JOE BOGAN-IN MEMORIAM. It was a darksome windy night,
And rain and sleet came tearing down,
When from the outskirts of the town.
Joe Bogan came home *stiff and tight. A shocking hat smiled on his head, And several tears lay on his cheek: In vain he, muttering, tried to speak, But speech from him long since had fied. His coat lay mildly on his back;
His boots were to whides rudely made;
The men who found him gently laid
Him on a spike, then called a hack. They waltzed him up a flight of stairs, Then hastened to the IPharmacy. And there they purchased seenna-tea. And left him to his own affairs.

The morning dawned, and with the sun Joe Bogan tried in vain to rise: His wife prepared a sweet surprise, And shot him with a wooden gun. She banged him on the head and nose, Until a stream of claret flowed; And with a broom his hair she mowed, And put a cora between his toes. With grief poor Bogan that night died:
He drinks no more pale brandy cold,
Nor takes delight in whiskey old,
But in a hearse he took a ride. MORAL.

Pray do not heed this warning late:
Task thee, lend to it an ear:
Give drinking up, renounce thy beer,
Else on a bier will be thy fate. TENNYSON

NOTES. *He was drunk.
