

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, Nov. 18.—The Afternoon Bridge Club held its first meet of the season on Monday afternoon with Mrs. Harold Babbitt as Mrs. Alexander Thompson was the prize winner. Miss Elsie Handford, of Halifax, has arrived in Fredericton to spend the winter with Mrs. de Lancey Robinson. Dr. Holden and bride have returned from their wedding journey and are living at the doctor's home in Brunswick street. Miss Gregory entertained at a pleasant bridge party of three tables on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. W. C. Crockett was the prize winner. Mrs. Lawson has returned from a pleasant visit with St. John friends. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Phillips have returned home from a pleasure trip to New York. Mrs. Stephen Whitehead is here, the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. W. T. Whitehead. Mr. Geo. Y. Dibblee, who has been ill for a long time, is now steadily improving. Mrs. D. Lee Babbitt has returned from a short visit to St. John friends. Mrs. John Harvey visited St. John for a few days the past week. Mrs. Donham, of Portland (Me.), and daughter, Mrs. Morton, of Providence (R. I.), are visiting Mrs. Donham's sister, Mrs. P. F. Robinson, Queen street. Mrs. Balmford Bulloch is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Guy Fitz-Randolph, in St. John. Fredericton, Nov. 19.—Ernest Howes, proprietor of Long's Hotel, was convicted of a third offence on the C. T. Act this morning and sentenced to thirty days imprisonment. The weather last night turned quite cold and the river was diminished once. The steamship Hampton is still on her route. The supreme court met this morning and further adjourned until Tuesday. There were no common motions. The body of George J. Colter was taken to Mouth of Keewick this morning and interred in the Methodist cemetery. Rev. Thomas Marshall conducted service. A large number of friends drove from this city in automobiles to attend and there was a big crowd of people from Douglas and Bright.

CHATHAM

Chatham, Nov. 18.—Miss Agnes Plett gave a most delightful musicale last evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Plett, Nelson. She was assisted by Miss Gwen Watters, Miss Lou McCreery, the Misses Babin and the Pears. Proceeds, which amounted to $81, were in aid of the Red Cross Society. The marriage will take place on December 27, in Boston, of Miss Annie Clark, a graduate nurse of Boston, to Mr. Clarence D. Proctor, a graduate of Harvard (1906). Miss Baxter is a daughter of Mrs. Annie L. Baxter, of Fredericton, and has a large number of friends in Chatham, who wish her every happiness for the future. Miss Florence Coleman spent part of last week in Moncton. Miss Katie Lawson, of Toronto, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Lawson, Water street. Privates A. Burdett and P. Daney of the 104th, are spending a few days at their homes here. Laurie Snowball, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Snowball, has enlisted in the heavy battery at Halifax, for overseas service. Mrs. A. W. Watters has returned home from a three weeks visit with friends in St. Stephen, St. John, Sussex and Moncton. Mrs. L. N. Richardson, who has been spending the past two months with her parents, Colonel and Mrs. J. D. B. F. Mackenzie, has returned to her home in Halifax.

MONCTON

Moncton, Nov. 18.—Miss Helen Moriarity has arrived home from Ottawa, where she was spending a few weeks. Mr. Sutton Boyd, editor of the Times, is enjoying a holiday trip to Vancouver. Miss Ethel Henderson, of Bedouque (P. E. I.), is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Norton. Mrs. T. C. Dobson and the Misses Deboise have returned from Wallace (N. S.), where they have been spending the summer. Miss Vera Hooper, of Charlottetown, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jack McBeath. Miss Mabel White, of Sydney, also the guest of Mrs. McBeath. Mrs. F. Gallagher gave a tea on Friday afternoon at her residence in aid of St. Bernard's church. Mrs. Gallagher received the guests and Mrs. Reid McManus and Mrs. E. L. Watts poured tea. They were assisted by Mrs. O'Leary, Mrs. Hamington, Mrs. Benjamin Gallagher, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Frank Hogan and Miss McKeever. Mrs. John O'Neill, assisted by Miss Agnes Hogan attended the door. A large number were present and the affair was most successful. Mrs. H. H. Saunders, of River Glade, spent Friday with Mrs. B. W. Kay. Mrs. C. W. Fawcett, of Sackville, is spending a few days at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chapman. On Friday evening Mrs. Chapman entertained a few friends at bridge in honor of her daughter. The guests included Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. C. B. Brown, Mrs. C. W. Robinson, Mrs. C. A. Brown, Mrs. Roy Sumner, Mrs. D. H. Williams and Mrs. A. Wetmore, of St. John. Mrs. O. Arnold Burnham and little son are the guests of Mrs. Burnham's sister, Mrs. H. B. Meynell. Mrs. J. H. Brown held her first reception since her marriage on Friday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the event. In the drawing room yellow chrysanthemums and ferns were used, while in the hall and tea room many chrysanthemums were seen in abundance. Mrs. Brown wore her wedding gown of ivory satin, with Carick-ma-caun lace trimmings, and was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. John Crawford, of Pictou, and Miss Margaret Joyce. Mrs. Grahan wore black satin with trimmings of black and white, and Miss Joyce, pale pink taffeta. Mrs. James Brown presided in the tea room, while Mrs. A. McClelland, of Pictou, and Mrs. W. L. Wilson served. Miss Kathleen Brown ushered and little Miss Margaret Gillespie attended the door. The harvest supper given by the Willing Helpers in the basement of the First Baptist church on Friday night proved to be a most enjoyable and successful affair. There were five tables artistically decorated with poinsettias, ferns and red candles. Those in charge of the dinner table were Mrs. G. G. Spencer and Mrs. Byron Graddon, Mrs. W. Grandall and Mrs. Albert Lutz, Mrs. C. H. Gros and Mrs. W. K. Gross, Mrs. D. B. Scott and Mrs. Pincus, Mrs. B. A. Taylor and Mrs. F. E. Burden. The fancy booth was in charge of Mrs. Mullins and Miss Ella McKay. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Devanah have gone to Campbellton, where they will reside in future. Mrs. W. E. Murray and Mrs. E. McClelland, of Richibucto, spent the week-end with friends in the city. Mrs. A. W. Watters, of Chatham, spent part of the week with friends in the city. Mrs. E. Borsionneault, of Bathurst, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jessulate. Mrs. S. D. Nixon is in Campbellton visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. T. Swift. Miss Florence Coleman, of Chatham, is visiting friends in the city. Mrs. John Storey and Mrs. Newton Coy have gone to Havelock to spend a few weeks with Mrs. Storey's daughter, Mrs. W. S. Ryder. Miss McLean, of Amherst, is the guest of friends in the city. Mrs. John Nesbitt, of North Sydney, is spending a few days with his niece, Mrs. W. C. Knight. Mr. W. S. Rogers has returned to his home in New York, after a pleasant visit with his brother, Mr. J. H. Rogers. Mr. J. D. Creaghan, of Newcastle, spent Friday in the city. Miss Annie Dobson, of Dorchester is the guest of friends in the city. Miss Maud Dunlop has returned to her home in Campbellton, after spending a week with relatives in the city. Mrs. Alec MacDougal is in Ottawa, the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Wurtelle. Rev. S. S. Crisp, of St. John, spent the week-end in the city, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. F. G. Williams. Mrs. Crisp took both services at Wesley Memorial church, which was celebrating its twenty-fourth anniversary, and was welcomed by large congregations. Miss Mabel Corcoran, of Dorchester, is the guest of her brother, Mr. T. H. Corcoran. Miss Nan Chapman has returned from Sackville, where she was spending a fortnight with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Fawcett. Miss Muriel Taylor spent the week-end at her home in Sackville. Miss Edith Haley has gone to Edmundston (N. B.), to visit her sister, Mrs. N. Legere. Mrs. George McSweeney spent the week-end with friends at Summerside (P. E. I.). Miss Nell McAnally, of Middle Sackville, spent the week-end with friends in the city. Mrs. G. C. Torrens has returned from St. John, where she was visiting friends for a week. Mr. E. F. Schaeffer, of the Royal Bank of Canada at Montreal, is spending his vacation with friends in the city. Miss Irma Brown spent the week-end at her home in Sackville. Mrs. O. Callan has returned to her home in Sackville, after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. F. A. McCully. Mr. and Mrs. M. Mitchell are spending a few days with relatives at Sackville. Mr. Fred W. Robertson is enjoying a holiday in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rice, spent the week-end in Petticoat, the guests of Mrs. A. E. Filagrad and Mrs. Fitzpatrick spent the week-end with friends at St. John. Mrs. E. M. Archibald has gone to New York to spend the winter. Mr. Archibald will join his wife in a month. Miss M. F. Fitzgerald, of Toronto. Miss Sybil Mills is visiting friends in Moncton. Miss Nina Coggon gave a handkerchief shower Monday evening in honor of Miss Vera Jones, who is soon to be married to Sergeant George Calhoun, of the 104th. Mrs. Ralph Robertson entertained very pleasantly at bridge Tuesday afternoon, two tables. Mrs. Gunning of Halifax, wife of Lieutenant Colonel Gunning, is here with her husband. Mrs. Percy Rising, St. John, and Mrs. Boggs, Halifax, are here with their husbands, who are officers in the 104th. Dr. J. McFadden and Mrs. Freese arrived last night from the west. Dr. Freese is to be the medical officer for the 104th. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fairweather and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keith were among the visitors from here to St. John last week. Mrs. Keith is in Halifax, and Mrs. Fairweather is in Moncton. Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hay on the arrival of a son, born Nov. 17. The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold their annual turkey supper Thursday, December 2, from 5 to 8 o'clock. Lieutenant A. J. Brooks, of the 104th is in Halifax, qualifying for a captaincy. The engagement of Miss Idella Robinson to Miss G. G. Beasley, of the 104th, is being celebrated in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roach have returned from a pleasant trip with friends in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitten, of Portland, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Venning.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Nov. 18.—Governor Wood left on Monday for Halifax to attend the funeral of the late Sir Charles Tupper. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Murphy, of Cape Tormentine, spent the week-end in town, guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fawcett. Miss Clara Ferguson, who has been the guest for two weeks of the Misses Henderson, returned on Saturday to her home in Amherst. Mrs. Charles H. Johnson, of Wentworth, N. S., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Paisley, York street. Rev. Dr. Johnson, B.A., who spent a few days in town, left for his home on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Ford have arrived from an extended trip through western Canada and the United States. They spent some time in Vancouver, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryan and attended the big fair in San Francisco. Mrs. Robert Patterson, of Richibucto, has returned to the city to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. George Henderson. Miss Mary Wilson, who has been visiting friends in the city for several weeks, has returned to her home in Campbellton. Mrs. Annie Beatty, who has been visiting friends in the city, has returned to her home in Hillsboro. The sale and tea held in Castle hall on Wednesday afternoon and evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Bible class of Central Methodist church was a most successful and enjoyable affair. The fancy table was presided over by Mrs. W. A. Humphrey and Miss Kate Storn. Mrs. W. E. Sheppard poured tea and the following young ladies served: The Misses Dorcas Bingham, Nellie Woods, Myrtle Allanach, Curven, Mary McNaughton, Helen Moore, Minnie Tombs, Hazel Hoar, Olga Berg, Vera Cosman, George Ryan, Helen Matthews, Mabel Matthews, Maria Weldon, Ida McKay, Beale Mallock, Pearl Cosman, Lizzie Bingham, A. Wilcox and Mrs. Leslie Trowsdale and Mrs. R. P. Ripley. The candy table was in charge of Miss Bertie Ripley and Miss Jennie Scott. Mrs. J. S. Tritts, of Sussex, is spending a week with relatives in the city. The Misses Lena Reid and Mildred Murray, of Albert, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Scott. Miss Barrett has returned to her home in Harcourt after spending a few days in the city, the guest of Mrs. W. N. Ingram. Miss Joudry and Miss Mabel Keita, of Campbellton, are visiting friends in the city. Mrs. E. S. Williams, of Shediac, spent part of the week in the city. Mrs. Charles Smith, of Campbellton, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Alex. Price. Mr. Blair Beaumont is in Campbellton, the guest of his aunt, Miss Bessie Harshman. Dr. A. R. Myers is spending a week in Moncton. Mrs. M. J. Weldon has returned from Halifax, where she was spending a week with relatives. Mrs. Miles Akerley, of West River, Albert county, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ansley McFarlane. Mr. and Mrs. Wendall McCreedy are leaving for Halifax, and are leaving shortly for Ottawa to spend the winter. Miss Emily Oulton and Miss Bessie Magee have returned from Jogging Mines where they were the guests of Miss Helen Hultman. Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Power and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delahunt spent the week-end in Amherst, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Delahunt.

SUSSEX

Sussex, N. B., Nov. 18.—The officers of the 104th Battalion very pleasantly entertained at a dance, which was held at the staff headquarters Thursday evening. Mrs. George L. Wetmore has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in St. John. Mr. and Mrs. Wendall McCreedy are leaving for Halifax, and are leaving shortly for Ottawa to spend the winter. Miss Emily Oulton and Miss Bessie Magee have returned from Jogging Mines where they were the guests of Miss Helen Hultman. Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Power and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delahunt spent the week-end in Amherst, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Delahunt.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Nov. 17.—Dr. George B. Ryan, of Paris, France, who has been spending the past summer with his family here, left for New York on Tuesday last, sailing on the steamer Lafayette for Bordeaux, on Saturday. Owing to war conditions, Mrs. Ryan and children will remain here during the winter. The guests of Mrs. Ryan's father, Mr. Hiram Palmer. Mr. Frank L. Harrison, of St. John, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. B. H. Thomas. Mr. Charles S. Hickman left on Tuesday for Montreal, where he expects to remain for a few weeks. Mrs. A. V. Smith and daughter, Miss Rae Smith, left on Monday for Halifax, where they will be the guests of relatives for a few weeks. Judge Landry, who has been spending several days at his home here, left on Monday for St. John. Mr. Philip Palmer, D.L.S., who spent the past two weeks with his family here, left on Monday for Ottawa, where he expects to remain during the winter. Mrs. Palmer and little daughter expect to join him later. Mrs. G. B. Papineau spent a day last week in Amherst. She was accompanied home by her father, Mr. A. L. Chambers, who has been ill in the Amherst hospital. Mr. Chambers' friends will be pleased to hear that he is much improved. Mrs. and Mrs. R. D. Dooc are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby daughter on Sunday last. Master Ronald Hutchinson, of Truro (N. S.), was the guest last week of his aunt, Mrs. Lorne Sears. Messrs. Adair and Fred. Richard, students at St. Joseph's College, spent the week-end the guests of their parents, Hon. and Mrs. A. D. Richard. Miss Vera Lamb, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Oudrey. The Senior Red Cross Society, have placed a beautiful doll, about two feet high, and beautifully dressed, in the window of Pezzant & Card Co., Ltd. Tickets are being sold at ten cents. The doll will take place before Christmas. If you haven't already bought your ticket do so to help the good cause. Mrs. J. W. Cameron, of Advocate (N. S.), spent several days in town this week, attending to the business affairs of his son, the late Dr. W. A. Cameron. Mr. John McDonald's many friends are pleased to see him out again after his recent serious illness. Mr. McDonald returned from the Moncton hospital on Saturday and leaves this week for Antigonish (N. S.), having been granted six weeks leave of absence from the Maritime Penitentiary, of which he is a member of the staff. Mrs. Jack Shea's many friends are pleased to see him out again after his recent illness. Miss Elsie Towns, who has been attending the children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friel for the past number of weeks, left on Friday last for her home in Amherst. The Misses Friel's many friends are pleased to see them out again. Mrs. E. G. McAuley, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Lamb, in Amherst, left for St. John on Monday. Mr. Ralph Black, son of Mr. Venning Black, has enlisted for overseas duty. Private Raymond Cormier, of the 87th Battalion, who has been at his home here for the past week, has returned to Valcartier. Dr. Courtenay Allen, of Bayfield (N. B.), arrived in town this week. Dr. Allen will succeed the late W. A. Cameron, M.D. Sheriff Willett and Judge Hewson attended the funeral of the late Sir Charles Tupper in Halifax on Tuesday. Mrs. George Bishop and Mrs. Aubrey Bishop, of Amherst, were in town for a few days this week. Mrs. Bishop will spend the winter with her son, Mr. Aubrey Bishop and Mrs. Bishop in Amherst. The following extracts taken from a

BATHURST

Bathurst, Nov. 18.—Miss Mayme Carter has returned from Montreal, where she spent a pleasant vacation with her sisters, Mrs. James Bailey Ross and Miss Carter of that city. Miss Elsie Habert has returned from a visit to friends in Newcastle. Mrs. F. H. Mercereau returned on Friday to her home in Dooktown, after a visit to Mrs. Walter Stapleton. Mrs. Hugh Kent, who was with such a painful accident last week and as a consequence was taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, is doing as well as can be expected, and will, it is hoped, have the use of her arm, which was so badly broken. Mr. T. Clay White has returned from a short visit to St. John, where he enlisted with the 104th Battalion, and will go shortly to Sussex. Clay is one of our most popular boys and has hosts of friends who will join in commending his loyalty. Mrs. A. J. Ledingham, accompanied by her little daughter, Jean, after a visit to her mother, Mrs. E. Hubert, has returned to St. John, where she will stay for a short time before returning to her home in Summerside (P. E. I.). Mrs. S. V. Merritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Edwin Carter, has returned to her home in St. John, having been called on account of the serious illness of her little brother, Purdy. Dr. R. G. Duncan, who was in Montreal assisting at an operation at the Royal Victoria Hospital, returned on Saturday. Mrs. Paul Doyle, of Jacquet River, was last week, a guest of Mrs. Michael Power. Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kane on the death of their invalid daughter, Dorothy, which occurred on Wednesday last. Mr. O. V. Melanson after a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Melanson, has returned to Kamloops (B. C.). Mrs. Mary McCreedy, who has been spending the past summer with her family here, left for New York on Tuesday last, sailing on the steamer Lafayette for Bordeaux, on Saturday. Owing to war conditions, Mrs. Ryan and children will remain here during the winter. The guests of Mrs. Ryan's father, Mr. Hiram Palmer. Mr. Frank L. Harrison, of St. John, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. B. H. Thomas. Mr. Charles S. Hickman left on Tuesday for Montreal, where he expects to remain for a few weeks. Mrs. A. V. Smith and daughter, Miss Rae Smith, left on Monday for Halifax, where they will be the guests of relatives for a few weeks. Judge Landry, who has been spending several days at his home here, left on Monday for St. John. Mr. Philip Palmer, D.L.S., who spent the past two weeks with his family here, left on Monday for Ottawa, where he expects to remain during the winter. Mrs. Palmer and little daughter expect to join him later. Mrs. G. B. Papineau spent a day last week in Amherst. She was accompanied home by her father, Mr. A. L. Chambers, who has been ill in the Amherst hospital. Mr. Chambers' friends will be pleased to hear that he is much improved. Mrs. and Mrs. R. D. Dooc are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby daughter on Sunday last. Master Ronald Hutchinson, of Truro (N. S.), was the guest last week of his aunt, Mrs. Lorne Sears. Messrs. Adair and Fred. Richard, students at St. Joseph's College, spent the week-end the guests of their parents, Hon. and Mrs. A. D. Richard. Miss Vera Lamb, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Oudrey. The Senior Red Cross Society, have placed a beautiful doll, about two feet high, and beautifully dressed, in the window of Pezzant & Card Co., Ltd. Tickets are being sold at ten cents. The doll will take place before Christmas. If you haven't already bought your ticket do so to help the good cause. Mrs. J. W. Cameron, of Advocate (N. S.), spent several days in town this week, attending to the business affairs of his son, the late Dr. W. A. Cameron. Mr. John McDonald's many friends are pleased to see him out again after his recent serious illness. Mr. McDonald returned from the Moncton hospital on Saturday and leaves this week for Antigonish (N. S.), having been granted six weeks leave of absence from the Maritime Penitentiary, of which he is a member of the staff. Mrs. Jack Shea's many friends are pleased to see him out again after his recent illness. Miss Elsie Towns, who has been attending the children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friel for the past number of weeks, left on Friday last for her home in Amherst. The Misses Friel's many friends are pleased to see them out again. Mrs. E. G. McAuley, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Lamb, in Amherst, left for St. John on Monday. Mr. Ralph Black, son of Mr. Venning Black, has enlisted for overseas duty. Private Raymond Cormier, of the 87th Battalion, who has been at his home here for the past week, has returned to Valcartier. Dr. Courtenay Allen, of Bayfield (N. B.), arrived in town this week. Dr. Allen will succeed the late W. A. Cameron, M.D. Sheriff Willett and Judge Hewson attended the funeral of the late Sir Charles Tupper in Halifax on Tuesday. Mrs. George Bishop and Mrs. Aubrey Bishop, of Amherst, were in town for a few days this week. Mrs. Bishop will spend the winter with her son, Mr. Aubrey Bishop and Mrs. Bishop in Amherst. The following extracts taken from a

BATHURST

Bathurst, Nov. 18.—Miss Mayme Carter has returned from Montreal, where she spent a pleasant vacation with her sisters, Mrs. James Bailey Ross and Miss Carter of that city. Miss Elsie Habert has returned from a visit to friends in Newcastle. Mrs. F. H. Mercereau returned on Friday to her home in Dooktown, after a visit to Mrs. Walter Stapleton. Mrs. Hugh Kent, who was with such a painful accident last week and as a consequence was taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, is doing as well as can be expected, and will, it is hoped, have the use of her arm, which was so badly broken. Mr. T. Clay White has returned from a short visit to St. John, where he enlisted with the 104th Battalion, and will go shortly to Sussex. Clay is one of our most popular boys and has hosts of friends who will join in commending his loyalty. Mrs. A. J. Ledingham, accompanied by her little daughter, Jean, after a visit to her mother, Mrs. E. Hubert, has returned to St. John, where she will stay for a short time before returning to her home in Summerside (P. E. I.). Mrs. S. V. Merritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Edwin Carter, has returned to her home in St. John, having been called on account of the serious illness of her little brother, Purdy. Dr. R. G. Duncan, who was in Montreal assisting at an operation at the Royal Victoria Hospital, returned on Saturday. Mrs. Paul Doyle, of Jacquet River, was last week, a guest of Mrs. Michael Power. Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kane on the death of their invalid daughter, Dorothy, which occurred on Wednesday last. Mr. O. V. Melanson after a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Melanson, has returned to Kamloops (B. C.). Mrs. Mary McCreedy, who has been spending the past summer with her family here, left for New York on Tuesday last, sailing on the steamer Lafayette for Bordeaux, on Saturday. Owing to war conditions, Mrs. Ryan and children will remain here during the winter. The guests of Mrs. Ryan's father, Mr. Hiram Palmer. Mr. Frank L. Harrison, of St. John, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. B. H. Thomas. Mr. Charles S. Hickman left on Tuesday for Montreal, where he expects to remain for a few weeks. Mrs. A. V. Smith and daughter, Miss Rae Smith, left on Monday for Halifax, where they will be the guests of relatives for a few weeks. Judge Landry, who has been spending several days at his home here, left on Monday for St. John. Mr. Philip Palmer, D.L.S., who spent the past two weeks with his family here, left on Monday for Ottawa, where he expects to remain during the winter. Mrs. Palmer and little daughter expect to join him later. Mrs. G. B. Papineau spent a day last week in Amherst. She was accompanied home by her father, Mr. A. L. Chambers, who has been ill in the Amherst hospital. Mr. Chambers' friends will be pleased to hear that he is much improved. Mrs. and Mrs. R. D. Dooc are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby daughter on Sunday last. Master Ronald Hutchinson, of Truro (N. S.), was the guest last week of his aunt, Mrs. Lorne Sears. Messrs. Adair and Fred. Richard, students at St. Joseph's College, spent the week-end the guests of their parents, Hon. and Mrs. A. D. Richard. Miss Vera Lamb, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Oudrey. The Senior Red Cross Society, have placed a beautiful doll, about two feet high, and beautifully dressed, in the window of Pezzant & Card Co., Ltd. Tickets are being sold at ten cents. The doll will take place before Christmas. If you haven't already bought your ticket do so to help the good cause. Mrs. J. W. Cameron, of Advocate (N. S.), spent several days in town this week, attending to the business affairs of his son, the late Dr. W. A. Cameron. Mr. John McDonald's many friends are pleased to see him out again after his recent serious illness. Mr. McDonald returned from the Moncton hospital on Saturday and leaves this week for Antigonish (N. S.), having been granted six weeks leave of absence from the Maritime Penitentiary, of which he is a member of the staff. Mrs. Jack Shea's many friends are pleased to see him out again after his recent illness. Miss Elsie Towns, who has been attending the children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friel for the past number of weeks, left on Friday last for her home in Amherst. The Misses Friel's many friends are pleased to see them out again. Mrs. E. G. McAuley, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Lamb, in Amherst, left for St. John on Monday. Mr. Ralph Black, son of Mr. Venning Black, has enlisted for overseas duty. Private Raymond Cormier, of the 87th Battalion, who has been at his home here for the past week, has returned to Valcartier. Dr. Courtenay Allen, of Bayfield (N. B.), arrived in town this week. Dr. Allen will succeed the late W. A. Cameron, M.D. Sheriff Willett and Judge Hewson attended the funeral of the late Sir Charles Tupper in Halifax on Tuesday. Mrs. George Bishop and Mrs. Aubrey Bishop, of Amherst, were in town for a few days this week. Mrs. Bishop will spend the winter with her son, Mr. Aubrey Bishop and Mrs. Bishop in Amherst. The following extracts taken from a

SHEDIAC

Shediac, Nov. 17.—Mrs. J. Wortman was the guest this week for a few days of relatives in St. John. Mrs. J. W. Black has returned to her home in Sackville after spending a fortnight at Point du Chevre, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Chastler. Mrs. Saunders left on Saturday last for Hamilton (Ont.), where she will remain for the coming two months with relatives. Mrs. Baxter, of St. John, is visiting in Shediac, guest of Mrs. Robert Jardine and Mrs. Jardine. Miss Evageline Melanson recently returned from a pleasant few weeks spent with friends in Montreal and Quebec. Mrs. W. A. Flors, of St. John, was the guest of Mrs. F. Belliva, who returned over Sunday, called to his former home in that city by the illness of his father. Mrs. D. S. Harper left on Wednesday of this week for St. John to remain for some little time with her son, Mr. D. W. Harper, and Mrs. Harper. Miss Beatrice Shannon, of Moncton, has been visiting in town, the guest of the Misses Weldon. Miss Avaré White has returned to Carleton Place (P. E. I.), after a pleasant little visit in Shediac at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White. Shediac friends sympathize with Mrs. James Scott in the loss which she has just sustained in the death of her sister, Mrs. Griffin, of Boston. Mrs. Griffin, formerly Miss Annie Wry of this town, had resided for some years past in Massachusetts. During the past summer she had been ill owing to heart disease, and last week passed away at her residence in Boston. Two small children survive, her husband having died a year ago. Mrs. F. Ingile and children are spending some time at Mrs. S. G. Chastler's home in Summerside (P. E. I.). The fortnightly tea and home cooking sale in Tipperary on Saturday last proved very successful. Mrs. E. A. Smith and Mrs. F. Belliva were the ladies in charge of the home cooking department being presided over by Mrs. Charles Robert and Mrs. E. Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. McDougall after spending the summer months in town, returned recently to Moncton. Mrs. E. R. McDonald has returned from a visit to relatives in St. John.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Nov. 17.—Mrs. W. R. Cummings, of Montreal, arrived in town on Sunday, being called home by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. W. G. Bell. Dr. Creaghan and daughter, Miss Clare, have returned from a visit to Valcartier and Montreal. Miss Burgess, of Ottawa, is visiting Mrs. Walter Amy, and Mrs. Amy's friends regret to learn that her visitor is confined to the house with an attack of grippe. Misses Parker are guests of Mrs. E. H. Sinclair this week. Miss Pinnie Ingram left last week on a month's visit to friends in Boston and Dorchester (Mass.). Mrs. W. McCurdy, of Redbank, was the guest of Mrs. William Sinclair last Sunday. Mrs. Harry McEas, the popular teller in the Bank of Nova Scotia, here, has been transferred to Dalhousie, and left on Monday to take up his duties there. Mr. W. Bddy, of Dalhousie, has arrived in town, and will take the accountant's position, lately held by C. F. Hibbard,

ST. ANDREWS

St. Andrews, Nov. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Odell have returned from a pleasant trip to St. John. Miss Edith Hewitt is visiting friends in St. Stephen. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stickey have closed their residence and will spend the winter at Kennedy's Hotel. Mr. Arthur McLeod, and his son, Douglas, of Cuba, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Handy. Rev. Mr. Amos has returned to Bathurst (N. B.). Mrs. E. B. Coadley is in St. Stephen last Wednesday. Mr. G. D. Grimmer returned from a trip to Eastport and Campbellton on Thursday. Rev. R. W. Weddall, pastor of the Methodist church, is spending a few days at Grand Mann. Mrs. Stephen Mitchell returned to Weymouth on Thursday, after a pleasant visit with friends in St. Andrews. Rev. W. S. Tedford and family have gone to Andover, where Mrs. Tedford will spend the winter. Mr. Tedford expects to resume his missionary work in India. Miss Annie O'Neill has returned from a trip to Boston and New York. Miss Ruth McGibbon went back to Woodstock on Saturday, after a pleasant visit with her friend, Miss Marie Dore. Mrs. G. Smith, who has been the guest of Mrs. Tol, has returned to Deer Island. Mrs. G. H. Elliott entertained a few friends on Thursday evening. Mr. Harry Burton, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Fredericton, was in town on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rigby received Mrs. G. D. Grimmer on their return, Sergeant Oscar Rigby, of the 29th Battalion, had been wounded. Miss Anna Mitchell, of Campbellton, is a guest at the "Rectory". Mrs. Henry Maxwell's many friends regret to learn that she met with a painful accident by falling and breaking her collarbone. Rev. G. H. Elliott, rector of All Saints' church, returned from Boston on Tuesday. Mrs. Geo. Smith entertained on Tuesday evening, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Maria Burton.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Nov. 17.—Mr. C. Cain, of Florenceville, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. L. urday. Mr. Ray Mallory, of P. O. is the guest of his parents, Mrs. George Mallory, who has spent the winter in St. John. Mr. Tedford expects to resume his missionary work in India. Miss Annie O'Neill has returned from a trip to Boston and New York. Miss Ruth McGibbon went back to Woodstock on Saturday, after a pleasant visit with her friend, Miss Marie Dore. Mrs. G. Smith, who has been the guest of Mrs. Tol, has returned to Deer Island. Mrs. G. H. Elliott entertained a few friends on Thursday evening. Mr. Harry Burton, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Fredericton, was in town on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rigby received Mrs. G. D. Grimmer on their return, Sergeant Oscar Rigby, of the 29th Battalion, had been wounded. Miss Anna Mitchell, of Campbellton, is a guest at the "Rectory". Mrs. Henry Maxwell's many friends regret to learn that she met with a painful accident by falling and breaking her collarbone. Rev. G. H. Elliott, rector of All Saints' church, returned from Boston on Tuesday. Mrs. Geo. Smith entertained on Tuesday evening, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Maria Burton.