LOVE OR LUCRE IN BARRISCALE PLAY

Popular Picture Star Appears as Ultra Modern Young Women of Brains in "All of a Sudden Norma".

Star Theatre
Miss Bessie Barriscale, who is starred in "All of a Sudden Norma" a new five-reel feature photoplay by Thomas Edgelow, makes much of a mingled love and lustre story in her impersonation of Norma Brisbane, an ultra-modern young woman of brains in the latest Exhibitors Mutual release. It was produced by B.B. Features.

The cast includes such actors as Melbourne McDowell, who for many years supported Fanny Davidson, and who is identified in this piece as Emerson Trent, a bad actor of the financial underworld. Others prominent in the cast are Albert Colby, R. Henry Grey and Joseph Dowling, whose heavy dramatic acting is one of the features of the talking drama.

Norma Brisbane, having been beaten out of her father's fortune by Trent, vows to avenge the former and justify herself, which she does amply and efficiently in a series of most remarkable adventures ever screened. Norma has no set of procedure but she knows that a husband at least a supposed husband is essential to freedom of movement in the circles she desires to frequent for her quest because no chaperon can be admitted to her confidences.

So she takes out a license to marry Outhbert Van Zelt a thick-witted youth who is devoted to her, but does not marry him. Posing as a young bride however, she secures the evidence she requires against Trent and eventually brings that scheming rascal to his knees and her feet, cleaning up a fortune.

Miss Barriscale is one of the world's cleverest actresses. What she does in "All of a Sudden Norma" is real art. She is involved in situations that would be impossible of interpretation for a woman less gifted in the art of acting than she is, but with her skilled handling an involved plot becomes as clear as daylight and the story of "All of a Sudden Norma" takes on the dignity of a pictorial epic.

The production is beautifully staged and superbly photographed.

HYPNOTIC POWER TERRIBLE WEAPON

"HYPNOTISM. Hypnosis is a condition, allied to normal sleep, which can be induced in a large majority of normal persons. There is little doubt that, if a subject is repeatedly hypnotized he may be liable to some ill-defined harm"—Encyclopedia Britannica.

One of the most remarkable instances of harmful hypnotism ever brought to public attention deals with the case of a young and attractive woman who was trapped into marrying a man she disliked through the mesmerism spell he cast over her. The tragic results of this unhappy union are graphically presented in Virginia Pearson's great feature "Buchanan's Wife" the William Fox film drama shown at the Star Mon. Tue. Wed.

JUST A BIT OF GOSSIP.

Our old friend John Barrymore is at the Allen Mon. Tues., with us in another Paramount photoplay. It is one of those high-class comedy dramas with action in every foot of the film, and with a laugh every thirty seconds.

You know how well Barrymore can sustain his humorous situations, and we know that in this vehicle there is a wealth of humor that will keep you laughing, and will send you away grinning, to chuckle over the picture when you think of it afterward. That's the sort of an attraction we have in "Here Comes the Bride."

MRS. CHARLIE CHAPLIN, WEBER STAR, IS HONORED BY STORE GIRLS.

Shocked by invitation to "For Husbands Only," Latest Jewel.

An unusual compliment one day this week was paid Mrs. Charlie Chaplin, the charming little leading lady of Miss Louis Weber's latest production, "For Husbands Only," which will play at the Allen Theatre on Wed. Thurs. It was a luncheon given by eleven girl employees in one of the largest department stores in Los Angeles, Mrs. Chaplin, the guest of honor, making an even dozen.

A letter received by Miss Weber during the early part of last week from Miss Harriot Milner, who is employed in the department store, contained the information that it was the desire of a number of the girls also employed there to meet Mrs. Chaplin and they thought that "making would be nice than to sit down with her at luncheon and spend a pleasant hour or so together." Miss Weber showed the letter to Mrs. Chaplin, and at her director's suggestion it was decided to accept the invitation forthwith.

The luncheon, which took place in one of the leading hotels of Los Angeles, was a dainty affair. Mrs. Chaplin delighted the girls with a recital of her various experiences while "The Price of a Good Time," in which she plays the part of an unhappy shop girl, was being produced, and each of the girls contributed to the pleasure of the occasion with an entertaining story or a recitation. Two hours were spent at the table, Miss Milner having arranged with the manager of the department store to give them double time for their luncheon hour. Miss Weber invited them all to see "For Husbands Only" as her guests, and the girls were properly shocked until Miss Weber explained that she wrote the photoplay especially for girls.

"THE HELL CAT" GOLDWYN'S SECOND FARRAR PICTURE.

Brilliantly Geraldine Farrar made her debut in Goldwyn Pictures and brilliantly she continues. Her second appearance is made in "The Hell Cat," which comes to the Roma Theatre, beginning Mon. Tues. and the play bids fair to be the most powerful vehicle the international celebrity has ever had.

Geraldine Farrar is Pancha O'Brein, daughter of a Wyoming sheep raiser, who is loved by Sheriff Jack Webb. There is another, one Jim Dike, a squaw man, who would possess her. She rebuffs him repeatedly. At night he comes to the O'Brein ranch and shoots down Pancha's father. The girl puts up a terrific fight and proves that she is a veritable hell cat. Dike, however, carries her away to his ranch.

Dike's squaw steals into Pancha's room, intent on stabbing her; but when Pancha explains the Indian knows that it is Dike who must be punished. She dashes off to tell the sheriff. In order to win Pancha back to responsiveness, Dike offers to marry her and take her East. The girl consents.

On the way to Chuyenne Sheriff Jack Webb and his posse spring from behind rocks and cover Jim Dike with their guns. The cattleman sits in the buckboard, stiffly erect. The posse approaches. He topples over, dead, with the dagger Pancha had wrested from the Indian in his hand.

Do You Want Pink Cheeks?

They Can be Had by Keeping The Blood Rich, Red and Pure.

Every woman—every girl—wants pink cheeks. They mean not only beauty but good health. When a woman's blood is scanty or anaemic, her color fades, she looks debilitated, is short of breath and her heart palpitates after slight exertion. Sometimes this trouble is accompanied by severe headaches, or pains in the back or sides. This condition is entirely due to weak, watery blood, and can only be cured by making the blood rich, red and pure. For this purpose there is nothing can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which act directly upon the blood, and in this way bring new health and strength to weak, ailing people. Mrs. Anderson, Hearst, Ont., says:—"Before coming to Canada from England, I was a sufferer from anaemia for upwards of a year. I had been gradually getting paler and weaker. I did not realize that I was sick, but felt constantly tired and worn out. I had no ambition for anything, and grew so white that my brothers used to call me 'snowball.' At this stage my mother decided that she would get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which are a favorite medicine in England as well as in Canada. On the day I commenced taking them I fainted on getting out of bed and mother urged me to stay in bed for a few days. I really felt so weak that I was glad to take her advice. I looked more like a corpse than a living person. I remained in bed for a week, taking the pills regularly, and then I felt that I was able to get up, though not able to go about. From that on, however, I gained strength daily, in a little more than a month I was feeling as well as ever I did. The color returned to my cheeks and lips, and my friends were all surprised at my rapid recovery. I took no medicine but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, so that they deserve all the credit for my restoration to health."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

EMPLOYERS' SICK BENEFIT PENSION SCHEME
Bell Telephone Co. Issues Report Flu Epidemic Increases Year's Average

The influenza epidemic of October and November last served to emphasize in very striking fashion, the benefit of employees of the company of an enlightened scheme of sick benefits and pensions.
