New Brunswick and Canada Railway & Land Company.

EXTRACT from the Minutes of the Board Meeting of the St. Andrews and Quebec Railroad Company, attended by the Judges from the New Brunswick and Canada Railway and Land Company, on the nineteenth day of October, A. D., 1856.

"It is hereby mutually understood and agreed upon between the Board of Directors of the Saint Andrews and Quebec Railroad Company and Josiah Bates, as the Agent and Delegate, and John W. Byrne, the Secretary of the said Company, that the Stock in that Company shall be allotted to the Class B Shareholders, in exchange for the stock now held by them, provided application be made by the individual Stockholders, or their representatives, for such exchange of stock, within two months after notice of the Royal Gazette of this Province, of the readiness of the Transferee Company to issue Certificates to the Stockholders: That the application for such exchange of stock must be for some number of shares as are now held by the applicant, the amount already paid in by each Stockholder to be considered as so much paid in on the new Stock, and no further calls to be made until an equal amount has been called in from the other Shareholders and paid up by them; the new Stock so to be issued to be entitled to no portion of the profits granted to the Company, nor to any interest on calls during the construction of the Road, but to be placed on the same footing as the Stock issued to the Provincial Government."

IN PURSUANCE of the above agreement, which was duly ratified and confirmed at a Board Meeting of the Directors of the said New Brunswick and Canada Railway and Land Company held in London on the tenth day of December, A. D. 1856—NOTICE is hereby given, that the said Company are ready to issue Certificates for Stock in exchange for Class B Shares held in the late Saint Andrews and Quebec Railroad Company, and that applications for such Certificates will be received at the Company's offices in Saint Andrews until Wednesday the fourth day of April next.

ON SATURDAY.

THE THIRD DAY OF JANUARY, 1857. HARPER & BROTHERS, Franklin Street, New York. Will issue the first number of a Weekly Newspaper, to be entitled

Harper's Weekly,

A JOURNAL OF CIVILIZATION.

It will spare neither labor nor expense to make it the best FAMILY NEWSPAPER in the World—one whose cheerful and genial character will render it a welcome visitor to every household, while its constant devotion to the approbation of the wise and good its object will be to set forth sound views on Political, Social, and moral questions; to diffuse useful information; and to cultivate the graces and amenities of life.

Harper's Weekly will contain a full and impartial Summary of Political, Social, Religious, Commercial and Literary News of the day. It will chronicle the leading movements of the age, record the inventions of genius, the discoveries of science, and the creations of art. It will, in a word, aim to present an accurate and complete picture of the age in which we live.

It will give a due share of attention to the taste, the imagination, and the feelings. Its regular contents will embrace Tales, incidents of travel and Adventure, Sketches of Character and Social Life, and Essays upon Art and Morals.

The Publishers have made arrangements with the best American writers, who will contribute to the various departments of the paper. The large space at their disposal will enable the Conductors to avail themselves of a healthful selection from the best and most literary literature of the Old World. The first number will contain the commencement of Mr. Thackeray's new Serial Tale, the publication of which from early sheets purchased of the Author, will be continued from week to week until its conclusion. In addition to this they will keep a vigilant eye upon the issues of the English, French and German Periodical press, the best productions of which will be transferred to the paper under their charge.

HARPER'S WEEKLY is not intended in any way to supersede or take the place of Harper's New Monthly Magazine. Each Periodical will confine itself to its own proper sphere; and no portions of the contents of the one will appear in the other.

HARPER'S WEEKLY will contain sixteen Pages of the size of the London Illustrated Times, each number comprising as much matter as an ordinary duodecimo volume. It will be printed in a form and upon paper suitable for binding; and as the pages will be electrolytically, the back numbers can always be supplied, so that Subscribers will be able at any time to complete their files. At the close of each volume, neat and appropriate Covers will be prepared for the convenience of those who wish to bind the paper.

TERMS. HARPER'S WEEKLY will appear every Saturday Morning, and will be sold at five cents a Copy. It will be mailed to subscribers at the following rates, payment being invariably required in advance.

One Copy for twenty Weeks $1 00
One Copy for One Year 12 50
One Copy for Two Years 24 00
Five Copies for One Year 0 00
Twelve Copies for One Year 20 00
