

enrollment, training, and discipline, until such time as it may be expedient to consolidate them into battalions, and may attach them to other battalions as detachments, or put them under the separate command of field officers or captains, and as far as practicable they shall be subject to general regulations and the provisions of this act.

24. The Commander-in-chief may organize militia Artillery (and Naval Brigades) by draft or otherwise, and make regulations for them, (but no man shall be drafted for these services who has received notice to attend the yearly regimental training, and until he shall have completed the same.)

25. Colored corps shall be under the special regulations of the Commander-in-chief, and in the absence of such special regulations, the colored population shall be enrolled and be subject to draft and service in the proportions laid down in this Act.

26. The Commander-in-chief may appoint officers to inspect all or any of the regiments of militia throughout the province, and such officers, when commissioned and published in general orders to the militia, shall be obeyed in all things lawful.

27. The Commander-in-chief may call out the militia for any number not to exceed twenty-eight days drill in each year, for squad, company, or battalion training, as he shall order, but no previous drill, performed by officers or non-commissioned officers, shall exempt them from such squad, company, or battalion training.

28. Officers and non-commissioned officers training, when their men are called out, may count their days drill on any subsequent officers or non-commissioned officers training, being ordered within the year.

29. No drill shall count unless ordered from headquarters by general regulations or express orders or sanction, nor unless proper diaries are sent in and approved of at headquarters.

30. The Commander-in-chief may cause commissioned officers to be examined at any time, by Boards or officers by him appointed, in order to test their military qualifications for the service. Officers not attending twenty-eight days' drill, when ordered so to do, including the annual drill with their regiments, shall be liable to be superseded or reduced, by order of the Commander-in-chief.

31. No man shall be required to attend squad or company drill for more than three hours in one day, nor to attend squad or company drill more than twelve miles, nor battalion muster or drill more than twenty miles.

32. Every colonel who shall not give the necessary orders for the assembling of his regiment, as required by law, and general orders for enrollment, muster, or training, shall forfeit eighty dollars; and every captain who shall not obey the orders of his superior officer in this respect, shall forfeit twenty dollars; and every squad commander who shall not obey the
