

books on Biological and Physiological Chemistry. They are especially indebted to the excellent manuals of Drs. Plimmer, Hawk, and Cole, to which many references are made.

McGill University, Faculty of Medicine, September 1914.