FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF NEW CANADA BAPTISTS.

Our anniversary is over. We are thankful for a day of blessing enjoyed. The day was cool and cloudy, and the building was full at each service notwithstanding threatened rain. We were much disappointed in not having former pastors but they sent letters which were read at the morning service.

After the regular S. S. Dea. J. Mader opened the day with a devotional service. As it was impossible to get any minister the pastor had to weary the audience with a rambling discourse upon the "Holy City." A large number at the close could show by the uplifted hand that they had reason to believe they were prepared for it, and some asked prayers that they might be. Bro. Hibbert Wagner kindly acted as musical director and succeeded in securing a large choir who furnished good music for the day. We did not have all the special singers we hoped for but had a grand programme. Bro. Geo. U. Schnare, our excellent singer of Chelsea, kindly came and helped in the choir, and sang impressive solos at each service. All were greatly helped by his singing and many declared it "grand."

Mrs. Wm. Wentzel, a former organist, presided at the morning and afternoon meetings and proved a great help to the singing. Mrs. Rhodimer took charge in the evening. Her solo in the afternoon was much enjoyed, as were a number of special selections by choir during the day.

In the afternoon Rev. W. A. Allen opened with devotional service. Earnest prayers were offered. Ina R. Semon church clerk, called the roll. It was grand to hear faithful members, young and old, responding to their names, some by letter, others coming miles to be present. It was a touching period when the name of Mrs. Stephen Wagner was called. She was our organist and a leading member, but is now in Halifax Hospital, with little hope of recovery. Rev. C. R. Freeman of Bridgewater, was asked to lead in prayer that God might bless her and the family who feel this trying ordeal very keenly. We venture to say there was scarcely a dry eye in the house at the close of his prayer. Bro. Freeman followed with an impressive sermon, just what we needed, from 1st Thess. 1, 9, 10. Subject, "Report of a Faithful Church." Space will not permit even an outline of this worthy discourse, but we hope to have it printed and wish every church member in the county could have heard it.

We should be very thankful to this brother who had to drive from home 12 miles, after morning service preaching for us and returning at once without supper for his evening meeting.

Offerings were taken morning and afternoon and we can report over $35, practically wiping out our church debt. Rev. A. F. Browne assisted in the afternoon service and administered the Lord's Supper to a large number. He drove from New Cornwall, (12 miles), over the hills after morning meeting. We wish to express sincere thanks to Mahone and Northwest Church for their kindness in granting their pastor afternoon and evening for N. C. we appreciated it very much. Mrs. Browne kindly accompanied him and being one of the best alto singers in the county, rendered willing valuable assistance in the choir. It threatened rain in the evening, some went home but the church was full again. Bro. Browne preached one of the ablest sermons ever heard in N. C., subject "Eternity." He was at his best and the large audience listened eagerly to the end. We cannot dwell upon it but hope to have it printed.

Our kindest friend, Rev. H. B. Smith, of New Germany, preached twice that day on his own field, then drove 17 miles to help us in the evening. He assisted in the whole meeting and successfully conducted one of the most important meetings of the day—Evangelistic service. Surely this will never be forgotten. Over fifty spoke for Christ, many others stood to show they were trusting the Saviour, and 15 or 20 asked prayers that they might become Christians. Although the hour was late the audience remained and listened attentively to the Church History. We closed about 10 p. m. feeling that it was as good a day, spiritually as new Canada Baptists had enjoyed during the past 50 years. We enjoyed the presence of many visiting friends from Chelsea, Bridgewater, New Cornwall, New Germany and elsewhere. It rained next day but we were not tired of visitors who had to remain another day and night. Would not have complained had it rained a week.

CLEANLINESS IN TEA. ALL British Crown Teas (Ceylon & Indian) are machine made, rolled and packed, consequently are cleaner than the hand made teas of China. In Ceylon and Indian Teas there is no difference until they get into the packing houses on this side, then the difference is a big difference. Before they come to us all Teas are treated pretty much alike although some advertisements would almost lead one to believe that the Natives wore kid gloves in picking Teas for certain packers. Possibly VIM TEA is kid gloved picked, but thus far we have never received a bill for the gloves. VIM TEA is not touched by hand from the time the chests are opened until you use it. VIM TEA is machine blended, weighed, packed and labelled.

NOTE THIS—In some packages the packers use a sticky, gummy substance in place of double folding the lead over the seam (look inside your next package after emptying it) and although it means a considerable saving in lead, this paste often gets into the tea. Of course it is only a matter of taste and paste. There is no paste inside VIM TEA packages.
