SUMMER SCHOOL IN KARTVELIAN STUDIES

We are happy to announce the first Summer School in Kartvelian (Georgian) Studies for non-Georgians to be held 1 July to 15 August, 1990.

The Summer School in Kartvelian Studies is sponsored by Tbilisi State University, the Georgian Academy of Sciences, and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Georgian SSR.

The school will offer intensive instruction in Modern Georgian. Students can also attend lectures on Georgian history, literature, language and art and thus become acquainted with Georgia's cultural and historical past and her present achievements.

In the first year, 1990, the costs of instruction and of room and board of foreign students will be met by Tbilisi State University. Students will be housed at the student dormitory of the University. Should they prefer, foreign students may arrange with Intercist in Tbilisi for room and board at a hotel, at their own expense. Students are expected to pay their own round trip air fare to Tbilisi.
