She was supposed to not been paid off by your govt at time of death Her husband not receive any payment as settlement after his death or after death either. Could the 3 children claim the mother's rights yet, seeing she has been dead for some years but not payed up for from your govt when she died. Please Sirs please let us know by return mail what can or can not be done in a case of this kind and what would or what would not be required of the heirs in this case to bring a final settlement from govt on the above matter
