8. STEPHENSON - Proprietor. SATURDAY, JULY 25.

BANQUET TO MR. GAMEY,

A banquet will be tendered R. R Camey at Gore Bay, July 30th. The Algoma Conservator makes the following reference to the event-

The enthusiasm with which the hanquet to R. R. Gamey has been received is beyond all conception. It must be described as nothing less than the flood gate of enthusiasm bursting open. There has been a feeling down deep in the hearts of the people since the issue of the commissioners' report that Gamey did not get fair play. They have been brooding over it for weeks, and the fire of pent up indignation has been smouldering, waiting for the faintest breath to blow. Gamey's friends became restless, they demanded a meeting where they might express their desires.

The meeting on Friday last was a record breaker in more ways than one. Such united enthusiasm we have mever before seen displayed. Many who never took part in politics were there. You could see the British sense of justice coming to the surface saying, "Gamey must have fair The feeling that the commissioners had prostituted their position in attempting to crush an individual to save the rotten rulers of a state was prominent in that meeting, and brought forth the slegan, "Gamey must have fair play," the individual who tries to expose wrong must not be prosecuted by hirelings of the machine. The question is not one of party politics, strictly speaking, it is the liberty of the subject that is now at stake.

The banquet which will be tendered to R. R. Gamey in Gore Bay on the 20th instant is largely the outcome of the feeling that he has not had justice, that an attempt has been made to ruin him in order to save others. Every intelligent individual who has read the evidence and the commissioners' report, must subscribe to that position. It is not a question of party politics, or a question of Grit or Tory, it is simply a question of what is right.

HUSTLERS

A hustler is one who is always looking out for, and working for the good of himself or some other person. He is exactly the opposite of the knocker, who was discussed in this column last week. He is always anxious to push a good scheme from which some good can be obtained and he is as much to be admired as a knocker is to be despised.

One of the best types of hustlers are men who are looking after the incrests of the city or town in which they live. Chatham, while the unfortunate possessor of a few knockers, has, we are pleased to say, large number of hustlers to whom great amount of the credit for her rapid growth and increasing prosperity is due. They are found in the Council Chambers, in business houses and among the gentlemen of the city

A recent public scheme which has been brought to a successful issue shows that one of these Chatham hustlers is located in the Lake Erie railroad offices.

Some time ago L. E. Tillson conceiv ed the idea of bringing the Merch+ ants-Manufacturers' Association excursion from Port Huron into Chatham, and he began at once to hustle for it. With the assistance of Mayor McKeough he has succeeded, and as a result it is expected that over 2,-000 people will visit our city and spend a day's outing here. It is impossible to say how much good will result to Chatham through this result to Chatham through this move on the part of Mar. Fillson. Last year the excursiion went to London, when 2,500 people visited that city and inspected factories, etc. It is thought that fully that number will come to Chatham this year, and as the excursion was popular last year, the number may be increased.

There is another important item, besides the visiting of the factories. It is a low estimate to say that each man who comes to Chatham will spend at least one dollar, which money will be left in the city—the most of them will spend more. Even at a son. This fact, if kept in mind, will probably silence the tongues of kick-ers and knockers who are anxious to character all respective to attack railroads on all grounds.

He had about $300 in the bank when he was arrested. One almost regrets that the check came so soon, before he had time to show what he really could do. The man who can bank $60 a month on a salary of $32 a month, even for a short time, can do better than that when given a chance. He may be able to solve the great problem of the age, how to get other people's money without earning it. In fact, he did solve it, so far as he went.

Chatham should don its grandest garb and give the Port Huron visitors a warm and hearty welcome to the Maple City.

January 27, 1903. I cannot express in words the praise that is due to Ironox Tablets, which I got as a trial package from our drug-gist, Mr. McDonald, who told me they were just what I wanted. I took them more for fun, but before I had finished one box I got great re-lief. I was subject to great misery after meals, with bloating, and would rift up bile of the bitterest taste, and always woke up in the morning in the same way for the last twenty years. Had tried all medicines, but now I am completely cured, and it was by taking Iron-ox Tablets. Words cannot express my gratitude to JAS. HUSTON,

Afternoon Frocks of Muslin-At-

WHAT IS WORN.

A fascinating little afternoon frock seen recently was of pompadour muslin on a groundwork of pale green. It had a layer of pale green chiffon underneath over a foundation of still deeper green silk. This skirt was finished with a deep hem and no flounces, but was caught up slightly on the hips with some suggestion of fullness which reminded one of a pannier. It was cut slightly decollete at the neck with a vest of point d'alencon and a fichu of net edged with same lace. The sleeves were fairly tight to the elbow, whence came a deep turned back gauntlet of lace. With this were worn a pointed band of narrow black velvet and ar odd enameled clasp. popular, because no woman can afford to add years to her age, and this is the effect even of the prettiest bonnet.

For young girls there are dainty ball gowns in white china silk made up with shirrings and gaugings to give curves to the otherwise angular forms of many debutantes.

elerines and Shawl Shaped Collars of Silk and Lace.

The pelerine is a decorative feature which forms a useful adjunct to summer frocks. This can be made by the amateur who has only to arrange a fichu-like piece composed of a lace foundation with loops of wide pompa-dour taffeta ribbon edged with black, finished with stole-like ends of lace and taffeta, clasping them at the waist with an odd buckle.

Shawl shaped collars are much in vogue. Those people who possess by nature sloping shoulders should square the sleeve beneath those collars. The cunning of tailors and dressmaker nowadays makes these things easy.

Some charming afternoon gowns are made in spotted voile. Very smart was one in a dull shade of red with a great silk spot thereon, the bodice fin-ished with a shawl-like collar of Irish crochet lace held together with red and gray taffeta strappings and tiny tags. JUDIC CHOLLET. Young Mothers

Young married women must remember that the experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation.

A capable mother must be a healthy mother; the birth of the first child is an especially trying experience, and nature needs all the help it can get. Correct and practical counsel is of the most vital importance to the would-be mother. Mrs. Pinkham's advice at such times, together with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, have guided many a young woman through this trying experience with the happiest possible results. Her advice is that of a mother with an experience with thousands of such cases, and given entirely free.

By special permission we publish the following three letters, showing the absolute necessity of proper care and advice at the time of maternity. That of Mrs. Sexton illustrates the dangers of maternity. That of Mrs. Hanson the suffering during the period; and that of Mrs. Massey the troubles that may beset a young mother after child-birth; and they all illustrate the wonderful value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases.

Vegetable Compound in such cases

Mrs. Lilie Sexton, Ashland, Ky., Boyd Co., says:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— I wrote to you'in Sept., 1900. I had been married two years and had two miscarriages, one at six months and one at seven. My organs were very weak. You advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I began at once and used 13 bottles.

"In June, 1901, I again expected to become a mother, and now I have a fine baby girl, two months' old. I took the Compound all the time during pregnancy. I cannot praise your remedies enough."

Mrs. Karianna Hanson, Box 343, Worthington, Minn., says:

Mrs. Karianna Hanson, Box 343, Worthington, Minn., says:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— I feel it my duty to send you my sincere thanks for your kind advice and for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and your letter of advice have done me.

"When I wrote you I did not see a well day. I was to become a mother, and had headache, dizziness, poor appetite, was nervous, had pains and cramps in abdomen and swollen feet.

"After following your advice I soon began to feel better. When I had taken four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt real well. My baby when three months' old weighed over twenty pounds.

"I cannot praise your wonderful medicine enough, and would advise all suffering women to write to you and use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. M. M. Massey, Sulphur Springs, Texas, says:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I will tell you what I think about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Think it is a wonderful medicine. I believe it saved my life.

"When one of my children was just five weeks old I took a set-back and came near dying. I was in bed two weeks. The doctor attended me about a week and I got no better. My bowels would nearly kill me at times, only easy when under the influence of opiates. It seemed at times there were knots in my bowels as large as my fist. I had such pain in my left side. I suffered as much as I did when my baby was born.

"I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound one evening, and by the next day I was nearly easy. I will always praise your medicine."

The Earnings of Acrebats.

The old fable that the work of the circus and music hall artists is paid for by "starvation wages" holds good no longer, as may be seen by the following statistics recently colthe following statistics recently col-lected: The monthly earnings of a lady circus rider vary from £75 to £100, while those of the haut ecole often earn £150. A clown's earn-ings average from £35 and £40 to £75 to £100. No performer on the tight rope "works" for less than from £50 to £70 a month. Engage-ments of this sort, it seems, are al-ways made and wages paid by the month. Carpet acrobats earn from £100 to £110. Even second rate performers on the horizontal bar re-ceive £125 to £150, while masters of the art earn as much as £250, of the art earn as much as £250. and jugglers on the tight rope or on horseback are the best paid of all, earning often as much as £300 month. Unfortunately the majority of these artists spend their money far more rapidly than they acquire their by no means easy art.—West-minster Gazette.

Sir George White's Elevation

Sir George White's Elevation.

The elevation of Sir George White to the rank of Field Marshal puts Ireland in the position of furnishing three Field Marshals to the British army, or four if the Duke of Connaught, is included. This is probably unparalleled in the annals of the army. Then Sir T. Kelly-Kenny, an Irishman, is Adjutant-General; Sir Ian Hamilton, a Scotsman, is Quartermaster-General, and Sir Edward Ward, Permanent Under Secretary of the War Office, is also a north countryman. And Lord Kitchener, the Indian Commander-in-Chief, is of Irish birth. When one takes stock Irish birth. When one takes stock of the Cabinet, with its four Scots-men and three Irishmen, the Arch-bishops, both Scotemen, and so on it must be admitted that Lord Sal-isbury's "Celtic fringe" looks as if it intended to become the entire mantle of State. The navy has been purely English up to very recently, but even in that chosen domain an Irishman is now head of the fleet which defends the Channel.

Poverty is the test of civility and the touchstone of friendship.

You have not lost your life.

Surely such endorsement should dispel doubt from the minds of all hesitating women. After reading such letters, if any woman is willing to remain sick, we can only say it is her own fault and she deserves to suffer; for the medicine that has benefited these women and a hundred thousand others will surely help you.
