

Willie since Christmas night - but - comes back today for the rest of the week.
Boots is running the shop with the help of a friend, & Dad & Jean is full back on.
Jean has started initiating her business (what she has!) is terribly in demand. The phone runs stops and we have had hardly a minute to ourselves. We had a lovely Christmas, ten for dinner, our five sisters & Gordon Dunlop & four lovely ones. It was hard to realize all we had. Some thought the previous year was wonderful. I think that I should have died on the anniversary of Mother's death?

There are some people coming in from the so I must get ready, but I must if I left this letter till coming, it would never be done!
Am very best love to you dear Willie, & every good wish for your health & happiness in 1940. You deserve to be very happy for you are so much happier to others. I hope you will tell Mr. Patterson how much we appreciated his letter. I never thought it could be possible so many people have lost little children! So many have passed on with this sympathy.
Again best love & good wishes for 1940.
Ever your loving sister Jennie
