

it has been broken ruthlessly and without scruple, and it is the task of our army and navy and air force to help to curb unprovoked aggression and to ensure that peace and freedom shall be restored.

Another significance of this occasion

This Peace Tower of the Parliament Bldgs is a national symbol of devotion to duty and of sacrifice it enshrines a spirit of remembrance which is a part of our national heritage.

feel sure that all who stand or march in front of this Tower will carry with them something of its message

Confident these men and those who come after them will do their duty.

Confident they will uphold the honour of Canada in whatever tasks they may be called upon to undertake.

wish them good luck and God Speed.
