MISSING MONDA
ROSE ARRESTED
IN CANADA

Books of Chicago Cashier,
Who Led Double Life, Said
to Be $10,000 Short.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Miss Monda Rose, whose double existence as society favorite and harness factory cashier ended with her flight when her books were found to be $10,000 short, was arrested today in Winnipeg. C. H. Newton, chief constable at Winnipeg, notified the police today that he found the missing girl and that she admitted her identity.

Monda Rose, whose daytime and baptismal name is Rose Schweiburg, had been missing for several days. Her employer announced today that they had received a telegram from the missing cashier, filed in Winnipeg, stating that she was about to be married.

While the police were searching for the girl, the leather company caused Monda Rose's $1,500 saddle horse, $2,400 automobile, and the furnishings of her luxurious apartment to be seized.

Her mother, who works for her living in a factory, told the police today that the girl had gone to work when twelve years old to help support the family.

FIREMAN GETS KISS FOR RESTORING WOMAN'S SAVINGS

Windsor, Feb. 5.—Fireman "Jack" Wilson risked his life yesterday to prevent more than $1,800 in bills being burned when the home of Joseph Marshall, 7 Assumption street, was destroyed by fire.

The money, belonging to Marshall's mother-in-law, was in a cash box in the drawer of a desk in the room where the fire started from an overheated stove. Fireman Wilson, covering his face and hands with wet cloths, crawled to where the cash was kept, finding it undamaged. When he restored the roll of bills, the life savings of the woman, he was rewarded with a kiss.

WOMEN LAWYERS NOT FAVORED IN QUEBEC HOUSE

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Quebec, Feb. 5.—The admission of women to the practice of law in the province of Quebec was the subject of debate in the Quebec legislature this afternoon.

The bill to admit the women to the bar was presented to the legislature this session by Henry Miles, member for St. Lawrence-Montreal, and was killed by the opposition in committee of the house.

It was brought up again today on a motion of the promoter to have the measure considered in committee of the house. Two members championed the cause of the ladies, Mr. Miles, the promoter of the measure, and Mrs. Phillips, member for Huntingdon, while Dr. D. S. Greig, member for Frontenac, strongly opposed the measure.
