

PETROGRAD AT CELEBRATION NOTED GREAT VICTORY

AUSTRIANS DROWNING ACCIDENT

ARRESTED

One sent to military prison at Halifax, and four others held for further hearing.

Five Austrians were taken prisoners by the permanent force Saturday and yesterday and one, a reservist who was on his way home to fight, was sent, under escort, to Halifax to be lodged in the military prison there until the close of the war. The escort and prisoner left for Halifax on the 12:20 train.

The four other Austrians were brought up for trial before the military board yesterday morning and after the hearing were sent to jail until their stories can be proved.

The first man before the board yesterday was Jan Malovruk, an Austrian infantry reservist who had served with the colors from 1908 until 1911 and is on the reserve list until 1920. Malovruk had been working with the Norton Griffiths Company. He left the company Bay works, however, and went to Westfield and secured employment with the Wilson box factory. On the way up the river the steamer Oconee, it is alleged that he and another furnished shot guns and declared that the allies would be thrashed. This was reported to the local military authorities and the men were arrested.

The prisoner, however, denied this and claimed that he had no intention of going home to fight.

Peter Meil declared that he had not served in the Austrian army being unable to pass the medical examination on account of bad feet. This seemed to be a favorite excuse as two other prisoners, Lais Zubran and Nikolaus Munk also stated they were freed from military service for the same reason. This seemed rather strong to the local military men and the prisoners were ordered down stairs.

Several of the prisoners stated they had wives in Galicia and when asked when they were going to bring them out, just grinned. They also said they were not going back until after the war when they thought Galicia would be Russian.

P. E. I. FERRY D BE LAUNCHED TODAY AT NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE

London, Oct. 4.—There is a noticeable marked increase in the number of callers at the High Commissioner's office at present, as compared with the exciting days immediately following the outbreak of the war, with the attendant suspension of traffic and the stampede of tourists from the continent. For the first two or three weeks in August the number of visitors at the office ran as high as two hundred on some days, while now the average number of registrations is six or seven.

The office is, however, kept busy answering the many enquiries concerning persons still on the continent, or the expected arrival of the Canadian forces. It is in touch with several Canadians in Germany and Austria, and is remitting money to them.

The news of the office determined upon this project, but until now has been prevented from executing it, either by the necessity of presiding at the daily conferences of the cabinet or by the wish of the military authorities, who deemed the moment unfavorable for the trip.

M. Poincare long ago determined upon this project, but until now has been prevented from executing it, either by the necessity of presiding at the daily conferences of the cabinet or by the wish of the military authorities, who deemed the moment unfavorable for the trip.

The news of the president's departure for the front has given rise to a crop of rumors to the effect the allies have gained a great victory. The news of which is withheld, and M. Poincare has gone to witness the final discomfiture of the Germans.

The correctness of the president's official denial, and it is repeated that the situation in the fighting zone is as described by the afternoon statement of the state of St. John, is in accord with the president's sole motive to convey the nation's appreciation and encouragement to the troops in their long and difficult struggle to free the soil of the invaders.

Interest in every movement of the allies, as revealed in the official announcements of the war office and reports of the enemy's strategy, continues intense. Despite the rushing of reinforcements to the aid of the Germans their attacks, as viewed here, seem to have little effect on the positions of the allies. The battle takes on more and more the form of a siege. Additional German forces which are being sent to the lines of the Aisne and Oise, it is noted, are not coming from Lorraine, Belgium or Germany, but are being drawn from the army operating in Champagne province. The withdrawal of German forces from the centre has caused considerable surprise, in view of the extraordinary precaution which had been taken to stop the French advance in this region, and as the centre is regarded as an important element in the German defense.

Lieut. Col. Leonce Rousset, the military writer for La Liberté, in reviewing the situation, says: "It is no more wholly against our extreme left that the Germans are directing their efforts, but it is a line more to the south. More interesting, however, is the action taking place in the region of Roye. There the German general staff hopes to break the point of least resistance, and has not hesitated to strip their centre being unable to obtain reinforcements from other sources."

SHAM FIGHT A SUCCESS

The sham fight on Saturday afternoon between the permanent company and the volunteers from the Canadian Army Service Corps, proved a success in every way and although the latter had a decisive victory all engaged learned several valuable lessons in advancing and retreating under fire.

The fight was held for the purpose of instructing the men in the proper way to advance and retreat while under fire and all entered into the spirit of the day with much enthusiasm. The battle lasted until after five o'clock when a truce was called and the opposing armies marched peacefully to the armory together.

Shipments from outside points to the direction of the Relief Committee will be handled by the railway free of charge.

Information as to the plans of the committee will be gladly furnished to any desiring to assist, by the secretary, G. E. Barbour, St. John, N. B. Telephone M. 216.

The Sabbath school of St. Stephen's Presbyterian church held rally day service yesterday afternoon when there was a large attendance and an interesting programme was carried out. J. H. Irvine, the superintendent of the school, was in the chair and Percival J. Legge, the boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., gave an address. Rev. Gordon Dickie, M. A., also spoke and Frank Wry sang a solo. The choir and orchestra gave several selections.

Rally day exercises were also carried out in the Exmouth street Methodist church Sabbath school yesterday afternoon. Special musical numbers were given by members of the Sunday school under the direction of E. E. Thomas and the attendance was well over the 350 mark. The programme follows: Opening Hymn of Peace, the Lord's Prayer, address by E. E. Thomas, responsive Scripture reading, chorus by the school choir, roll call, recitation by Miss M. Alward, solo by Miss Mabel Shaw, chorus by school choir, address by Rev. W. G. Lane, chorus by school choir, God Save the King.

PRESIDENT POINCAIRE AND MINISTER OF WAR VISIT TO BATTLEFRONT

Departure Gives Rise to Rumors of Great Victory by Allies — Going to Convey Congratulations to Troops, War Office Says.

Bordeaux, Oct. 4, 1.15 p. m.—President Poincare, accompanied by Premier Viviani and Minister of War Alexandre Millerand, left at noon today for a visit to the battle front. The party travelled in an automobile, and will be absent from the temporary capital for three or four days.

The President goes to the battle front, not to take part in the strategy, as is the case of Emperor William, and possibly Emperor Nicholas, but that he may personally congratulate the troops upon the bravery they have displayed in the long and stubborn fighting.

M. Poincare long ago determined upon this project, but until now has been prevented from executing it, either by the necessity of presiding at the daily conferences of the cabinet or by the wish of the military authorities, who deemed the moment unfavorable for the trip.

The news of the president's departure for the front has given rise to a crop of rumors to the effect the allies have gained a great victory. The news of which is withheld, and M. Poincare has gone to witness the final discomfiture of the Germans.

WILL SUPPLY GOODS IN PLACE OF GERMANY

British manufacturers will make a vigorous effort to extend their trade into Canada and break into the lines which have hitherto been supplied by Germany, according to British commercial travellers who have arrived in St. John recently. It is said that they send out a large array of representatives to study conditions in Canada, the needs of the markets and the best ways of supplying them. In order to enable manufacturers to finance a movement for enlarging their industries and capturing German trade in Canada and elsewhere, the British government is being urged to establish some form of state banking which will enable the manufacturers to secure credit without being exposed to the difficulties which might beset the ordinary facilities for credit in event of bad war news. To help the bankers carry on their work the British government has already guaranteed commercial paper to the extent of hundreds of millions of pounds.

TRY UNGAR'S LAUNDRY

RALLY DAY

Sunday was rally day for the pupils of the main street Baptist church, and the exercises marking the day called out a very large attendance. W. B. Erb presided during the exercises, and interesting addresses were delivered, and by Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D. D., and by Rev. David Hutchinson, who dwelt upon the influence of Sunday schools upon the young people. A solo was sung by Miss Audrey Mullin, and other musical selections were rendered by the choir of the Sunday school. The exercises were of a very creditable character and the attendance augured a successful winter's work.

A record attendance marked the fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparative, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble, and indigestion in five minutes.

RUSSIANS PUT GERMANS TO ROUT IN FIGHT AT AUGUSTOWO

Petrograd, Oct. 4.—The official communication from the General Staff headquarters issued tonight reads: "The battle of Augustowo ended yesterday, Oct. 3, in a victory for the Russian arms. The German defeat is complete.

"The enemy is at this moment in a disorganized retreat, and in flight toward the East Prussian frontier. The valiant Russian troops are in close pursuit, the Germans abandoning their desperate march on railroads, cannons and munitions, not having even time to gather up their wounded.

"It is already known that the battle of Augustowo began on September 25 with a bombardment by the German heavy artillery in the region of Sopotzkin (on the left bank of the River Niemen), followed by an offensive movement by the enemy against the same fortified town.

"At the same time the Germans made repeated attempts to crush and dislodge the Russian forces near Drunkenki, on the Niemen.

"On September 26 the Germans also began an attack on the fortresses of Ossowetz, but everywhere met with fierce resistance, and were compelled to retreat. Not satisfied with counterattacks, our troops took the offensive vigorously, and pursued the enemy. Notwithstanding the energetic resistance offered by the Germans, they could not check the onward rush of our troops, who captured the enemy's positions, one after another.

"Routed by this irresistible engagement, the Germans weakened, and at present in full retreat; they are leaving our territory in haste. At certain points this retreat is degenerating into a flight."
