MONCTON, N. B., July 8—Still no trace has been found of Etta Ramsey, the fourteen year old girl who, on Friday, ran away from her home in Moncton, with John McLood, aged fifty. A report came from Sackville yesterday that the couple were there and the child's sister went down to investigate but found that the girl was not there. This morning Mrs. Ramsey reported to the police that she had heard the couple were living in rooms on the outsuffer amputation of his leg. Miss Florence Haas, an actress, who with Miss Grace Rogers, was with Dr. Thomas when the accident occurred, was so seriously injured that physicals.

CROWDED STATION AT MGADAM

The body of James B. Greives, of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff, who lost his life yesterday on the Kennebeccasis, was recovered shortly before nine o'clock this morning. Last evening, boats manned by residents at Armostrong and from Rothesay, continued the search for the body, and early this morning numbers of them went out again. The boat in which Harry Gilbert, of Rothesay, and W. J. Steen, one of the survivors of the accident, were, located the body a few minutes before nine o'clock, some 50 or 60 yards from the shore. This was further out than was expected, and the body as from the shore. This was further out than was expected, and the body as form the shore. McAdam the two were continuously quarrelling. When the train arrived at McAdam the majority of the passengers went into the ladies' waiting room. Several minutes later the woman rushed in with Esta following close behind carrying a loaded revolver. He shot at the woman, but the bullet went wide. A moment later he shot again, this bullet taking effect.

The woman staggered round and sank in a heap on the floor. Esta was about to shoot again, when Jack Powers rushed upon him and knocked his senseless. Mr. Power's action was greatly praised by the spectators.

Esta was then taken prisoner.
