|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| This is the day the Lord hath made,   | I leave my sports to read and pray, |
| He calls its hours His own.           | And so prepare for heaven,          |
| Let earth rejoice and heaven be glad, | O may I love this blessed day,      |
| And praise surround the throne.       | The best of all the seven.          |

II. PRAYER. Sentence by sentence, the children following.

III. SUPPLEMENTAL LESSON. Learn verse by verse, and repeat, Matt. 2 : 7-11. Review Hymn 538, Book of Praise, learned in previous Quarter.

IV. OFFERINGS.

Teacher. Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said :
Class. It is more blessed to give than to receive.

V. RECITE IN CONCERT.

|  |                                  |
|--|----------------------------------|
| Quietly each scholar stands,           | While we speak He draws so near, |
| With closed eyes and folded hands,     | Every loving word He'll hear;    |
| Every head will humbly bow,            | He has taught us what to say :   |
| We are seeking Jesus now.              | In His blessed name we pray—     |
| "Our Father which art in heaven," etc. |                                  |

VI. REPEAT THE GOLDEN TEXT FOR THE QUARTER. "Never man spake like this Man," John 7 : 46.

| Christ, the blessed One, gives to all |  |
| Wonderful words of life;              | Beautiful words, wonderful words, |
| Sinner, list to the loving call,      | Wonderful words of life—          |
| Wonderful words of life;              | Beautiful words, wonderful words, |
| All so freely given,                  | Wonderful words of life.          |
| Wooing us to heaven.                  |  |

VIII. LESSON FOR THE DAY.

IX. CLOSING HYMN. (Tune, Innocents, 99, Book of Praise.)

|                                |                                    |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Saviour, give Thy grace to me, | While Thy blessings, Lord, I seek, |
| Ever Thy dear child to be,     | Help me gentle words to speak;     |
| Needful grace for every day,   | Help me loving deeds to do;        |
| Thee to honor and obey.        | Make me humble, pure and true.     |

Put Thine arms around me now,
 Place Thy hand upon my brow;
 Bless me as Thou didst of old,
 Keep me safe within Thy fold.
