TROUBLES IN IRELAND Dublin, Jan. 3—The smashing of seven motor cars within the last two days and serious attacks on automobile drivers is believed to be the work of striking metor vehicle drivers who, it is reported are attempting to force the government to abandon its order requiring motorists to obtain permits to operate their cars. On Tuesday night near Mullingar, Westmeath, a car was riddled by bullets fired from the roadside and the cheufteur escaped only by throwing himself in the bottom of the vehicle.

Motor owners of the county of Queenshave been notified in a circular that all motor vehicles will be forced to stoprunning until the government order is cancelled.

A large force of military police raided a music ahop in Dublin yesterday afteranoon. The five storey building was thoroughly searched, but nothing was found and no arrests were made. Large crowds stood by and hooted the raiders. The police yesterday visited Sinn Fein headquarters, the Sinn Fein Bank and the headquarters of the Fully Eireanns all in Harcourt street, and notified the occupants to close the premises in accordance with the order of Nov. 29, suppressing the Sinn Fein organization, the Irish Volunteer, the Gaelic League and other societies in all counties and boroughs of Ireland.

Dublin, Jan. 3—(By The Associated Press)—A large force of military and police yesterday held up traffic on the O'Connell Bridge while they searched the premises of the New Ireland Assurance Society, among the directors of which are prominent Sinn Feiners. The search apparently was fruitless. Sinn Feiners her deny that members of their faction were concerned in the raid on the Limerick post office.

Two bundred members of the transport union of Dublin struck yesterday at the Anglo-American Oil Company as a protest against the government requiring motor drivers to secure permits. Cork, Jan. 8—Charles Quarrie, which are the states transport union of Dublin struck yesterday for trial on a charge of criminal termity of the proposed proposed proposed proposed pr
