Empress of France Round World Cruise

Vessel Under Charter to Frank C. Clark, New York, for Cruise Starting January, 1923.

Although the number of ocean cruises arranged for the present winter is unusually large the demand for accommodation by intending tourists is not so great.

An around-the-world cruise is announced for the Canadian Empress of France, one of the best known liners in the Canadian trans-Atlantic service.

International co-operation was never more remote than it is at present.
The French broke with the British in this conference it was
