

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 29, 1903.

OUR COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

HOPEWELL HILL.

HOPEWELL, July 24.—Mrs. G. M. Russell received word yesterday of the death of her mother, Mrs. Davidson, at Lower Onslow (N. S.). The deceased, who was about seventy years of age, had been in poor health for some time. Besides her daughter she leaves one son, with whom she resided at the time of her death. Mr. and Mrs. Russell left this morning for Nova Scotia.

The eleven-year-old daughter of Allen Fales, of Church Road, had one of her eyes removed a few days ago. She had been suffering for some time and had nearly lost her sight. Drs. Cammash and McLaughlin, of Riverside, performed the operation.

Freeman Steeves, of Boston, is visiting his father, Judson W. Steeves, of this village. Dr. James Lynde, of Ann Arbor (Mich.), is visiting his old home at Hopewell Cape.

FREDERICTON.

FREDERICTON, N. B., July 25.—(Special)—The board of school trustees, at a special meeting this evening, appointed Frank Good, of Woodstock, instructor in science at the High School here, in succession to Frank Patterson. The vacant principalship of Charlotte street school, caused by the resignation of Joseph Mills, was filled by the appointment of Horace G. Perry, B. A., of Cady's, Queens county. For the same named position there were fifteen applicants.

Quite a sensation was created here this evening by the arrest of Robert Briggs, an employe of Ryan's brick yard, charged with attempted rape on a fourteen-year-old girl named Bessie Hartney. The alleged assault is said to have been committed on Hanwell road, Wednesday evening, the couple having been out driving in that vicinity. Briggs is a married man, about thirty-five years of age, and the victim of the alleged assault is only one arm. The arrest was made on a warrant sworn out by the girl's mother, who is employed on the steamer David Watson.

Mrs. W. W. McLaughlin and Misses Nan McDonald and Lou Robertson, of St. John, arrived in the city by steamer Aberdeen this morning from Gagetown. They, with other ladies, have been on a practicing cruise on the river and were becalmed at Gagetown for three days.

The death occurred at her home on King street, about 5 o'clock this morning of Mrs. James Boyle, one of the best known residents of Fredericton. Deceased was in her sixty-fourth year, and was a daughter of the late John Driscoll, of this city. She leaves a husband, four sons, and four daughters. These are Misses Helena, Mary and Annie Boyle, and Charles, John, Vincent and Samuel, all of whom reside at home. One daughter, Mrs. Miss B. Driscoll, who made her home with deceased, and a niece, Miss Stella Boyle.

The death of Mrs. Mary Andrew Douglas at the residence of Mrs. Andrew Douglas at Stanley this morning, for the past two years Mr. and Mrs. Wiley have been residing in Boston, and as a result children have been visiting frequently at Stanley for the past two months. Mr. Wiley was summoned to his wife's bedside a few days ago. The deceased was about thirty-three years of age and leaves two children.

On Wednesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Isabelle Collins, Marzville, her young daughter, Frances L., was married in a marriage to Joseph Capin. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Barry, niece of Judge Barry, of Fredericton, while Jas. McCleary performed the duties of best man.

A very pretty wedding took place last Tuesday afternoon in St. Mary's, at the home of Mr. Basile, when Miss Mary Gray, daughter of Boston, was married to Wm. John Waterman, of Zion, Newsway, by Rev. A. D. McLeod.

Word from Edmundston, Grand Falls, Woodstock and up river points, states that it rained heavily there all day yesterday and the water came up in the river several inches. Considerable young cat's paws are passing Edmundston and Perth today, and the prospects for the lumbermen are again brightening.

Major Benge, of this city, and E. F. Jones, the expert golfer of St. John, left last evening for St. Andrews, where they will meet and compete with the champion golfers at that summer resort.

Mrs. T. C. Allen was the hostess at a jolly picnic at Beach Knoll this afternoon, in honor of her guests, the Messrs. Forgan, of Chicago, and Miss Kathleen Hobbs, of St. John.

Charles Hoyt, one of the most prosperous farmers of Prince William, will shortly lead to the altar Miss Annie Miller, who returned yesterday from Victoria (B. C.). Friends announced that Miss Annie Phinney and R. W. McEellan will be married in September. Mr. McEellan is now in Ireland on business with Mr. Moore.

Fredericton, July 27.—There was a slight flurry of snow between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning. Yesterday was a typically fine summer day, but a gale which came in about 9 o'clock last night without warning effected a drop in temperature which in a half hour seemed to change midsummer into fall. The wind blew hard all night and continues doing so yet. The mercury was down close to fifty, and snow, snow and fall gale winds are everywhere in evidence.

WOODSTOCK.

WOODSTOCK, July 24.—A very sad accident happened recently to Master Lawrence O'Hagan, the ten year old son of Charles O'Hagan. He was playing near his home and fell upon a stick of wood, the doctors have strong hopes for his recovery. Henderson has returned from Toronto where he was attending the convention of furniture men. He was also interviewing capitalists to buy him a large furniture factory to be started here. At the convention the samples of native woods which he had on exhibit, were highly spoken of. Mr. Henderson engaged several expert workmen, who will come here as soon as their services are needed.

There will be held on Monday next in the Methodist church at Boston, St. John, a school convention for the parish of Woodstock, and the following day, in the Advent church, Woodstock, the town Sunday school convention.

The W. M. B. U. convention of the maritime provinces will be held here August 18 to 20.

Levi, Cal. White, D. O. C. was a recent visitor in town. He inspected the stores of the 10th Field Battery. He also visited the rifle range which he found in excellent condition. To encourage the rifle club, he offered a silver medal, the terms of competition to be arranged by the members.

Miss Katie Werner, St. John, is here on a short visit. The farmers in this vicinity intend to commence having this week, but the weather is so unsettled they have not done much. The cultivated strawberries are nearly done. They have not been an average crop this year. Fred Craft and family are here for the summer. They rented a house from G. A. Gorden. Mrs. Phil Reynolds has been visiting Mrs. S. K. Tobin.

Miss Kerr, of Portland (Me.), is here on a short visit. The farmers in this vicinity intend to commence having this week, but the weather is so unsettled they have not done much. The cultivated strawberries are nearly done. They have not been an average crop this year. Fred Craft and family are here for the summer. They rented a house from G. A. Gorden. Mrs. Phil Reynolds has been visiting Mrs. S. K. Tobin.

Harold Gibbons has returned to his home in Pittsburg (Pa.), after a short visit to his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Gibbons. The city, has returned home. Benjamin White has been visiting his parents at White Head. He has returned to work at Pittsburg. Arthur Hamm, of North End, is boarding at the Baywater.

Hampton, July 24.—Mrs. Chute is home from Boston on a business trip, in connection with her valuable property in Hampton. Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Kersey, of St. John, came to Hampton last week and were the guests of Mrs. Wm. Beattie. Mrs. Kersey's sister, they brought their gramophones and have entertained several audiences.

The approaching marriage is announced of a popular medical official of the dominion government to a young lady, who was quite recently a resident of Hampton. The wedding will take place at Newark (N. J.), on August 4, after which the happy couple are on an extended wedding tour. Contractor Wm. Langstroth has Doctor Warfield's barn about completed. It is quite an attractive edifice.

The strawberry season, which is short, is about over, and raspberries begin to appear. A new store is going up at the station. A Chinese laundry has been started next to the station. The portable mill on the Norton side of the river is doing excellent work, saving for the G. & G. Flouring Manufacturing Co. Mrs. Sims, sister of Engineer Robert Fleming, who has been in the States for forty years, has been visiting her brother in Cycle avenue. She naturally finds great changes in this village. She is at present visiting her sister in Sackville.

Mrs. Watson, of Moncton, visited her sister, Mrs. Adams, last week, and was accompanied home by Miss Lizzie Adams, her niece. Mrs. Milton Dann of Apohaqui, is visiting her parents in Cycle avenue.

taught school. Deceased had been troubled with diabetes the last few years, and underwent an operation in the Moncton hospital a week or two ago. He leaves a widow in Shodine, and one son, Frank, in the employ of R. F. A. M. Company here. The body will be taken to Kent county for interment.

The Dominion Board of Trade has called a meeting for next Tuesday night, to consider the Grand Trunk Pacific railway project.

MILLTOWN. Milltown, N. B., July 23.—After a vacation of several months, the band held its first rehearsal on last Monday evening. There was a large attendance of members and the rehearsal was very successful. On account of a break down in H. F. Eaton & Son's saw mill Monday, operations were suspended for a few days.

H. P. Carter, overseer of weaving, has tendered his resignation, to accept a position as superintendent of a large cotton mill in Augusta (Me.). Oren Morrison succeeds him as overseer. Mrs. Thomas Larkins is visiting friends in St. John.

The M. A. A. foot ball team held a meeting on Friday last and elected the following officers for the season of 1903: Captain, L. McLeod; second captain, William Corbett; secretary, J. L. Osborne; treasurer, R. Campbell; manager, J. W. Graham.

Arrangements are completed for the cotton mill employe's excursion to St. Andrews on Friday last. On account of Rev. J. C. Robertson's absence, the service in St. James' Presbyterian church next Sunday will be conducted by Rev. H. Woodside, of Loch Lomond.

On account of Thursday being wet the Knights of Pythias have postponed their annual excursion to Grand Manan.

BAYSWATER. Bayswater, July 23.—Headley White, who has been in the country in the interest of Clarke & Son, crossed over on the Miller today on his way to the city. Mrs. Geo. A. Worden, who was visiting here, has returned home. The home of Capt. Waters, of Victoria Point, has been made happy by the arrival of twins, a boy and a girl, all doing well. Quite a number of visitors are here this week at the Baywater and private hours. Others want to come but cannot get accommodations.

Mrs. H. Reynolds has been visiting Mrs. S. K. Tobin. Miss Kerr, of Portland (Me.), is here on a short visit. The farmers in this vicinity intend to commence having this week, but the weather is so unsettled they have not done much. The cultivated strawberries are nearly done. They have not been an average crop this year. Fred Craft and family are here for the summer. They rented a house from G. A. Gorden. Mrs. Phil Reynolds has been visiting Mrs. S. K. Tobin.

Harold Gibbons has returned to his home in Pittsburg (Pa.), after a short visit to his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Gibbons. The city, has returned home. Benjamin White has been visiting his parents at White Head. He has returned to work at Pittsburg. Arthur Hamm, of North End, is boarding at the Baywater.

Hampton, July 24.—Mrs. Chute is home from Boston on a business trip, in connection with her valuable property in Hampton. Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Kersey, of St. John, came to Hampton last week and were the guests of Mrs. Wm. Beattie. Mrs. Kersey's sister, they brought their gramophones and have entertained several audiences.

The approaching marriage is announced of a popular medical official of the dominion government to a young lady, who was quite recently a resident of Hampton. The wedding will take place at Newark (N. J.), on August 4, after which the happy couple are on an extended wedding tour. Contractor Wm. Langstroth has Doctor Warfield's barn about completed. It is quite an attractive edifice.

The strawberry season, which is short, is about over, and raspberries begin to appear. A new store is going up at the station. A Chinese laundry has been started next to the station. The portable mill on the Norton side of the river is doing excellent work, saving for the G. & G. Flouring Manufacturing Co. Mrs. Sims, sister of Engineer Robert Fleming, who has been in the States for forty years, has been visiting her brother in Cycle avenue. She naturally finds great changes in this village. She is at present visiting her sister in Sackville.

Mrs. Watson, of Moncton, visited her sister, Mrs. Adams, last week, and was accompanied home by Miss Lizzie Adams, her niece. Mrs. Milton Dann of Apohaqui, is visiting her parents in Cycle avenue.

K. of H. and S. J. C. Henry in carriage. North Lodge, No. 4, Parker Grimmer, captain. Whitlock Company of Milltown, R. W. Whitlock, captain. The route was from the hall down Water street, up Marks street to Union street and on to the Rural Cemetery, where the usual ceremony took place. Two heavily laden carriages containing beautiful cut flowers in bouquets and pieces of art were in the procession.

Ina, the youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lawson, died Saturday night after a few days illness at her cottage down river. The body was brought to town river. The body was brought to town river. The body was brought to town river.

SUSSEX. Sussex, N. B., July 25.—On Saturday, July 25, Capt. Peter McKay, an aged and highly respected resident of Sussex, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Richmond. The cause of death was enlargement of the liver, which, after ten weeks of suffering, carried off the aged patient.

Captain McKay was born in Guysboro (N. S.), in 1816, and had a number of years' service in the army, engaging in the West Indian trade. Afterwards he commanded a packet between Yarmouth and Bridgetown, until the abandonment of this venture. Captain McKay moved to Sussex about twenty years ago, and for a number of years was proprietor of the L. & B. hotel here, during which time he won and held the respect of a large number of patrons from all parts of Canada.

He leaves three children—B. McKay and Mrs. G. H. McKay, of Sussex, and Mrs. M. B. McKay, of Boston. A short service will be held at Mrs. Richmond's home on Sunday evening, and on Monday morning the body will be removed to Bridgetown for interment.

Sussex, N. B., July 27.—A severe storm of thunder and lightning, accompanied by high wind and heavy hail storm, passed over here last night, about 9.30 o'clock. Reports say that some damage was done to the crops in the outside districts by the hail.

King & Adell's store was broken into last night and several small articles stolen. The burglar gained an entrance by breaking the glass out of a window in the back of the premises. Dr. J. H. Barrett arrived home this evening from his western trip. The doctor was as far west as Alberta, and returned on Monday. The body of the late Captain McKay was taken to Bridgetown (N. S.) this morning for interment.

BRISTOL. Bristol, N. B., July 25.—Rev. L. A. Lockhart came up from Moncton on Monday and spent a few days at home this week. Miss Dora Doucette, Knowlville, is visiting friends in Bristol. The Rev. Mr. Brown, New York, who is visiting Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Eddy, Florenceville, were calling on friends in Bristol yesterday.

Sheriff Hayward and Dr. Canbery, Woodstock, came up in the train to this station and drove to the Miramichi to spend a few days, and the first discovered some goods were missing. On investigation it was found that a general was in the upper end of the town, and the proprietor returned them to their owners. The whereabouts of the young man are unknown.

Mildred Phillips, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Phillips, died on Tuesday last, after a long illness. Her condition had been performed for appendicitis. She was seven years old, and a bright, lovable child. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Mrs. S. G. Galloway, of Tobique River, is visiting at Mrs. A. W. Phillips. St. MARYS. St. Mary's York county, July 21.—C. H. Thomas, of this village, has bought a house and lot formerly owned by Mrs. John Haines, and adjoining his property in St. Mary's. He is moving the house to another site on the hill, and a large branch store where this house stood. Mr. Thomas already carries on a large grocery business in St. Mary's.

Mrs. W. T. Whitehead, Master Steve, and Miss A. W. Ebbett has gone on a trip to British Columbia. The Gagetown Methodist Sunday school picnic at Douglas Harbor last week was greatly enjoyed by all who went, and in every way was successfully carried out, there being a surplus over expenses also.

APPOHAQUI. Apohaqui, July 27.—A furious rain, hail and wind storm passed over here on Friday afternoon, accompanied by thunder and lightning. Again last night a great deal of thunder and lightning, with heavy rain here. A mile north of this place the hail storm was very severe, destroying the crops. Some of the hail was on the ground this morning. Weather very cold.

Miss Smith, milliner for Jones' Bros., left for her home in Sackville Saturday morning. Mrs. Heddling, who has been visiting Mrs. Vespey, went to St. John Saturday night.

Mrs. Little for a few weeks. Mrs. F. has been an invalid since January and has come to the country for the benefit of her health. Mr. Fenwick drove his horse and carriage up yesterday that she may enjoy driving out fine days. Jones Bros. shipped more lumber from Apohaqui last week than was ever done before in that time.

G. B. Jones and Mrs. Jones have been on a holiday trip to Chipman, Q. C., since the 18th.

SYDNEY. Sydney, N. S., July 24.—Thomas and Peter Meigs, of Yarmouth (Mass.), two of the crew of the Grand Banks fish schooner Doris A. Lawson, of Gloucester (Mass.), left their vessel on June 28th to attend to their travels, a thick fog set in and they lost their bearings and for five days were without food and water, they drifted about in their dory. Fortunately they were picked up by the schooner H. C. Pierce, who had sailed from St. Pierre. The American consular agent then took charge of them and sent them here to the American Consul West, who took them to Yarmouth today.

The ocean-going tug Lord Strathcona arrived at North Sydney this morning from St. Pierre. They say they had made an unsuccessful attempt to float the steamer Monterey. She brought thirty cattle from St. Pierre. They say there is no possibility of saving the steamer. Her bottom is practically gone.

G. H. Dugan, general manager and trustee president of the Dominion Iron & Steel Company, and David Baker, general manager, have been summoned to Montreal to the meeting of the directors of the company. Mr. Baker informed our correspondent that the purpose of the meeting is to decide what will be done, and whether the company will be reconstructed, and whether the gentlemen leave tomorrow for Montreal.

The Magdalen herring fishermen returned home today report the trip a success. The log fish arrived on the grounds this ten days earlier than usual and when they came it was fully set and set a fine line in the gear was destroyed as soon as it struck the water.

Sydney, N. S., July 25.—(Special)—The Dominion Iron and Steel Company's quarterly meeting has been adjourned to Montreal and all men working there discharged. Orders were given to remove the machinery to Sydney. Two more of the open hearth furnaces have been shut down. There are now only three in operation and only two blast furnaces. From Thursday to Saturday 500 men have been dismissed. It is said that on Monday a general meeting will be held in the general office with special reference to the general office.

North Sydney, N. S., July 25.—(Special)—The Newfoundland schooner Etnie, Captain Peter, was seized here by Capt. J. W. Gordon, of the revenue cruiser "Gardiner," Officer Bowler, for violation of the customs regulations. The vessel is bound for a Newfoundland port for Halifax and on the way to the latter port she reported the loss of St. Pierre and several other vessels. On her arrival at Halifax she failed to report the loss of St. Pierre and several other vessels. On her arrival at Halifax she failed to report the loss of St. Pierre and several other vessels.

A young man recently employed as a farm hand, being detailed to some goods were missing. On investigation it was found that a general was in the upper end of the town, and the proprietor returned them to their owners. The whereabouts of the young man are unknown.

M. Ryan, of the sailing schooner Florence M. Smith arrived last evening from Halifax where the schooner is laid up. Captain Ryan left on Monday, August 1st, on a sailing trip to the South Sea Islands, where he secured 3,000 seals, which he landed at Halifax, arriving there last week after a good passage of 44 days. Captain Ryan is having a fine schooner built at Lunenburg, and is expected to sail for the Pacific coast.

He will sail out at Halifax this week and proceed to the South Sea. The Nova Scotia Steel Company has concluded to build a new blast furnace at Pittsburg, for the construction of a number of open hearth furnaces to be built on the site of the steel works plan at Sydney Mines. Saturday morning when the steamer Louisa was ready to leave the Inter-national pier, with coal for St. John. The boat crew went on for higher wages, although they were under articles till October 30. The captain applied for warrants and the 12 men were arrested and taken to the jail. Stipendiary Magistrate Mosely fined each $2.50. They then decided to return to the steamer and she proceeded.

AMHERST. Amherst, N. S., July 23.—(Special)—Considerable excitement was caused in this village on Thursday night to 8 o'clock this morning on account of the strange disappearance of Daniel Patrick, manager of the Mosaic Coal mine, Monday. At 9 o'clock Thursday, Patrick was discharging his usual duties, when suddenly he left the mine and all efforts to locate him proved unavailing.

Groups of men hunted through the woods and in the old pits in the vicinity all day yesterday and up to this morning, when he was found on the side of the road near the T. C. R. in an exhausted condition with serious gashes on each side of his throat. He was carried to a nearby residence and medical aid summoned. The wounds were dressed and he is in a very weak condition, some hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Tracing the blood marks evidence was found that he had pushed himself a distance from where he was found, a large pool of blood being upon the floor and clear as the wet walls as made by his hands. The wounds were inflicted with a small pocket knife.

Travellers and Tourists
Travelling from place to place be subject to all kinds of Bowel Complaint in account of change of water diet and temperature.

Dr. J. C. Fowler's
Witch-hayberry

is a sure cure for Diarrhea, Dysentery, Colic, Cramps, Pains in the Stomach, Seasickness, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Summer Complaint, and all Fluxes of the Bowels in Children and Adults.
Its effects are marvellous.
It acts like a charm.
Relief is almost instantaneous.

Does not leave the Bowels in a constipated condition.

The New Glasgow quilt team defeated the local team. H. J. Logan, M. P., spent the day in town. He was besieged by office-seekers looking for the position of customs officer. Mr. Logan has just visited the maritime coal mines, Chignecto, in company with William Mitchell and Joseph S. Patrick, two of the stock-holders from Montreal. They expressed themselves as much pleased with the works there.

TRURO. Truro, N. S., July 25.—(Special)—Capt. George Campbell was run over by Folly Village tonight, and was very badly hurt. Isaac Fleming and Seldon O'Brien were driving through the village with two single axles. The latter ran into Campbell, knocked him down and one leg was broken and had cuts in cheek and forehead were sustained, requiring ten stitches. Doctor Freeman attended. Captain Campbell is eighty-two years of age.

A team of Royal Engineers' riflemen from Truro today shot a match with the Halifax today shot a match with the Truro team, being defeated by forty points. Truro made 708; the engineers, 748.

DIGBY. Digby, July 25.—Your correspondent was able to learn some facts about Luella Cosaboon, the girl who was twelve days missing from her home in Dorchester (Mass.). She is a daughter of William Cosaboon, Lakeside, Digby Neck. She has been in the United States about a year. She is nineteen years old.

Marion, the nine-year-old daughter of the Digby Yacht Club, being detailed to this morning and was quite badly injured. Digby, July 27.—A big westerly gale prevailed here today, accompanied by a cold rain. A three-masted schooner is ashore on the south side of the Basin, but it is thought she will be floated at high water. High tides prevailed yesterday. No damage was reported. Sloop yacht Hermes in port from St. John for Yarmouth. The local yachtmen are anxious to arrange a race between the Valde, of the Digby Yacht Club, and the Hermes.

The local lodge of Oddfellows, accompanied by the Digby Cornet Band, marched to the cemetery yesterday and decorated the graves of their departed brethren.

Four Injured in Trolley Accident. Swansea, Mass., July 24.—An electric car of the Providence and Fall River Company was derailed near Sisson's Corner today, and collided with a trolley pole. Four passengers were injured. Charles Mason, of Warren (R. I.), sustained fractured ribs and other injuries; Edward Mason was badly bruised about the legs, and a man named Murphy was severely scratched by contact with a bare wire fence.

Senators Taking a Recess. Ottawa, July 24.—Senators Donville, Thompson, McCreery and Ellis are on their way to New Brunswick. Senator King will leave on Sunday. Senator McDonald, of N. B. Island, has gone home. Mr. Balfour will leave tomorrow for Regina. Judge Ebbott, of Gagetown, is with them.

Was from St. John. Reilly Island, July 26.—The schooner R. D. Spear, Captain Richardson, from St. John (N. B.) for Philadelphia, reports that in a heavy southeast gale on July 18, she lost part of her deckload and damaged her rigging.

A Twenty Pound Baby. Melford, Mass., July 24.—A boy, weighing twenty pounds, was born to Mrs. Frank L. Bowers, of Lancoon street, West Melford, today. Doctors assert that this is a record on this side of the Atlantic. The child did not live, although in all respects normal.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Cures Croup in Two Days
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets
Seven Million boxes sold in past 12 months.
This is the signature of Dr. J. C. Fowler.

1/3 of a cent a glass
a glass
for a delicious first brunching drink of Sovereign
Lime Juice
15 cent bottle contains 144 teaspoonfuls and two of those to a glass of water makes a perfect summer drink. No other luxury is so cheap.
10c, 15c, 25c, 50c bottles.
At all Grocers.
BIMSON BROS. CO., LTD.
HALIFAX, N. S.