MANUFACTURERS OF THE MISPECK MILLS, - - St. John, N. B. ALL WOOL GOODS, viz: BEAVY and LIGHT GREY CLOTH ; HEAVY GREY and SCARLET FLANNEL ; MISPECK TWEED. Heavy Grey Blankets. ALSO: FIRST CLASS COTTON WARPS. ods are all of SUPERIOR QUALITY, manufactured from the ery best materials, and warranted to give satisfaction. J.L. WOODWORTH, Agent. sep 11-lyd&w LARRIGANS, &c. On Hand-1000 Pairs No. 1 Larrigans, 250 "No. 2 do 150 doz. Prime Country Socks, 100 "Fair do do 850 " the do Mitts, 100 "Fair do do 250 " " do Mitts, 100 Lined and Srapped Horse Blankets, 200 Pair Homespun Pants, 100 Homespun Jumpers, 120 dozen Homespun Shirts, REEFERS. OVER COATS, HOOD COATS, HATS, CAPS, PANTS & VESTS, With a large variety of Goods suitable for the Woods, AT THE LOWEST LIVING PRICES EVERITT & BUTLER, Wholesale Warerooms. 55 and 57 King Street. BUY YOUR The Paily Tribune. Sewing Machines J. L. STEWART,..... EDITOR SATTRDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1872. SO FROM THE MANUFACTURES. The Railway Blockade. The Board of Trade, individual mer ants, and the newspapers of St. John, And Save Twenty Per Cent. have called the attention of the Board of

who called was requested to explain the Burning of Barnum's Hippo- just made public in England is as foldrome. points in dispute. He was asked : lows. "What do you say to the denial that From a long account of the destruction After describing the building of the Ark blood money is exacted for every sail- of Barnum's museum in New York last Izdubar says :

or shipped?" Tuesday we extract the following : THE SCENE FROM GEN. FUNCK'S HOTEL. "The denial is untrue. The blood-

In fact, they resent the independent ac-tion of either sailor or owner as an in-fringement upon their rights. A ves-sel comes from Boston to load, her crew go to a boarding house, stay there three or four days, and the captain is forced to pay the boarding master a month's advance and $5 extra for each man before he can get them on board again. I can give you the names and dates if necessary. When Mr. Kerr wrote theletter addressed toyou, he had not been informed of the cases of the vessels James Riley, Thetis, and Hattle H., all of them fresh. Why, the mate of the Ida E. left that vessel and shipped on the Syrings and the boarding house masters made the owners of the Syrings.

Ida E left that vessel and shipped on the Syringa and the boarding house masters made the owners of the Syringa pay blood-money on his account before they would supply the men required to complete her complement. Possible?

they would supply the men required to complete her complement. Possible? Yer, sir, it is possible; similar instances are by no means rare." "What is meant by the difficulty and fatigue of getting and receiving sea-men, mentioned in the letter you say was written by Mr. Kerr, and why do boarding masters remain with men 'up guently at or near Partridge Is-guently at or near Partridge Is-ment of the mount in derushed it to death." THE ACT OF ESCAPING an eruf fail mean it and grushed it to death." The mount in of Nizir the and the mount in of Nizir the same. The bird day and the fourth day and the mount in of Nizir the same. The bird day and the fourth day and the mount in of Nizir the same. The bird day and the fourth day and the mount in of Nizir the same. The bird day and the fourth day and the wole of mean the supple to the same the supple the same the same the first day and the fourth day and the mount in of Nizir the same. The bird day and the fourth day and the wole of mean bird to day. The same the first day and the fourth day. The same the first day and the fourth day. The high Spanish comb is much in fa-to sing largette and darts for the sing the same the first day and the fourth day. The here was here and same same the same the first day and the fourth day. The back hair is completed to have walked from Same to pieces. So there are men in society who carry out all its laws and abide by its "I caused to go up into the ship all my male and female servants, the beasts of the field, the animals of the field, and the sons decisions, not because they love them, but "The denial is untrue. The blood-money has been paid by us for every man we have shipped for months, no matter whether men were scarce or not, the only difference being that some-times they have had to steal the men, or sit up with them nights to prevent their being stolen, and demanded $10 or $15 each for them instead of $5." "Then you had to pay $5 whether men were scarce or not?" "We have had to pay $5 illegally for every man got from one of the houses of this association, and have generally had to pay that amount for every man got outside, as these boarding-house keepers assume that no man should sign articles without their approval,— in fact, they resent the independent ac-tion of either sailor or owner as an incause they must obey them or suffer for Found, For Sale, or To LET, see Auction it. They are going as near to the edge as column. they dare, though. They consider themselves moral, simply because they have never broken out. 'We are moral mem-bers of society,' they say with pride. Yes; the form is there, but there is no life. If not to steal is a sign of honesty, then a stone is as moral as they are." Men were sent into the world, the preacher said, to build a kingdom, to es shadsoul, for a magnificent end and aim. Mere outside morality was not to be despised, however, It was the same to religion as hother to how the same to religion as however, it was the same to reingion as clothes to human virtue, necessary but subordinate. Men used law as a ring within which to indulge their vicious tastes. They did the thing the law con-demned under cover of law. They were the reaching lig morel only. They were the technically moral only. They were the shell and the husk, but not the kernel and Gents' Cardigan Jackets the meat. They saw such around every day-men, moral outside, and yet so rot-ten within that nobody would wish to live with them-men whom no good man could with them-men whom no good man could honor while living, or mourn for when dead Mr. Beecher said he knew some Salmon and Trout Twinemen, moral, yet avaricious, coveting, grasp-ing at everything; moral, yet so corroded To Boot and Shoe Dealerswith stinginess and meanness as to be honest only by compulsion. No man honest only by compulsion. No man could enter into the kingdom of heaven Public Noticewho was only technically moral. FASHION TALK. Lease-Public Auction-COLFFURES. The latest styles of coiffures are all worn

Mr. John Frost is still in the city and quite high, the hair being brought up to the crown of the head and then arranged the specimens of his decorative art as in a profuseness of puffs, braids and ring- shown in a number of shop windows have lets. Two long curls or braids are still worn by those who do not like the barren effect of the neck and head when all the hair is dressed up high. The deep ruff which is now so popular has been introduced to obviate this ' long drawn out' detect. The high Spanish comb is much in fa-vor; also jeweled aigrettes and darts for ornament. For evening flowers are worn. elicited much admiration. The St. Croix Courier laments a demor-The dissolving views of the St. John S. S. Union are to be exhibited for the Saint rying out every day? No; he hates the whole thing, and would like to kick it all

do

LOCALS

For advertisements of WANTED, LOFF.

New Advertisements.

Advertisers must send in their favora

The Haywards Masters & Patterson

TH Rand

J D Lawlor

D Magee & Co

Everitt & Butler

James L. Robinson

do

Uriah Drake

E. McLeod

L C Ansley

do

do Lewis Carveii

before 12 o'clock noon, in order to insure

AUCTIONS.

Brevities.

For a list of Agents for the sale

DAILY TRIBUNE see first page.

their appearance in this list.

to comb it high-at the back and sides over He is stated a frizette, and form the ends into broad loops resembling the figure eight upon the top of the head. A fancy jet comb forms a diadem. A more elaborate wolffure of the same style has a double eight on the top of the head, and two long braids or curls falling in the neteck. The front hair is crope, and combed back. Short curls are worn upon the forehead, and also the short hair back of the neck is curled. A chignon of this style is form ed of two long loops of hair arranged for the crown of the head, and a long loose ourl which falls to the waist. THES. FTC. TIES. ETC. The Parlor Entertainment. The new holiday ties are made of velvet, either black, green, blue or plum color, and lined with bright or pale tinted silks. The Haywards make their first appear? ance at the Mechanics' Institute on Tues These are very elegant. Bows made to match the tie are now also in the bair. Uravats of light colored orapes are lined with satin of a contrasting color, as maize orape lined with blue, green with flesh day evening next. The St. Peter's Hall Festival. The attendance at the festival at S Peter's Hall, Portland, last evening, was Wide black velvet ribbons attached to a fully as large as on the opening night. Wide black velvet ribbons attached to a medallion are worn around the throat. These ribbons are sometimes embroidered with small devices in gilt or silver, and sometimes threaded with pearls. The high qularates are now most in vogue, these being of lace or embroidered Swiss. They are finished in front with the lace jabot or tasteful tie. Among the new est styles of parures may be mentioned the Recamier, L'Elegant, and the Cavalier col-lar of velvet. Besides these we have for open dresses Louis XIII, and Richelieu chemisettes, and Pompadour cravats. Beautiful Roman scarfs, with fringed ends, are worn for cravats. Beautiful Koman scaris, with Iringed ends, are worn for cravats. Many corsages are made open in front to the waist with velvet revers, and display-ing elegant chemisettes of Valenciennes lace. These are finished with a laceruff at the neck and bows of ribbon. of this city, from the Commissioner of Cusvalorem duty.

	11114 112 1220	and the second second	and the property of the	Laster and	treater
	.1 81 .10d	mous (10 que	h alths out het	19 1408	day, a
20.00	SFW	ING	MACH	INFS	accour
01110	J Hymneso				have a
1020050		C. March J. March			A VIEL CHAN

Where you can get them Repaired.

Machines Sold by Weekly Investments

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED OR MONEY act the business of the road in summer

Parties desirous of purchasing can be t J. D. LAWLOR,

MANCFACTURER OF

The Singer Family, Singer powerful engines, practicable snow-Manufac turing, J. P. Howe and Lawlor

FAMILY SEWING MACHINES,

89. KING STREET. All kinds of Sewing Machine dec 28 epaired and Improved.

BARNES & CO.,

Printers. Booksellers, Stationers

BLANK BOOK MANUFACTURERS.

nov 21 ly

nov 21 1y

Bindery, and are enabled to execute BINDING BARNES & CO., 58 Prince Wm. street

MOORE'S ment, was amalgamated with the al-Sign Painting

most unequipped Intercolonial, and the result is just what everybody this side ESTABLISHMENT, of Ottawa knew it would be. 47 Germain Street.

The Blood-Money Exposure.

dec 5 The revelation concerning the manner in which the Lower Cove Boarding WILLIAM DUNLOP, House Association was ruling this port, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN made in the columns of THE TRIBUNE the other day, has caused considerable Flour. Groceries & Liquors. excitement and awakened much latent indignation. Merchants who have No. 40 CHARLOTTE STREET. silently suffered under the exactions of ST. JOHN. N. B. the boarding-house keepers for a long time are loud in their denunciation of 159 Union Street. the extortions to which they have so GEORGE MURDOCH. ong submitted, and many of them have Harness Maker. called to express their thanks for the AND DEALEE IN Fine Driving and Working Harness, Curry Combs, Brushes, &c., always on Whip BEFAIEING. Dob 21 1 ation are, on the other hand, entirely Our visitor took his departure leav- in London, under the auspices of the So-

DENTIST. OFFCE-61 UNION STREET, NEAR GERMAIN.

[Formerly occupied by Dr. Pidler]. BT. JOHN. N. R.

CARD. ROBERT J. LEONARD. Ship Broker & Commission Merchant.

OFFICE:

Merrist's Building, Water Street, SAINT JOHN. N. B. d es 19:8m

d it in a facetious style the other ing them to go against their will; in these cases they demand and receive ex-of safety first. It lay down in the middle of Fourtcenth street and bellowed loadly, Works of Canada to the lack of rolling stock on the E. & N. A. Railway until the tale has been told with all the possi-number. They stand by each other, ing him out by a rope when the rope and make others new tribute. They go caught fire. The fire rau up the rope to the

Spud Murphy and others who ending the present blockade. The E. and that they will steal the men they may and N. A., with its inadequate equipmanage to pick up outside."

"What 'll be done about it?"

"The owners will get the men to sign articles if they find them, and then they 'll take the roof off every boarding house in Lower Cove in search of them stroyed except two elephants and one when the vessels are ready for sea. If came there is any back-bone to the Police reply.

Force of this city the shipowners will "Precisely. Except on Government roads, as I was saying, communication is too rapid to render it possible for a vessel to be kept in port many days for light we have let in upon the condition | lack of men, and crews will be got from of affairs. The Boarding House Associ- Boston at three days' notice."

have moved in the matter of defence. opinion they reply through the columns. of the press to the attack made upon them. They are well aware that if the nercantile men of St. John should be be ended, and its members be forced to live upon the interest of the money they dressed by them to the editor of THE close in a very short time. If their TRIBUNE denies that blood-money has been exacted, merely acknowledges that a bonus has been accepted for ardugeneral retainer.

ous services in shipping seamen when they are scarce, and makes a variety of men from some foreigner, or are forc-street. The old elephant reached a place treated it in a facetious style the other day, although the money lost by him on account of the evils complained of would have assisted him considerably during the financial pressure. In reply to all the humble petitions and angry remonstrances cent up to Ottawa nothing but empty promises have been returned, and now we see the fruits of the neglect which we have been subjected—the railroad impassable. If the engines and cars were not powerful enough and numerous enough to trans-tact the business of the road in summer time, how did the Board of Works ex-pect them to be sufficient for markers any tribute. They stand by each other, the sufficient for markers any tribute. They stand by each other, the sufficient for markers any tribute. They stand by each other, the sufficient for markers any tribute. They stand by each other, the sufficient for markers any tribute. They stand by each other, the sufficient for markers any tribute. They stand by each other, the sufficient for markers any tribute. They stand by each other, the sufficient for markers any tribute. They mark they say the the marker there are any stribute. They mark they say the the sufficient for markers any tribute. They mark they say the the marker there are any tribute. They mark they say the the marker there are any tribute. They mark they say the the marker there are any tribute. They mark they say the the marker there are any tribute. They mark they say the the marker there are any tribute. They mark they say the the marker there are any tribute. They mark they are any tribute to the sufficient for marker there are any tribute. The the there are any tribute to the sufficient for marker there are any tribute. The the angle the tribute the there are any tribute to the sufficient for marker there are any tribute to the sufficient for marker there are any tribute to the sufficient to the sufficient to there are any tribute to the sufficient tor t seventh day in the co sent forth a dove, and it left. The dove went and searched and a resting place it time, how did the Board of Works expect them to be sufficient for a interp And yet that body did appear to think either that our complaints were without foundation, or that railroading is easier in winter than in summer. With the opening of the road to Hali-fax no adequate addition was made to the rolling stock, and Mr. Superintend-ent Carvell finds himself at the merey of every snow storm. He is without powerful engines, practicable snowmy countenance I could not endure; in those days I prayed that forever I might the world understood, and Hea knew ill things. Hea his mouth opened and spake, and said to the warrior Bel, 'thou prince of gods, warrior, when thou was by order powerful engines, practicable snow-ploughs, and other requisites for whiter railroading. All that men can do he and Assistant Superintendent Coleman have done and are doing, but the odds are against them. We have had no-thing from Halifax of later date than assistand a later date than saturday last—one week ago—and has not reach-ed Saint John yet. Think of it, and swear it if you will. Profanity seems to be excusable sometimes, and this is surely one of the cases in point. The Board of Works at Ottaws, and the Commissioners of the Intercolonial, are responsible for the said state of the Railway. Their parsimony has caused, the public loss and incovrenience att-taction the intervention state and that they will steal the man they way that they are really what them. It is said they swear that the parties supected of giving you that they are really what they are not at the outses and may be sought by those who want them. It is said they swear that the parties supected of giving you that they will steal the man they will the agnive of Sist and they well they are really what they will steal the man they will be the formation that not well they are really what the man they will steal the man they will the men that they will steal the man they will the men they they have nothing the houses and may be sought by those who want them. It is said they swear that the parties suspected of giving you the house. The intervent blockade. The E. A BLACK, SODDEN MASS OF FLESH convent and took up the people in the presence of Sisit and the people; when Sisit and his wife and the people to be like MR. BARNUM INFORMED OF HIS LAST. Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, Mr. Hurd, one of the managers, telegraphed to Mr. Barnum, who is with his branch es-Mr. Barnum, who is with his branch es-ed me, when to the whom the goods have MR. BARNUM INFORMED OF HIS LOSS. the gods were carried away, then dwelt Sisit in a remote place at the mouth of the "About four this morning fire was dis sought, alter thou shalt gain this do for six days and seven nights like I say also, in bonds bind him. Sisit after this may camel." At 2.20 Mr. Hurd received the subjoined reply. "Tell editors I have cabled European accents to expend half a million for attract Force of this city the shipowners will enforce the law. If the sailors are pre-vented from signing articles the own-ers can readily procure men from other ports. In these days of telegraphs and railroads communication is rapid"— "Except on Government railroads in winter." "Devide a set of communication communication is rapid"— "Except on Government railroads in winter." "Devide a set of communication communication communication is rapid"— "Except on Government railroads in winter." "Communication communication is rapid"— "Except on Government railroads in winter." "Communication communication communication is rapid"— "Except on Government railroads in winter."

bead, and the day when he ascended on his head, and the day when he ascended on the side of the ship ' Mr. Smith ended by minutely comparing this description with the Bible record and the Chaldean account given by Berosus, into which, however, we have no space to enter." THE CHALDEAN HISTORY OF THE FLOOD.

The London Times of December 4 gives Moral Habits and Spiritual Life. a lengthy account of a public meeting held

There must be a love of right, Mr. dissatisfied with the publicity given ing us firmly impressed with the ciety of Biblical Archeeology, at which Beecher said, in his last sermon. The ar-DR. J. E. GRIFFITH, dissatished with the publicity given the conviction that if the boarding- Gen. Sir Henry Rawlinson presided, and tist who sat down to his work hating it, house association enter upon a war Mr. Gladstone, the Dean of Westminster would never be an artist. The teacher Recognizing the importance of public against any mercantile house in this and many other distinguished persons were that went to his work as to a distasteful port, it will be worse for the association. present. The meeting was called for the task, would never shine as an instructor. For all the good done the sailor in se- presentation by Mr. George Smith, of the There must be a glow of active enthusicuring honest articles for him, and in British Museum, of a paper containing the asm, a loving of the thing done, or there keeping his money until it is required, Chaldean account of the deluge. Since could be no excellence, no success. "Supthoroughly aroused against them, and we are ready to give them credit; and the tablets from which the history has pose," said Mr. Beecher, "a man in Sing stablish boarding houses of their own, we warn them that illegal exactions, and been taken were unearthed from a tempor. Sing was to say, 'There are few fellows that the rule of the Association would arbitrary use of their power for the pur- ary obscurity of fifteen years in the Mu- better than I. For ten years I've never pose of injuring those against whom seum, the excitement among scientific been guilty of theft. For ten years l'ye they have a grievance, will bring their men, as well as theologians, throughout never broken into a house. For ten years have saved, or move. The letter ad-dressed by them to the editor of THE close in a very short time. If their legal adviser has given them as good counsel as this they should give him a counsel as this they should give him a tablet. The story is related by Izdubar, gone to rest at a certain hour. I've not who belonged to the mythical period, and indulged in eating and drinking to excess,

Subscribe for the DAILY TRIBUNE, and been the lounder on the Babylonian mon-each day. In fact, 1 have been as regular MESS PORK.-240 bbls. Heavy New Mess Pork. For sale low for cash. Boy 15 W. I. WHITING, terday one of the mercantile gentleman difference is car and been the founder on the bady and been the founder of the bady and been the founder on the bady and been the founder of the bady and been the founder of the bady and been the founder of the bady and been the bady and story of the Deluge related on the tablet n es he like all these laws that he is car

The Deluge.

NOTES AND NEWS.

Steamers. Rev. T. DeWitt Talmadge says his Tab-After the fourth of January the steamer Scud will make but two trips a week to ernacle went up, like Elijah, in a chariot Digby and Annapolis, leaving her wharf at the usual hour.

No man ever had so much experience in the Phonix business as Mr Barnum. It is The New Brunswick left Portland this more poetical than profitable, but these morning at half-past ten o'clock.

strange birds have a wonderful fascination Freight at Reduced Rates. for him. The fact is, the real Phenix is Messrs. Hatheway & Small advertise an extinct fowl and the only way the great freight for Kentville, Wolfville, Windsor showman can give an exhibition of its and Halifax, per steamer Scud, to be taken peculiarities is to perform the part him- at reduced rates.

France appears to be very tender of her The Northern Star Minstrels The attendance at the Institute last soft headed young men. It is reported that Uora. Pearl, a fascinating young evening was not large. The company, actress and dancer, has been expelled from although only amateurs, performed their the country because a poor fool, the son of separate parts remarkably well.

a wealthy citizen, shot himself in her Masonic. presence. As the pistol did not find any

The following officers elect of Albion prains to blow out, the young man has Lodge, No. 1, were installed last from recovered, and it would have been very by Grand Master Ellis: F. W. Wisdom, much more sensible to have expelled him W. M.; Geo. E. Fairweather, I. P. M.; rom France or shut him up in an asylum Chas. McLauchlin, Jr., S. W.; James A. for the feeble minded. Hoyt, J. W.; Geo. E. Fairweather, P. M .

The scene among the animals while the Treas. ; Thomas N. Robertson, P. M. fire was raging at Barnum's hippodrome Sec. ; James Adam, S. D. ; C. D. Jordan, must have been terribly exciting. The J. D.; M. Chamberlain, S. S.; T. Walker, scals were melted with fervent heat and J. S.; W. A. Lockhart, D. C.; R. B. lost all impression of their surroundings. Humphrey, 1. G.; H. Card, Organist; D. The giraffes must have suffered horrible Scribner, Tyler. agonies with all their length of parched throat. These pathetic scenes in ghastly The circulation of the DAILY TRIBUNE is wax must have become greatly intensified rapidly increasing. as the heat waxed fiercer. The sternest of

On the evening of the 1st January, 1873, In fact, for these wax works it was a very Prince William street, by Mr. L. C. Ans-over a decision of the Bishop of Lincoln vided for the occasion Leitch's string regarding the right of a clergyman to omit band will be in attendance to furnish a portion of the burial service at a funeral. music for the dancing, which is to com-A rector had declined to read over a de-mence at 9 o'clock. It is expected that ceased parishioner of immoral life the members of the militia will attend in uniwords of the service which consign the form. Coaches will be in attendance for body to earth "in sure and certain hope of all.

a joyful resurrection," as he did not believe that the deceased had died in the

Harper for January. grace of the Lord. Complaint was made Mr. T. H. Hall has received Harper's to Bishop Wordsworth, and the bishop de- Monthly for January. It is a number of cided that in dealing with such unhappy unsurpassed excellence. persons, if the clergyman conscientiously Personal. feels that there are expressions in the Henry Osburn, Esq., Manager of N. B. & Canada Railway, leaves for L burial service which he cannot use, he is not to be condemned for leaving them out. land to-day.

The DAILY TRIBUNE is not excelled as a The Stipendiary Magistrate has not yet returned from Westmorland. city advertising medium.

New Year's Ball the figures were brought to the melting mood, and soon were like Niobe, all tears. a grand ball is to be held in Smith's Hall.

ley. A programme of twenty one dances A controversy has arisen in England is promised, and a hot supper will be pro-

