

WHAT GREAT BRITAIN WILL DO FOR US

Remarkable Tribute Paid by Former U. S. Senator

The following extract from a speech delivered twenty and more years ago by the United States Senator Fry is of interest at this time. A little incident with which you are familiar is a marvelous illustration of the protection which Great Britain gives to her subjects. The King of Abyssinia took a British subject, named Campbell, about twenty years ago and carried him to the fortress of Magdala upon the heights of a rocky mountain and put him in a dungeon. It took six months for Great Britain to find this out. Then Great Britain demanded his immediate release. King Theodore refused. In less than ten days after his refusal was received 10,000 British soldiers, including 5,000 Sepoys, were on board ships of war sailing down the coast. They disembarked and marched across that terrible country, a distance of 700 miles, under a burning sun. Up to the mountain they went, up to the very heights in front of the frowning fortress. Then they gave battle, battered down the iron gates and the stone wall, reached down into the dungeon and lifted out of it that one British subject, King Theodore killed himself with his own pistol. Then they carried that rescued prisoner down the mountain, across the land, put him on board a British ship and sped him to his own land in safety.

That cost Great Britain $25,000,000 and made Gen. Napier Lord Napier of Magdala. That was a great thing for a great country to do—a country that has an eye that can see across the ocean, all across the land, away up to the darkness of a dungeon one subject out of her 38,000,000 people and then have an arm strong enough and long enough to stretch across the same ocean, up the same mountain heights, down to the same dungeon and then lift him out and carry him home to his friends. In God's name, who would not die for a country that would do that?

NEWFOUNDLAND PROHIBITION RESULT DELAYED BY STORM

Unable to Collect Ballot Boxes on Northern Coast—Belief That "Drys" Have Won.

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 16.—Owing to bad weather the steamer which was collecting the ballot boxes from the fishing villages along the northern coast ran short of coal and was obliged to return to Bay of Islands to replenish her bunkers. This means that the final figures in the prohibition election may be postponed for several days, until she makes another trip. It is, however, generally conceded that the district will give enough votes to carry prohibition.

SOCIETY GIRL'S AMAZING STORY

Wooded and Wedded Creature of Her Imagination

TOOK A DEAD BODY HOME

Told Family Husband Had Been Killed in Railway Smash—Calculated Hands Led to Denouncement

Chicago, Nov. 16.—How a girl, well known in society circles of Atlanta, Georgia, came to Chicago, identified the body of a man killed on the Illinois Central track as that of a "sweetheart," who existed only in her own imagination, so as to carry out a deceit she has practiced on her family, became known tonight. The case discloses one of the most astonishing psychopathic incidents in the memory of Chicago officials. The girl concocted a tale of meeting a Dr. Alleyne Hensley, of his persistent wooing, of his gifts of flowers and candy, his fervent letters, proposals, acceptance and then his tragic death.

Here is the story as told in tears to Dr. Bates Block, an alienist of Atlanta, whose sharp questioning brought the truth from the girl, who is Miss Julia Chest Crumley, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Howard Lee Crumley.

The idea was conceived while the girl was a patient in Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, after being operated upon for a malignant tumor. On her return to Atlanta the young woman told friends that she was in love with the surgeon who had saved her life. She gave his name as Dr. Hensley, and said he was a widower with one child, a son. He lived, she said, in Quebec, Canada.

There came to her letters from Quebec which contained fervent messages of love. Flowers and candy were delivered to her by stockholders on telegraphic instructions from Quebec, signed by Dr. Hensley, and money was forwarded by telegraph in each instance to pay for them.

Finally, she told her closest friends that the surgeon had proposed to her and she had accepted him. The marriage was to take place November 17.

She went to New York to purchase her trousseau, meet the future bridegroom, and bring him back to Atlanta to meet her parents and friends.

On Saturday morning, November 13, from New York that her fiancée had been killed in a train accident near Chicago, and she was on her way to Atlanta to recover his body and bring it to Atlanta.

She arrived here on Monday morning and went to the undertaking establishment of the Western Casket Company, where was the body of a man killed several days before on the Illinois Central tracks.

"I am looking for the body of my husband, Dr. Hensley," she said, although she previously had given her name as Miss Crumley.

"I traced him here from New York. The funeral fathers to whom I appealed, directed me to the corpse of a-

PURE, RICH BLOOD MADE BY HOOD'S

Pure blood enables the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it they are sluggish, there is loss of appetite, sometimes faintness, a deranged state of the intestines, and, in general, all the symptoms of dyspepsia.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so very successful in the treatment of so many ailments. Get it today.

Doc. and from there I was sent here. I was told you have a body here which, I believe, is that of my husband."

She was shown the body of a man found on the Illinois Central tracks nearly a week before. It was to have been sent to the county morgue next day. She took only one quick look; that's why her husband's name, and at once became hysterical. After identifying the body, she paid the undertaker $100, and left for her hotel, still sobbing.

The body was forwarded to Atlanta, on Tuesday, and on the same evening Miss Crumley left the Congress Hotel and departed for the South.

She arrived in Atlanta on Wednesday afternoon. The parents of Miss Crumley and several of her friends viewed the body. Then some questions were asked.

The hands of the dead man were calloused and rough, not those of a surgeon. Finally, the Rev. Mr. Crumley asked Dr. Bates Block, an alienist, to visit his daughter and talk to her. The doctor first viewed the body and then told Miss Crumley that she had deceived no one by her duplicity. Miss Crumley burst into tears and confessed the entire story.

She had concocted the story of the supposed wooer and fiancee. The letters sent to a woman whose name she had read of in a Canadian newspaper, to whom she paid to remail the missives to her. The candy and flowers had come from the same sources.

Telegraphic advices received here tonight from Quebec state that no Dr. Alleyne Hensley is known in that city.

No sudden battle is going to finish the war. Germany has to be worn down.—The Bishop of Birmingham.

Will Your "Boy" Spend Christmas
"Somewhere in France"?
Then help him spend it Merrily!

Nothing is too good to send to the boys who are serving King and Country. But let our gifts show thought and judgment as well as good-will and love.

Among the few really acceptable gifts—smokes and pipes, chocolates and sweet biscuits, fountain pens and tooth brushes, toilet and shaving supplies—the Gillette Safety Razor ranks as a warm favorite, for one of the real luxuries of trench life is a clean, comfortable Gillette shave.

It's a luxury the lucky ones share with their pals, so send along plenty of extra blades. If he has a Gillette already, a few boxes of blades will go far toward making him the most popular man in his Company.

Welcome as it is on the firing line, the Gillette is even more keenly appreciated in the hospitals. With it the wounded can shave themselves safely, easily and regularly. They certainly do enjoy the Gillette—and Doctors and Nurses can scarcely speak well enough of it.

Gillette "Bulldog" and Standard Sets cost $5.00 each—compact Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, including Soap, Brush, etc., $6.50 up. If you wish to send your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will arrange delivery through us, at the Front, of the Set you select, without shipping expense to you.
