The butter market is firm, and prices in the country are practically unchanged from last week. The demand for export is falling off, and the shipments this week were barrely one quarter of the quantity shipped last week. There are signs, however, that the demand will come up again provided prices are not pushed up here to any extent, as there pushed up here to any extent, as there have a subject to the supply of butter as allowed in the United King-dom.

MONTREAL PRODUCE TRADE

Montreal, Saturday, July 28th — But-ter. — There is a good trade doing in butter, and dealers have no difficulty in obtaining 25c for choice prints, and 25/5c for the same quality solids.
