CUPID HAS SNARED THESE TWO GREAT ATHLETIC PERFORMERS

The year that is now drawing near its finish will be put down in athletic history as one in which America's Olympic strength received a number of setbacks. The sad death of Ralph Rose robbed this country of the greatest performer in his line that the world has ever produced.

The cinderpath sport has suffered other losses, too, but happily not through the medium of the grim reaper that gets us all in the end. Little Cupid has misused some bob with Uncle Sam's Olympic team, and if you don't believe it take a peek at the accompanying pictures of the cracks that have been "knocked kicking" by Cupid's dart within the last few weeks.

Plaid Adams, the greatest all-around jumper in the world, married the girl of his choice but a few days ago. He met her on the trip to Stockholm, too. Ralph Craig, winner of both of the sprint races at the Stockholm games, led a fake New Jersey maiden to the altar but a few weeks ago.

SPORTOGRAPHY BY "GRAVY"

Throw away that cigar! You can't smoke before the horses! And now, having dispensed with the stinkadors, at the urgent request of six ushers and three private detectives and eight armed guards, you are free—for the moment—to pass the portals of Madison Square Garden and enter the sacred precincts of the greater horse show in America. That is, you will be free to do so after tomorrow, when the great equine display opens, if you thoughtfully provide yourself with a ticket of admission. And say, honest to goodness, when you go down into the vitals of the garden and see the equine pets in their moments of relaxation and ease, with two or three valets constantly in attendance, you'll wish you were a horse! More, if you have rented a nobby dress suit and a swapper overcoat for the occasion, affect a blasé and haughty air, some English "orseman" may mistake you for a gentleman, and try to sell you a horse for a few odd thousands of dollars. Nothing that can possibly be conceived of will give you a more self-satisfied and at-peace-with-the-world feeling than that, and for days you will take advantage of every occasion to remark to your friends, "G'da-

THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS

1907—Billy Papke knocked out Tony Caponi in 2nd round at Peoria, Ill. Caponi was the first really good middleweight that the Illinois Thunderbolt was pitted against, and in their first bout, pulled off at Davenport, Ia., early in 1907, Papke had to fight like a demon to get a draw after fifteen rounds of give and take. The rushing, slugging Italian kept Billy mighty busy in that first battle, but a few months later Papke had improved so much that he found Caponi an easy mark, and dropped him for the count in the second chapter.
