

ANDOVER

Social Notes of the Week

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, June 9.—The first tennis tea of the season was held at the club house last Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Mrs. Allan Daniel and Miss Dorothy Purdy in charge. This week's tea committee are Mrs. David Robertson, Misses Robertson, Miss Celia Armstrong and Mrs. John Davidson.

On Monday and Tuesday this week, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Miss Puddington, Miss Sophie Robertson, Miss Madge Robertson, Miss Daniel and several other Rothsay ladies, were in charge of the Soldiers' Club, St. John, and were generously assisted in providing cake and etc. by other residents.

Mrs. Walter Harrison and little son, Kenneth, arrived from Winnipeg last week, and are at the Kennedy house for the summer. Mrs. T. P. Trueman of St. John, is also here for a few weeks.

The Renforth Outing Club held their formal opening last Saturday evening, a feature of the occasion being the presentation to Lieut. F. J. Nesbet of the 115th Battalion, one of Renforth's most popular year-round residents, a splendid sleeping bag, so much appreciated at the front, and a gold piece, being the balance of the presentation fund. Mr. A. P. Patterson on behalf of the local residents, in a few well chosen words, presented the gift to Mr. Nesbet, who feelingly replied assuring the friends of his sincere appreciation, not only of the handsome gifts, but also of the kind thought which prompted the giving. Music, dancing and refreshments, combined to make the evening an enjoyable one.

Mrs. George McKinney and two children of St. John, were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McArthur, Riverside.

Next Wednesday afternoon at "Karsale," Mrs. James P. Robertson is giving a "patrician bridge" proceeds of which are to be sent to Nursing Sister, Miss Joyce Wishart, for her hospital work in France. It is sure to be a great success.

Mrs. Morris White and children of St. John, were guests of Mrs. Walter Harrison over the last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark and Master Eric Clark, came from St. John on Saturday to spend Sunday at their summer cottage, Fair Vale.

A greatly enjoyed picnic luncheon was given last week by Miss Puddington for Mrs. George Mackay, Mrs. Alexander Wilson, Miss Edith Skinner, Miss Allison, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Mrs. Morris White, Mrs. Rupert Turnbull, and Mrs. R. E. Puddington. Lunch was served in Mr. J. M. Robinson's cottage on the point.

Hostesses at this week's Red Cross tea were Mrs. R. E. Puddington, Miss Puddington and Mrs. Rupert Turnbull. The report for May, read by the secretary, Miss Muriel Robertson, was most satisfactory. The ambulance is all paid for, a cheque from Mr. Walter Allison completing the amount.

For the week-end, Mr. John D. Purdy was visiting his brother, Mr. George Purdy, at Purdy's Point, St. John.

Miss Mabel Thomson is expected home today, having arrived at Quebec yesterday from England, where she has spent the last six months.

Today Miss Ayer and Miss Fraser are reopening their summer cottage at Gondola Point. Miss Ayer spent the winter with her sister at New York and Miss Fraser has been in St. John.

Mrs. George F. Matthews cottage at Gondola Point is again occupied. Miss Judge and Mrs. Perkins, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. John Heffer is visiting her sons in Moncton.

Miss Jean Peacock of Mount Allison, is the guest of Mrs. Leonard Allison.

Mrs. H. E. Gould entertained a few friends at tea, at her bungalow Friday afternoon last. Those invited were Mrs. C. H. Perry, Mrs. S. H. White, Mrs. Hatfield White, Mrs. G. W. Sherwood, Mrs. W. R. McKay, Mrs. Gordon Mills, Mrs. H. H. Reid, Mrs. McFadden, Mrs. J. J. Daly, Mrs. Smith, (Amherst).

Miss Jennie Gambin, who recently graduated at Newton Hospital, Mass., is visiting at her home here.

Mrs. H. H. Dryden, Truro, N. S., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carey McPeters a few days this week.

Mrs. Giles Osgood and children, have returned after a month's visit to St. John.

Mr. J. Everett Keith and son, Raleigh, were week-end guests of Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Fowler, at Rothsay.

Captain and Mrs. David Freeze, Mrs. S. H. White and Miss Della Daly, motored to St. John last week.

Miss Helen Desmond, Hampton, spent Sunday last in Sussex, with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Fennell.

Mrs. Gordon Mills, Mrs. H. H. Reid, Mrs. McFadden, Mrs. J. J. Daly, Mrs. Smith, (Amherst).

Miss Hazel Cushing of Lancaster, was guest of Miss Edith Barnes, Riverside, over the week-end.

Very informally on Friday, Mrs. Andrew Blair entertained at afternoon tea, Mrs. Blanchet, Miss Allison, Mrs. Carlette, Miss Gannon, Miss Pitcher, and Miss MacKenzie.

Rev. Mr. Auld, recently ordained graduate of Pine Hill, conducted the Presbyterian service here last Sunday evening.

On account of the sad news from England, the death of Earl Kitchener, and so many of our splendid soldiers, a social evening planned for tonight in the Presbyterian hall, although an informal affair and along helpful lines, has been postponed until further notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mullin it is understood have taken a cottage in the park for the season.

Rev. Canon and Mrs. Daniel with a few of their relatives went by motor boat on Tuesday afternoon to Long Island, and had tea at the Club Camp.

Mrs. and Miss Galloway of St. John, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wilson, Fair Vale.

Invitations have been issued this week by the "heads of Netherwood School for girls," for the closing exercises to be held in St. Paul's church house next Thursday afternoon, June 15, and afterward to Netherwood, where a calisthenic drill will be given on the lawn.

Wednesday was the June receiving day at Netherwood, when the principal guests of the day were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith arrived from Boston on Tuesday, for a short vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Smith. He returns this morning to his duties at the college.

Mrs. Edward Hooper has returned from a visit to Miss Helen Marr, St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross, St. John, motored to Hampton on Saturday, and spent the day at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. O. N. Chipman.

Mrs. William Robinson, and Miss Katie Robinson, were in St. John, on Friday, attending the funeral of the late Mrs. George Lockhart.

Rev. Mr. Auld preached in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday.

Major A. J. Brooks, Lieut. F. Wm. Barnes, Lieut. C. Langstroth, Pres. Newbury and Burgess, of the 104th Battalion, Sussex, and Sergt. Luke Forestall, and Pte. A. Barry, 115th Battalion, St. John, have been visitors to Hampton during the last week.

Mrs. Douglas Hooper, returned on Wednesday to her home in Grand Falls, after spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fowler.

Mrs. Ernest Dixon and children, spent the week-end with Mrs. A. N. Dan.

Miss Dorothy Mabee spent Sunday in St. John.

Miss Hattie Steeves, a student at Acadia Ladies' Seminary, spent Friday in Hampton on route to her home in Hillsboro. She was the guest of Miss Eva Howard.

Miss Zita Williams, who has been an employee in the N. B. Telephone Company here, has accepted a position in the Western Union Office, St. John. Her place is being filled by Miss Mannings of St. John.

The Misses Melick, St. John, spent the holiday and Sunday, the guests of Mrs. R. G. Flewelling.

The residents of the village were pleased to hear the whistle of the steamer Hamilton, on Saturday, when it made its first trip in three years.

Mrs. G. Kierstead and son, Donald, spent Sunday with St. John friends.

The residents of Hampton deeply sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. G. O. D. Otty and family in the loss of their eldest son, Lieut. G. N. D. Otty, who was killed in action on June 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schofield and Master Donald, were visitors to St. John, on Saturday.

The Rev. Victor Jarvis, St. John, conducted the services in the Anglican churches on Sunday, Rev. A. H. Crofoot conducting the services in Stone Church, St. John.

Miss Kathleen Flewelling, who has been the guest of St. John friends for the past week, arrived home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McAvity and family, St. John, have moved to their summer residence at Lakeside.

Mr. Wallace Taylor, who has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Hazel Polkins, has returned to his home in Salisbury.

Mr. J. S. Sutherland, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, in this place and Mr. W. S. Wilkinson, manager of a branch at that bank at Gagetown, have been transferred, the former to Gagetown, and the latter to Hampton. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland have been residents of Hampton for four years and have made many friends, who regret their departure.

Corporal Reginald Newbury, 104th Battalion, Sussex, and Mrs. Newbury, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

WESTFIELD

Westfield, June 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Perry Howard spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Macaulay, Hillendale.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Ferguson of St. John, spent a few days this week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sutherland.

Capt. Wm. Warwick of the 115th Battalion, and Mrs. Warwick, spent Saturday at Ononetto.

A guest of Miss G. Phillips the week-end was Miss J. Likely of St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. McLeod and Miss Hanson of St. John, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Smith.

Mrs. J. B. Gough of Woodstock, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. E. R. Machum.

Miss Waters of St. John, was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. E. L. Barrell Jones.

Miss Hendricks announces the engagement of her niece, Emma Arnold Turnbull to Lieut. Col. and Mrs. H. A. Haines, Port Pitt House, Rochesdale, England. The marriage will take place in July.

Miss Hazel Cushing of Lancaster, was guest of Miss Edith Barnes, Riverside, over the week-end.

Very informally on Friday, Mrs. Andrew Blair entertained at afternoon tea, Mrs. Blanchet, Miss Allison, Mrs. Carlette, Miss Gannon, Miss Pitcher, and Miss MacKenzie.

Rev. Mr. Auld, recently ordained graduate of Pine Hill, conducted the Presbyterian service here last Sunday evening.

On account of the sad news from England, the death of Earl Kitchener, and so many of our splendid soldiers, a social evening planned for tonight in the Presbyterian hall, although an informal affair and along helpful lines, has been postponed until further notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mullin it is understood have taken a cottage in the park for the season.

Rev. Canon and Mrs. Daniel with a few of their relatives went by motor boat on Tuesday afternoon to Long Island, and had tea at the Club Camp.

Mrs. and Miss Galloway of St. John, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wilson, Fair Vale.

Invitations have been issued this week by the "heads of Netherwood School for girls," for the closing exercises to be held in St. Paul's church house next Thursday afternoon, June 15, and afterward to Netherwood, where a calisthenic drill will be given on the lawn.

Wednesday was the June receiving day at Netherwood, when the principal guests of the day were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith arrived from Boston on Tuesday, for a short vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Smith. He returns this morning to his duties at the college.

Mrs. Edward Hooper has returned from a visit to Miss Helen Marr, St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross, St. John, motored to Hampton on Saturday, and spent the day at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. O. N. Chipman.

Mrs. William Robinson, and Miss Katie Robinson, were in St. John, on Friday, attending the funeral of the late Mrs. George Lockhart.

Rev. Mr. Auld preached in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday.

Major A. J. Brooks, Lieut. F. Wm. Barnes, Lieut. C. Langstroth, Pres. Newbury and Burgess, of the 104th Battalion, Sussex, and Sergt. Luke Forestall, and Pte. A. Barry, 115th Battalion, St. John, have been visitors to Hampton during the last week.

Mrs. Douglas Hooper, returned on Wednesday to her home in Grand Falls, after spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fowler.

Mrs. Ernest Dixon and children, spent the week-end with Mrs. A. N. Dan.

Miss Dorothy Mabee spent Sunday in St. John.

Miss Hattie Steeves, a student at Acadia Ladies' Seminary, spent Friday in Hampton on route to her home in Hillsboro. She was the guest of Miss Eva Howard.

Miss Zita Williams, who has been an employee in the N. B. Telephone Company here, has accepted a position in the Western Union Office, St. John. Her place is being filled by Miss Mannings of St. John.

The Misses Melick, St. John, spent the holiday and Sunday, the guests of Mrs. R. G. Flewelling.

The residents of the village were pleased to hear the whistle of the steamer Hamilton, on Saturday, when it made its first trip in three years.

Mrs. G. Kierstead and son, Donald, spent Sunday with St. John friends.

The residents of Hampton deeply sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. G. O. D. Otty and family in the loss of their eldest son, Lieut. G. N. D. Otty, who was killed in action on June 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schofield and Master Donald, were visitors to St. John, on Saturday.

The Rev. Victor Jarvis, St. John, conducted the services in the Anglican churches on Sunday, Rev. A. H. Crofoot conducting the services in Stone Church, St. John.

Miss Kathleen Flewelling, who has been the guest of St. John friends for the past week, arrived home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McAvity and family, St. John, have moved to their summer residence at Lakeside.

Mr. Wallace Taylor, who has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Hazel Polkins, has returned to his home in Salisbury.

Mr. J. S. Sutherland, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, in this place and Mr. W. S. Wilkinson, manager of a branch at that bank at Gagetown, have been transferred, the former to Gagetown, and the latter to Hampton. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland have been residents of Hampton for four years and have made many friends, who regret their departure.

Corporal Reginald Newbury, 104th Battalion, Sussex, and Mrs. Newbury, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

Miss Carr of St. John, spent a few days this week at the home of Mrs. J. A. Gilliland.

Mrs. Miller of Montreal, is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. F. B. Woodman's Point.

Mrs. C. P. Humphrey spent Tuesday with friends in Hampton.

Miss Gertrude Phillips entertained on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Grace McIlmard, whose marriage took place on Thursday. Besides the guest of honor were Mrs. Holly Lounsbury, Mrs. Harold Rising, Miss Dorothy Creighton, Miss Maud Smith and the Misses McIlmards.

Misses Vera and Thelma Waters returned from St. John on Monday, after a pleasant visit with their aunt, Mrs. Hayes Rathburn.

Rev. P. T. Bertram and H. H. Baxter left on Tuesday to attend the sessions of the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist conference, held in Summerside, P. E. I.

On Wednesday afternoon the members of the Westfield branch of the W. A. met at the rectory. Rev. C. W. Nichols conducted a short devotional service, after which the reports of the delegates who had attended the annual diocesan convention were read. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served.

Messrs. Kennedy and McDonald of Nova Scotia, who have the contract for building the section of the Valley Railroad from Westfield to Gagetown, arrived in Westfield on Wednesday and expect to commence work immediately.

Mr. W. L. Robson left on Monday for New York.

The funeral of Mr. Grant M. Piers, took place on Thursday afternoon, at the home of his son, Mr. James Piers, Village Road. The Rev. O. N. Chipman officiated. Interment was made in Hampton Rural Cemetery.

Mr. Guilford Flewelling was the guest of St. John friends, on Sunday.

Among those from St. John who spent Saturday at the Wayside Inn, were Dr. and Mrs. Godsoe, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tennant, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rising, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Marr, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schofield, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Miss A. Estey and Miss Louise Estey.

Mrs. J. E. Angevine and two sons, Murray and Stuart, were guests at Sunset on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Angus and children, St. John, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross, St. John, motored to Hampton on Saturday, and spent the day at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. O. N. Chipman.

Mrs. William Robinson, and Miss Katie Robinson, were in St. John, on Friday, attending the funeral of the late Mrs. George Lockhart.

Rev. Mr. Auld preached in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday.

Major A. J. Brooks, Lieut. F. Wm. Barnes, Lieut. C. Langstroth, Pres. Newbury and Burgess, of the 104th Battalion, Sussex, and Sergt. Luke Forestall, and Pte. A. Barry, 115th Battalion, St. John, have been visitors to Hampton during the last week.

Mrs. Douglas Hooper, returned on Wednesday to her home in Grand Falls, after spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fowler.

Mrs. Ernest Dixon and children, spent the week-end with Mrs. A. N. Dan.

Miss Dorothy Mabee spent Sunday in St. John.

Miss Hattie Steeves, a student at Acadia Ladies' Seminary, spent Friday in Hampton on route to her home in Hillsboro. She was the guest of Miss Eva Howard.

Miss Zita Williams, who has been an employee in the N. B. Telephone Company here, has accepted a position in the Western Union Office, St. John. Her place is being filled by Miss Mannings of St. John.

The Misses Melick, St. John, spent the holiday and Sunday, the guests of Mrs. R. G. Flewelling.

The residents of the village were pleased to hear the whistle of the steamer Hamilton, on Saturday, when it made its first trip in three years.

Mrs. G. Kierstead and son, Donald, spent Sunday with St. John friends.

The residents of Hampton deeply sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. G. O. D. Otty and family in the loss of their eldest son, Lieut. G. N. D. Otty, who was killed in action on June 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schofield and Master Donald, were visitors to St. John, on Saturday.

The Rev. Victor Jarvis, St. John, conducted the services in the Anglican churches on Sunday, Rev. A. H. Crofoot conducting the services in Stone Church, St. John.

Miss Kathleen Flewelling, who has been the guest of St. John friends for the past week, arrived home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McAvity and family, St. John, have moved to their summer residence at Lakeside.

Mr. Wallace Taylor, who has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Hazel Polkins, has returned to his home in Salisbury.

Mr. J. S. Sutherland, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, in this place and Mr. W. S. Wilkinson, manager of a branch at that bank at Gagetown, have been transferred, the former to Gagetown, and the latter to Hampton. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland have been residents of Hampton for four years and have made many friends, who regret their departure.

Corporal Reginald Newbury, 104th Battalion, Sussex, and Mrs. Newbury, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

Don't be put off—

don't accept any substitute whatever, for

"SALADA"

Because if you do, you will pay the penalty, by getting dissatisfaction, instead of Supreme Satisfaction.

Mrs. John McAvity, for the holiday. Mr. Clarence Conway, who has been attending college at Baltimore, has arrived home to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conway, Railway Avenue.

Ptes. Robert Hallett and Charles Perry, 104th Battalion, were visitors in Hampton last Sunday.

Rev. W. D. Wilson, Sec. N. B. Temperance Alliance, held a meeting in the Methodist Church Hall, on Monday evening.

A warm welcome was given Dr. Catharine Travis on her arrival in Hampton, on Saturday evening. A large gathering was at the station and cheered lustily as the traveller alighted from the train. On behalf of several friends, Mr. G. B. Dickson Otty presented to her, a large bouquet of red and white carnations, after which she was conducted to a gaily bedecked automobile and hauled to the home of her sister, by the Cadets and Boy Scouts of H. C. S. Miss Minnie Travis met her sister at Eastport and accompanied her home.

Mrs. John McAvity, for the holiday. Mr. Clarence Conway, who has been attending college at Baltimore, has arrived home to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conway, Railway Avenue.

Ptes. Robert Hallett and Charles Perry, 104th Battalion, were visitors in Hampton last Sunday.

Rev. W. D. Wilson, Sec. N. B. Temperance Alliance, held a meeting in the Methodist Church Hall, on Monday evening.

A warm welcome was given Dr. Catharine Travis on her arrival in Hampton, on Saturday evening. A large gathering was at the station and cheered lustily as the traveller alighted from the train. On behalf of several friends, Mr. G. B. Dickson Otty presented to her, a large bouquet of red and white carnations, after which she was conducted to a gaily bedecked automobile and hauled to the home of her sister, by the Cadets and Boy Scouts of H. C. S. Miss Minnie Travis met her sister at Eastport and accompanied her home.

Mrs. John McAvity, for the holiday. Mr. Clarence Conway, who has been attending college at Baltimore, has arrived home to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conway, Railway Avenue.

Ptes. Robert Hallett and Charles Perry, 104th Battalion, were visitors in Hampton last Sunday.

Rev. W. D. Wilson, Sec. N. B. Temperance Alliance, held a meeting in the Methodist Church Hall, on Monday evening.

A warm welcome was given Dr. Catharine Travis on her arrival in Hampton, on Saturday evening. A large gathering was at the station and cheered lustily as the traveller alighted from the train. On behalf of several friends, Mr. G. B. Dickson Otty presented to her, a large bouquet of red and white carnations, after which she was conducted to a gaily bedecked automobile and hauled to the home of her sister, by the Cadets and Boy Scouts of H. C. S. Miss Minnie Travis met her sister at Eastport and accompanied her home.

Mrs. John McAvity, for the holiday. Mr. Clarence Conway, who has been attending college at Baltimore, has arrived home to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conway, Railway Avenue.

Ptes. Robert Hallett and Charles Perry, 104th Battalion, were visitors in Hampton last Sunday.

Rev. W. D. Wilson, Sec. N. B. Temperance Alliance, held a meeting in the Methodist Church Hall, on Monday evening.

A warm welcome was given Dr. Catharine Travis on her arrival in Hampton, on Saturday evening. A large gathering was at the station and cheered lustily as the traveller alighted from the train. On behalf of several friends, Mr. G. B. Dickson Otty presented to her, a large bouquet of red and white carnations, after which she was conducted to a gaily bedecked automobile and hauled to the home of her sister, by the Cadets and Boy Scouts of H. C. S. Miss Minnie Travis met her sister at Eastport and accompanied her home.

Mrs. John McAvity, for the holiday. Mr. Clarence Conway, who has been attending college at Baltimore, has arrived home to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conway, Railway Avenue.

Ptes. Robert Hallett and Charles Perry, 104th Battalion, were visitors in Hampton last Sunday.

Rev. W. D. Wilson, Sec. N. B. Temperance Alliance, held a meeting in the Methodist Church Hall, on Monday evening.

A warm welcome was given Dr. Catharine Travis on her arrival in Hampton, on Saturday evening. A large gathering was at the station and cheered lustily as the traveller alighted from the train. On behalf of several friends, Mr. G. B. Dickson Otty presented to her, a large bouquet of red and white carnations, after which she was conducted to a gaily bedecked automobile and hauled to the home of her sister, by the Cadets and Boy Scouts of H. C. S. Miss Minnie Travis met her sister at Eastport and accompanied her home.

Mrs. John McAvity, for the holiday. Mr. Clarence Conway, who has been attending college at Baltimore, has arrived home to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conway, Railway Avenue.

Ptes. Robert Hallett and Charles Perry, 104th Battalion, were visitors in Hampton last Sunday.

Rev. W. D. Wilson, Sec. N. B. Temperance Alliance, held a meeting in the Methodist Church Hall, on Monday evening.

A warm welcome was given Dr. Catharine Travis on her arrival in Hampton, on Saturday evening. A large gathering was at the station and cheered lustily as the traveller alighted from the train. On behalf of several friends, Mr. G. B. Dickson Otty presented to her, a large bouquet of red and white carnations, after which she was conducted to a gaily bedecked automobile and hauled to the home of her sister, by the Cadets and Boy Scouts of H. C. S. Miss Minnie Travis met her sister at Eastport and accompanied her home.

Mrs. John McAvity, for the holiday. Mr. Clarence Conway, who has been attending college at Baltimore, has arrived home to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conway, Railway Avenue.

Ptes. Robert Hallett and Charles Perry, 104th Battalion, were visitors in Hampton last Sunday.

Rev. W. D. Wilson, Sec. N. B. Temperance Alliance, held a meeting in the Methodist Church Hall, on Monday evening.

A warm welcome was given Dr. Catharine Travis on her arrival in Hampton, on Saturday evening. A large gathering was at the station and cheered lustily as the traveller alighted from the train. On behalf of several friends, Mr. G. B. Dickson Otty presented to her, a large bouquet of red and white carnations, after which she was conducted to a gaily bedecked automobile and hauled to