

From the Literature Department

66 Bloor St. West, (Side Entrance)

Phone No. N. 8577 F.

Purposeful missionary plays, pageants and exercises are fast taking their place in education and inspiration in the church life to-day. Every one of the plays listed below has been selected because of its special message, and, in addition to being forcefully effective to the audience, they will teach these lessons to the participants as well. These are some, not all, of our stock. If what you want is not here, ask us for it.

66 BLOOR STREET WEST, TORONTO

- A little maid who went into all the world.
12 young ladies or Senior Band girls 6c
- An Evening With the Hindus. A whole evening's programme 7c
- If They Only Knew. Illustrates the failure of a Bible Woman in India because of the failure of some girls at home who did not know 10c
- Little Rights for 50 very small children 3c
- Lighting Up India. Attractive. 12 young ladies. Instructive of our work in India 5c
- Missionary Assistance Party. About 10 southern stations on our field in India 7c
- One Day at Pithapuram Hospital for four girls over 15 and one child. 8c each or 5 for 15c
- Prove it, suitable for an offering exercise and proving the worth of our work. For Bands 10c
- Mite Box Convention and Song. 7 children representing mite boxes 7c
- Little Brown Bulb (typed) for two children, a spring time exercise 2c
- Tired of Missions. For young women who say they are tired of a missionary society, but their leader gives them a peep at the needs, and they decide that their help is still needed 12c
- Three scenes in a Hindu Girl's Life (typed). Three Band girls and two older ones representing mothers 6c
- The Challenge of the Cross is a splendid missionary consecration exercise for young ladies 25c
- The Song They Sang. For Band Girls 10c
- The Pill Bottle. A medical missionary play. "The best missionary sermon ever heard," says one enthusiastic eyewitness of this play 25c
- The Honourable Mrs. Ling's Conversion (China) 40c
- The Voices of the Women. This is the dream of a supposedly Christian woman where feature the voice of conscience and the women of other Christian lands 15c
- Two Masters. A Christian woman tries to serve two masters and finds it impossible and becomes converted to Missions 15c
- The Foreign Missionary Deller and what it does, is a good instructive exercise for boys or girls 4c
- Study of Beginning of Our Work, should be in every Sunday School and Mission Band in our Convention 1c
- Study of Palestine 6c
- Where Shall I Hang My Sign? for 8 Senior Band girls, or young ladies. Is instructive and thoughtful. 5c each or 8 for 25c
- Visitor and Link Exercise, a recitation for 7 Band members 5c
- Wanted, a good exercise for boys or girls 5c
- What a Copper Will Do. For 5 girls or 1 boy and a missionary. This is by our missionary, Miss McLeod 2c
- In addition, we have "Missionary Gems for Juniors" which is highly recommended by "those who know" containing songs, recitations, monologues, etc. 35c