

you may comply with the wishes of the Department as expressed in that letter.

The expenditure of the seed grant, transmitted under cover of your letter of the 7th ultimo, has been even more unsatisfactory in that of the relief.

This latter grant is not to be expended in purchasing cornmeal for the destitute, or in aiding in the buying of corn.

The quantity of potatoes purchased with the $6⁰⁰ given to John T. Scie is not given.

In H. V. Brown's account for $103⁸³ the quantity of hay purchased is not given, and in three cases the quantity of oats purchased
