

NONE SO EASY

MADE IN CANADA

That 218 Class Race.

Frederick Gleener—The race meeting given at Moosepath Park, St. John, a couple of weeks ago was not under the auspices of the National Trotting Association. This became known when local men communicated with Secretary W. H. Goehner, of the N. T. A. at Hartford, Ct., regarding some of the affairs in connection with the 218 class race, which has been the subject of some exciting controversies.

Yesterday Mr. Goehner's answer to the inquiries which were made of him was received. It was a brief business-like letter to the effect that inasmuch as St. John track was not a member of the National Trotting Association he did not feel it was up to him to give any opinion regarding what transpired at the meeting held at Moosepath.

While some people profess to have known from before the time the meeting at St. John was held that the races were not under the control of the National Trotting Association, most people did not have that idea. Those who made inquiries from persons who were supposed to know were advised on race day that telegraphic advice had come from previous evening admitting the track to the National Trotting Association.

Now that the meeting turns out to have been nothing more nor less than an "outlaw" affair other controversies about that 218 class will have to remain unsettled by a higher tribunal. It is a good thing, however, that the true state of affairs was not known at Moosepath on race days, for otherwise there might have been more excitement than actually occurred.

RING

New Scale of Weights.

Cleveland, Aug. 23—Completing the details of its organization today, the American Boxing Association decided to recommend to the board of governors for passage a rule compelling all champions to defend their titles once every six months.

It was also decided to recommend a new set of ring weights to be acted upon by the board of governors of the new association. As this board is made up of one man from each club, it is thought they will be adopted.

The new set would make the bantamweight figure at 118, featherweight 125, lightweight 135, welterweight 147, and middleweight 160. The light-heavy weight will be 175.

News of the Boxers

Al Lippe, manager of Jeff Smith and several other American boxers who are with him in Australia, writes to the Boston Globe as follows:

"We are to leave here on the steamer Sonoma, on Aug. 28 and will arrive in San Francisco on Sept. 15. Jeff Smith has defeated all the contenders for the title. The only one he has to defeat is Gibbons and he is the one Smith wants to meet first for any number of rounds. They have met at ten rounds. Smith lost on a foul here in his last contest to Les Darsey and on our arrival will explain just what happened. They met before and Smith won, but quit in five rounds, and if the referee had not done as he did, Smith would have repeated.

"We will stop in California a few days, and in Chicago a few days, and then on to New York so if any club wants to see two of the best middleweights in the world they can match Gibbons and Smith. The winner will be the real champion. I feel that it will be Jeff Smith, as this boy is another Tommy Ryan. His record speaks for itself."

While Packey McFarland is one of the few boxers who has lived a very careful life, still he figures he needs a lot of training to get himself ready for his bout with Mike Gibbons in New York next month. This bout is to be his farewell one and he wants to make it his residence and every day he spends several hours on it. He finds it is great for his legs and wind. He knows he has to be in the best of shape when he meets such a fast and cleverly wily fighter as Gibbons, and he is leaving nothing undone to get himself in the best of condition.

"MYSTERIOUS" BILLY SMITH SAYS HE TRAINED COWLER

Former St. John Boxer Writes to American Paper From Boise, Idaho

The following appeared in Monday's edition of the New York American—

"Mysterious Billy Smith, the former welterweight champion, can get himself all worked up about things that wouldn't fret a lot of people we know. If you don't believe, read the following letter which bears the postmark of Boise, Idaho:

"Just a line to correct the impression Corbett has given you, as I have saw he claims to discover Cowler. Corbett doesn't know as much as this boy Jim look him from me in Portland after I had developed him for Jimmy McMahon, who picked him up in the mines at Nantaho. There is no use Corbett fooling the public that he found him. Besides McMahon has a contract with Cowler and I was double crossed. With best wishes I am yours,

"Mysterious Billy Smith."

Note—"Mysterious Billy" Smith, former St. John boy and will be remembered by many admirers throughout the city.

ST. ROSE'S PICNIC

The unfavorable weather did not deter a large gathering from attending the annual picnic of the St. Rose's church Sunday school at Millford, yesterday. A good time was enjoyed. Music was furnished by the City Cornet Band. Supper was served to a large crowd of picnickers by a committee headed by Mrs. W. T. Hayes. A good programme of field sports was carried out under the direction of Wm. Hayes, the winners being—Ladies' bean toss, Jean Gillis; men's bean toss, Joseph Murphy, a clock, won by Hazen McCurdy; ballies on the black, Jean Gillis; Klonkyke block—Wilfred McKinnon and Max O'Keefe; air gun, John Hooley, won by Edward Russell; wheel of fortune, John McKinnon; bowling alley, Thomas Donovan, won by 1st, Martin Mullin; 2nd, Thos. McGrath.

BOSTON SWIMMER SMASHES RECORDS

Covers 34 Miles in 14h. 20m. And Creates World's Record For Continued Use of Breast Stroke

Henry F. Sullivan, of Lowell, achieved considerable swimming fame on last Saturday afternoon when he smashed all American records for mileage in the open sea and broke the world's record for continued use of the breast stroke.

(Accompanied by Sam Richards the well known South Boston swimmer, and Charles Toth, of East Club; he left Nantucket beach and started for Race Point Light. After being in the water four-and-a-half hours and twenty minutes, he gave up the attempt, having gone thirty-four miles. At that time he was nine miles from his destination, but as he encountered an adverse tide that defied human opposition he gave up.

Sam Richards, hitherto considered unbeatable in a test of speed or endurance, met with hard luck. In the first place he was skeptical of the feasibility of the swim and held himself in check. After being in the water five hours and thirty-seven minutes he left the water. He had gone about thirteen miles. When he gave up the muscles of both legs were cramped and cramped. For more than an hour he had dragged his legs straight out behind him rather than give up, and even courageously attempted to rub out the cramps while treading water. At last, recalling the further attempt was futile, he called to his attendants in the dory and told them of his plight.

Eight swam sixteen miles and then became sea blind from the salt water and had to be taken from the water. He was in the water ten hours and six minutes. Thousands of people watched the racers from points of vantage until darkness came.

Up to the Wrong Ears

Knicker—Is Jones up to his ears in debt? Bocker—Worse; it has come to other people's ears, too.

AMUSEMENTS

One of the Greatest Farce-Comedy Triumphs of the American Stage

IMPERIAL TODAY!

John Barrymore, King of Comedy, in Charles Frohman's Production of

"ARE YOU A MASON?"

This play, released on the Paramount Program, is certain to bring the rainbow out of the cloudiest local skies. John Barrymore's impersonation is one of the foremost humorous character-studies ever contributed to the stage or screen, and is worthy of the most unadorned laudation. There is never a pause in the comic appeal of the story, and the fun grows and grows until it reaches a crescendo of laughter and exhilaration. Rarely has there been in a screen comedy, such a continuous abundance of mirth-provoking situations.
