

(14) To sue for and recover by their name of office, the amounts of school rates or subscriptions due from persons residing without the limits of their school section [but within three miles of the separate school-house, who are supporters of such school, and] who make default in payment.*

(15) Not applicable to Roman Catholic Separate School Trustees.

Admit to School residents between the ages of five and twenty-one.

(16) To permit all [Roman Catholic] residents† in such section between the ages of five and twenty one years to attend the school, so long as they conduct themselves in conformity with the rules of such school, and the fees or rates required to be paid on their behalf are fully discharged, but such permission shall not extend to the children of persons in whose behalf a separate school has been established, according to the Act respecting the establishment of separate schools.‡

Visit Schools—and for what.

(17) To visit, from time to time, each school under their charge, and see that it is conducted according to the authorized regulations, and that each such school is, at all times, duly provided with a Register|| and Visitors' Book, in the form prepared according to law.

(18) Not applicable to Roman Catholic Separate Schools.

Establish School Section Library.

(19) To appoint a librarian, and to take such steps authorized by law as they may judge expedient for the establishment, safe keeping, and proper management of a school library in their section, whenever provision has been made and carried into effect for the establishment of school libraries.§

Personal Responsibility in case of neglect to exercise Corporate Powers.

(20) To exercise all the corporate powers vested in them by this Act, for the fulfilment of any contract or agreement made by them;

* See note I to the eleventh clause of this section, page 35.

† Boarders for less than a year are non-residents in the sense of the Act, and cannot therefore lawfully claim admission to the school. They must make special arrangements with the trustees, and their attendance must be returned as non-residents. Apprentices may, however, be considered as residents.

‡ The last part of this clause is not applicable unless there is also a separate school for coloured persons in the same section.

|| Registers are furnished gratuitously to the County Clerk, for distribution, through the local superintendents, among the schools, by the Educational Department. Trustees, however, must provide a visitors' book (which may be any ordinary blank book), at the cost of the section.

§ The property of every public library is exempt from taxation. One hundred per cent. is allowed by the Chief Superintendent on all sums over $5, remitted to the Department for library books, maps, apparatus and prize books. See Departmental Regulations appended; and also printed on the cover of each Register.
