Ottawa, November 21, 1911.

Rev. Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 13th instant dealing with the proposed changes at the Fort Frances Boarding School I have to inform you that the Department is disposed to adopt the plans which you have suggested for the three boarding schools, Fort Frances, Fort Alexander and Sandy Bay. These buildings are owned by the Department and as soon as plans are prepared tenders will be advertised and the contract let for the necessary work.

Your obedient servant,

Assistant Deputy and Secretary.
