

Appendix C

Extract from Bain's Examiner dated 14 Sept 1944

At Borden on Tuesday

BOB HOPE

Famed screen and radio comedian, just back from entertaining United Nations troops in the Pacific Area, who will be at Camp Borden next Tuesday night with his entire show, including the glamorous songstress, Frances Langford, comedians Jerry Colonna and Vera Vague, and the topnotch dance band led by Skinny Ennis. If you tune in at 10 p.m. you will hear Hope's Show broadcast direct from the stage of the YMCA building. The troupe will also put on a big show for the troops that night in Lee Hall.